Parables Mette Birkedal Bruun, 2007 This study is concerned with the topographical layout of Bernard of Clairvaux s Parables It examines his treatment of such locations as Paradise Egypt and the bridegroom s chamber and his reformulation of central monastic issues as navigations within spiritual landscapes

Parables From Paradise Kenneth Smith, 2001-08-09 An intimate look into people places and things that show the depth of the Christian faith exemplified in a walk and talk of personal living The book is an example of living of the Christian faith not just a verbalization of it Simplistic but profound accidental and intentional dispassionate yet warm and loving it is aloha in the Christian faith

Snatched into Paradise (2 Cor 12:1-10) James Buchanan Wallace, 2011-01-27 Recent scholars have tended to interpret 2 Corinthians 12 1 10 as an attempt to belittle ecstatic experiences such as Paul s ascent to paradise in favor of suffering in the service of the gospel This study offers an alternative An analysis of ascent traditions in the Greco Roman and Jewish worlds investigates ascent as both a literary motif and a religious practice This analysis probes several issues relevant to 2 Cor 12 1 10 including dynamics of ascent and suffering The study turns next to religious experiences Paul believes he and his communities have undergone A pattern emerges in which extraordinary experiences provide the basis for suffering and service Moreover Paul expects his communities to have had experiences similar to if less dramatic than his ascent to heaven The author argues that in its context in 2 Corinthians Paul s ascent should be understood as an encounter with Christ that transcends human language and endows Paul with divine power which must be refined through suffering With the help of four premodern interpreters the study further explores the theological relevance of Paul s ascent For Paul mystical encounter with Christ forms the precondition for suffering and service because it enables self transcending love for God and neighbors

George Rutler, 2015-03-09 Christ knew that the splendor of heaven is too great for us to bear just now and so he used parables as clues to the mystery of paradise In them are hints of heaven and they offer profound spiritual advice meant to guide us on the road to eternal glory In our age Christ s Parables are often reduced to exercises in moralism In these pages Fr George Rutler acclaimed author and EWTN television host unveils these deceptively simple stories showing you their hidden meanings and how they apply to our own age and way of life Let Fr Rutler take you on an enriching tour of Scripture s 24 parables as you learn Tares in the Field of the Lord Why it s necessary that scandals beset the Church and how it brings about a stronger harvest The Mustard Seed Why it gave hope to the early Church and prefigures her glorious future The Yeast How God speaks in a gentle and inward voice which melts the soul and how you could be drowning Him out The Hidden Treasure Are you responding properly to the unique gifts Christ has given you The Net Many will be sifted out How to be sure you re among the souls He keeps The Unmerciful Servant Not only must you forgive you must convert the offender Are you a channel for God s grace Laborers in the Vineyard Are you letting selfishness and pride get in the way of the salvation of your neighbor s soul The Two Sons The dangers of agnosticism Are you guilty You may be astonished at the answer The Marriage of the King s Son Why frequent reception of the sacraments is necessary for dwelling at the wedding feast The Ten Virgins There s a difference between watching and being prepared for Christ s return Are you ready The Ten Talents God has given you a special gift Do you know what it is and how you should use it The Two Debtors How to know if you are going through the motions without Christ s love The Good Samaritan Do you know the most overlooked element of this parable It may surprise you The Rich Fool Our capacity for self deception is limitless Learn the only way to be truly know yourself The Barren Fig Tree Time is running out and we have one last chance to cultivate virtue Will you bear fruit in time The Great Supper There s room for all in the heavenly banquet but not all will find room Are you making excuses that lead you into isolation The Lost Sheep and the Lost Coin Do you judge others or do you receive them as Christ did Why your approach to lost sheep could cost you your soul The Prodigal Son Learn how this famous parable explains why God created mankind and chose to give Himself to us The Unjust Steward The world is filled with evildoers Are you mirroring the light of Christ The Rich Man and Lazarus Learn the evils of self sufficiency and the dangers of taking gifts for granted The Unjust Judge Why you must persevere in prayer despite your continued sins The Pharisee and the Publican Why even though you may not commit great sins your failure to put faith into action could ruin your soul Iohannes Scottus Eriugena Gerd Van

Riel, Carlos G. Steel, J. J. Pease, 1989-09 The term American Renaissance designates a period in our nation's history when the literary classics appeared works original enough to mark a beginning for America's literary history But the American Renaissance Donald Pease argues in his introduction does not belong to the nation's secular history so much as it denotes a rebirth from it Independent of the time kept by secular history the American Renaissance keeps what we could call global Renaissance time the sacred time a nation claims to renew when it claims its cultural place as a great nation existing within a world of great nations Providing each nation with the terms for cultural greatness denied to secular history the renaissance is not an occasion occurring within any specific historical time or place so much as it is a moment of cultural achievement that repeatedly demands to be reborn The American Renaissance Reconsidered examines this demand for rebirth in terms other than those ordained by the American Renaissance itself In the seven pieces collected here it is reborn not outside of but within America's secular history as the authors examine anew the period of the American Renaissance and the period in which its history was written Contributing authors are Eric J Sundquist Jane P Tompkins Louis A Renza Jonathan Arac Donald E Pease Walter Benn Michaels and Allen Grossman The United States Catalog, 1928 An Exposition of the Parables of Our Lord ... With a preliminary dissertation on the parable B. BAILEY (Domestic Chaplain to Lord Torpichen.), 1828

Masters of Learned Ignorance: Eriugena, Eckhart, Cusanus Donald F. Duclow, 2024-08-01 The medieval Christian West's most radical practitioners of a Neoplatonic negative theology with a mystical focus are John Scottus Eriugena Meister Eckhart and Nicholas Cusanus All three mastered what Cusanus described as docta ignorantia reflecting on their awareness that they could know neither God nor the human mind they worked out endlessly varied attempts to express what cannot be known Following Pseudo Dionysius the Areopagite they sought to name God with symbolic expressions whose negation leads into mystical theology For within their Neoplatonic dialectic negation moves beyond reason and its finite distinctions to intellect where opposites coincide and a vision of God's infinite unity becomes possible In these papers Duclow views these thinkers efforts through the lens of contemporary philosophical hermeneutics He highlights the interplay of creativity symbolic expression and language interpretation and silence as Eriugena Eckhart and Cusanus comment on the mind s work in naming God This work itself becomes mystical theology when negation opens into a silent awareness of God s presence from which the Word once again speaks within the mind and renews the process of creating and interpreting symbols Comparative studies with Gregory of Nyssa Pseudo Dionysius Anselm and Hadewijch suggest the book s wider implications for medieval philosophy and theology
