Parachutes Could Carry Us Higher:

Parachutes Could Carry Us Higher, 1972 The Oxford Book of American Poetry David Lehman, 2006 Redefines the great canon of American poetry from its origins in the 17th century right up to the present The Collected Poems of Barbara Guest Barbara Guest, 2013-09-01 Winner of the SFSU Poetry Center Book Award 2010 One of the most notable members of the New York School and its best known woman Barbara Guest began writing poetry in the 1950s in company that included John Ashbery Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler And from the beginning her practice placed her at the vanguard of American writing Guest's poetry saturated in the visual arts extended the formal experiments of modernism and played the abstract qualities of language against its sensuousness and materiality Now for the first time all of her published poems have been brought together in one volume offering readers and scholars unprecedented access to Guest's remarkable visionary work This Collected Poems moves from her early New York School years through her more abstract later work including some final poems never before published Switching effortlessly from the real to the dreamlike the observed to the imagined this is poetry both gentle and piercing seemingly simple but truly and beautifully dislocating

The New American Poetry, 1945-1960 Donald Allen, 2023-11-15 With more than 100 000 copies sold The New American Poetry has become one of the most influential anthologies published in the United States since World War II As one of the first counter cultural collections of American verse this volume fits in Robert Lowell's famous definition of the raw in American poetry Many of the contributors once derided in the mainstream press of the period are now part of the postmodern canon Olson Duncan Creeley Guest Ashbery Ginsberg Kerouac Levertov O Hara Snyder Schuyler and others Donald Allen's The New American Poetry delivered the first taste of these remarkable poets and the book has since become an invaluable historical and cultural record now available again for a new generation of readers With more than 100 000 copies sold The New American Poetry has become one of the most influential anthologies published in the United States since World War II As one of the first counter cultural collections of American verse this volume fits in The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg, 2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg's annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg's detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets Blue Opening Chet'la

Sebree,2025-09-16 A profound poetic talent Ada Lim n Blue Opening Chet'la Sebree's brilliant illuminating poetry collection grapples with origins of illness of language of the universe as the speaker contemplates whether she too can be a site of origin through motherhood Navigating chronic health challenges alongside grief and questions about the nature of knowledge and religion she searches personal history and the cosmos for answers to the unknowable With startling clarity and vivid tenderness Blue Opening calls into question not only where to begin but how to create across thirty two poems that press the fluid boundaries of form through sonnets prose poems odes and two unforgettable poetic sequences As the speaker traverses loss possibility and the choice or often the lack of choice in the direction of her future she determines to press forward even as she is unsure of what shape this language should take and hulling from blue rock faith Beat Poets

Carmela Ciuraru,2002-07-09 This rousing anthology features the work of more than twenty five writers from the great twentieth century countercultural literary movement Writing with an audacious swagger and an iconoclastic zeal and declaiming their verse with dramatic flourish in smoke filled caf's the Beats gave birth to a literature of previously unimaginable expressive range The defining work of Allen Ginsberg and Jack Kerouac provides the foundation for this collection which also features the improvisational verse of such Beat legends as Gregory Corso Lawrence Ferlinghetti Gary Snyder and Michael McClure and the work of such women writers as Diane DiPrima and Denise Levertov LeRoi Jones's plaintive Preface to a Twenty Volume Suicide Note and Bob Kaufman's stirring Abomunist Manifesto appear here alongside statements on poetics and the alternately incendiary and earnest correspondence of Beat Generation writers Visceral and powerful infused with an unmediated spiritual and social awareness this is a rich and varied tribute and in the populist spirit of the Beats a vital addition to the libraries of readers everywhere The Transmutation of Love and Avant-Garde Poetics

Jeanne Heuving,2016-05-19 The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics is a probing examination of how the writing of sexual love undergoes a radical revision by avant garde poets in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Today the exploration of love by poets long a fixture of Western poetic tradition is thought to be in decline with love itself understood to be a mere ideological overlay for the more real entities of physical sex and desire In The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics Jeanne Heuving claims that a key achievement of poetry by Ezra Pound H D Robert Duncan Kathleen Fraser Nathaniel Mackey and others lies significantly in their engagement with the synergistic relations between being in love and writing love These poets she argues have traded the clich'd lover of yore for impersonal or posthuman poetic speakers that sustain the gloire and mystery of love poetry of prior centuries As Robert Duncan writes There is a love in which we are outcast and vagabond from what we are that we call falling in love Heuving claims that this writing of love is defining for avant garde poetics identifying how such important discoveries as Pound s and H D s Imagism Pound s Cantos and Duncan s open field poetics are derived through their changed writing of love She draws attention to how the prevailing concept of language as material is inadequate to the ways these poets also engage language as a medium as a conduit enabling them to address love afresh in a time defined through preoccupations with sexuality They engage love as immanent and change it through a writing that acts on itself The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics ascribes the waning of love poetry to its problematic form a genre in which empowered poetic speakers constitute their speech through the objectification of comparatively disempowered subjects or beloveds Refusing this pervasive practice the poets she highlights reject the delimiting one sided tradition of masculine lovers and passive feminine beloveds instead they create a more nuanced dynamic poetics of ecstatic exploration what Heuving calls projective love and libidinized field poetics a formally innovative poetry in which one perception leads directly to the next and all aspects of a poem are generative of meaning Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1974 Wallace Stevens among Others David R.

Jarraway,2015-09-01 In Wallace Stevens among Others David Jarraway explores the extraordinary achievement of Wallace Stevens but in contexts that are not usually thought about in connection with Stevens s work gay literature contemporary fiction Hollywood film and avant garde architecture among others By viewing the poet among these other contexts Jarraway considers the nature of self reflection and pays special attention to the discrediting of self presence as the principle of identity in American writing a theme that reflects American authors abiding concern for subjectivities that engage the world from spaces of distance and difference By returning to the work of Stevens Jarraway seeks to refurbish this preoccupation by linking it to the literary theory of French philosopher Gilles Deleuze whose work applies to American writers from Melville and Whitman to Fitzgerald and Cummings Jarraway forges the link between Deleuze and Stevens by drawing out the female subjectivity found in each writer s work to rethink the more static masculinist premises of being Informed by a deep knowledge of and fluency with the work of Stevens and Deleuze Jarraway uses these writers as a means of entry into American literature and culture Wallace Stevens among Others is a sophisticated analysis that will open new directions for future scholarship Urban Pastoral Timothy Gray,2010-10-28 We knew Koch Guest O Hara Ashbery and Schuyler thrived on the gritty buoyant clank of city life but that they drew from a secret fountain there only the Brill Building really let on until now In seven crisply argued essayistic chapters Gray lets us see and feel the invisible paradise glowing within the visible form of the subway the skyscraper the tenement bank the tattoo parlor a heaven growing in the street right up through the concrete but soft and sweet and dreaming Kevin Killian Author Little Men Book Jacket Women, the New York School, and Other True Abstractions Maggie Nelson,2007-12 Maggie Nelson provides the first extended consideration of the roles played by women in and around the New York School of poets from the 1950s to the present and offers unprecedented analyses of the work of Barbara Guest Bernadette Mayer Alice Notley Eileen Myles and abstract painter Joan Mitchell as well as a reconsideration of the work of many male New York School writers and artists from a feminist perspective

American Literature in Transition, 1950-1960 Steven Belletto, 2017-12-28 American Literature in Transition 1950 1960 explores the under recognized complexity and variety of 1950s American literature by focalizing discussions through a series of keywords and formats that encourage readers to draw fresh connections among literary form and concepts institutions cultures and social phenomena important to the decade The first section draws attention to the relationship between literature and cultural phenomena that were new to the 1950s The second section demonstrates the range of subject positions important in the 1950s but still not visible in many accounts of the era The third section explores key literary schools or movements associated with the decade and explains how and why they developed at this particular cultural moment The final section focuses on specific forms or genres that grew to special prominence during the 1950s Taken together the chapters in the four sections not only encourage us to rethink familiar texts and figures in new lights but they also propose new archives for future study of the decade

The Addison Street Anthology Robert Hass, Jessica Fisher, 2004 Poetry As a way of preserving and celebrating Berkeley's wellspring of literary and artistic history the City of Berkeley called on former U S Poet Laureate Robert Hass and award winning artist David Goines to design a series of poetry panels that have been installed in the sidewalks of Berkeley's thriving downtown arts and theater district Filled with history poetry and anecdote it is a splendid introduction to the history of poetry in the city with full commentary on each poem by Hass himself Taken as a whole this work makes clear the importance passion playfulness and episodic looniness of one of America's most vibrant cities

The New American Poetry John R. Woznicki, 2013-12-24 The New American Poetry Fifty Years Later is a collection of critical essays on Donald Allen's 1960 seminal anthology The New American Poetry an anthology that Marjorie Perloff once called the fountainhead of radical American poetics The New American Poetry is referred to in every literary history of post World War II American poetry Allen's anthology has reached its fiftieth anniversary providing a unique time for reflection and reevaluation of this preeminent collection As we know Allen's anthology was groundbreaking it was the first to distribute widely the poetry and theoretical positions of poets such as Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg and the Beats and it was the first to categorize these poets by the schools Black Mountain New York School San Francisco Renaissance and the Beats by which they are known today Over the course of fifty years this categorization of poets into schools has become one of the major if not only way that The New American Poetry is remembered or valued one certain goal of this volume as one reviewer invites is to pry The New American Poetry out from the hoary platitudes that have encrusted it To this point critics mostly have examined The New American Poetry as an anthology former treatments of The New American Poetry look at it intently as a whole Though the almost singularly focused study of its construction and less often reception has lent a great deal of documented highly visible and debated material in which to consider we have been left with certain notions about its relevance that have become imbued ultimately in the collective critical consciousness of postmodernity This volume however goes beyond the analysis of construction and reception and achieves something distinctive extending those former treatments by treading on the paths they create This volume aims to discover another sense of radical that Perloff articulated rather than a radical that departs markedly from the usual we invite consideration of The New American Poetry that is radical in the sense of root of harboring something fundamental something inherent as we uncover and trace further elements correlated with its widespread influence over the last fifty years

The Hatchling Olivia Eddy, 2008-09-04 Two families of spiders the Websters and the Silksmiths share the attic in an old Victorian house Harry Silksmith the arrogant father and his wife Spinera are stricken when their baby is born missing one appendage The two families join forces to find the eminent Dr Threads This brilliant scientist lives in the basement and may be able to help the hatchling The Silksmiths and Websters must overcome their differences and battle the many adversities they encounter The spider's lives are in further danger when they become entangled with the Anderson family who also live in the old house Donald Anderson is constantly pestering his younger sister Susan and hatches a plot to sabotage her science project He is surprised when the plan backfires During the spider's journey the Webster's only child Spinner is in grave danger when he is captured by Donald Spinner had been taught when in danger Stop Drop and CURL UP Will this be enough to save his life What sets this work apart and makes it unique is that throughout the novel the reader is not only entertained but is also educated The reader learns information about spiders their anatomy habits and lifestyle in an amusing tale of bravery and fellowship Follow these two families on their quest to help the hatchling
