The Parable Project Stephen Jager, 2020-05-17 The most exciting aspect of the parables is getting to know the heart of the man who told them Jesus Christ He has a remarkably laconic way of speaking using few but loaded words to describe big life-changing concepts He gets impatient when he knows he's done all he can for his audience to grasp something He gets angry at any inhibitors of prayer He has a very potent catchphrase he uses both in the gospels and the book of Revelation He who has an ear let him hear But most importantly Jesus reveals the heart of the Father providing unequalled access to the only God of this world Parables are similes explaining principles to illustrate a moral or spiritual lesson which can be applied for better living Often parables are accompanied by a teaching and other times it is not explained It is important for parables to be seen in their context their setting and what was said before and after so that more can be inferred But because the Bible is the Living Word of God means that even though I've pulled all I believe I could from the depths of each parable it continues to yield more with each study which means this parable project shall no doubt remain a work in progress This a commentary of the twenty-nine parables spoken by Jesus Christ and one true story of what has often been construed as a parable but is not My resources in explaining them have been prayer the promptings of the Holy Spirit the Bible itself of course which I believe interprets itself when investigating parallel passages and a number of commentaries What a joyous and delightful journey this has been and is

The Parables of the New Testament William Bacon Stevens, 2017-03-27 The Parables of the New Testament is a classic Christian text written by William Bacon Stevens and presented a beautiful biblical interpretation of the parables of Jesus The book presents biblical commentary and author's notes on each parable There are more than 20 parables of Jesus The Sower The Ten Virgins The Rich Fool The Prodigal Son The Rich Man and Lazarus The Good Samaritan The Pearl of Great Price The Mustard Seed The Pharisee and the Publican
