Paradise Divided The Changes The Challenges The Choices:

The Prince's New Clothes David Burchell, Andrew Leigh, 2002 Towards the end of the 20th century Australia was swept by a mood of cynicism towards politicians and government This comprehensive collection brings together politicians policy makers and scholars to answer difficult questions in the ethical dimension of Australian politics John Winston Howard Peter Van Onselen, Wayne Errington, 2008 A portrait of one of Australia's longest serving prime ministers this biography goes behind the public image to find neither the strong willed man of principle his supporters like to imagine nor the cunning opportunist painted by his foes The discussion covers Howard's suburban middle class upbringing and his success at implementing his policies concluding that although the image of the ordinary bloke has helped his enduring popularity heandmdash like George Bushandmdash possesses a number of uncommon strengths that have made him one of the most formidable leaders in Australian political history America and China Randall Jordan Doyle, 2007-01-01 America and China Asia Pacific Rim Hegemony in the Twenty first Century places a historical context around the remarkable changes in international relations taking place in this region during the first decade of this millennium While many institutions established after World War II are being re examined the United States key allies in the region Australia Japan and South Korea publicly acknowledge that their relations with the United States are still strong However the balance of power has shifted dramatically in the region as China has experienced a meteoric rise in economic clout and military power Randall Doyle examines this epic transition within the Asia Pacific Rim region by drawing on the research and thought of regional analysts politicians scholars and think tanks America and China is the definitive study of this important and still ongoing period of world history Neo-Victorianism and the Memory of Empire Elizabeth Ho, 2012-04-19 Examining the global dimensions of Neo Victorianism this book explores how the appropriation of Victorian images in contemporary literature and culture has emerged as a critical response to the crises of decolonization and Imperial collapse Neo Victorianism and the Memory of Empire explores the phenomenon by reading a range of popular and literary Anglophone neo Victorian texts including Alan Moore's Graphic Novel From Hell works by Peter Carey and Margaret Atwood the films of Jackie Chan and contemporary Steampunk science fiction Through these readings Elizabeth Ho explores how constructions of popular memory and fictionalisations of the past reflect political and psychological engagements with our contemporary post Imperial circumstances Cricket's Changing Ethos Jon Gemmell, 2018-04-28 This book examines historically how cricket was codified out of its variant folk forms and then marketed with certain lessons sought to reinforce the values of a declining landed interest It goes on to show how such values were then adapted as part of the imperial experiment and were eventually rejected and replaced with an ethos that better reflected the interests of new dominant elites The work examines the impact of globalisation and marketization on cricket and analyses the shift from an English dominance on a sport that is ever increasingly being shaped by Asian forces The book's distinctiveness lies in trying to decode the spirit of the game outlining a set of actual characteristics rather than a vague sense of values An historical analysis shows how imperialism nationalism commercialism and globalisation have shaped and adapted these characteristics As such it will be of interest to students and scholars of sport sociology post colonialism globalisation as well as those with an interest in the game of cricket and sport more generally Defense Relations between Australia and Indonesia in the Post-Cold War Era Bilveer Singh,2002-09-30 Recent years have seen dramatic shifts in the nature of Australian Indonesian relations and this in turn has had a great impact on the strategic partnership that had gradually come into existence between the two regional powers Against the backdrop of rapid strategic political economic social and technological changes occurring on a global scale Australian foreign policy efforts at cooperation with its largest and nearest Asian neighbor have changed as well largely as a result of domestic political considerations Reaching a high point under Prime Minister Keating defense relations soured considerably and suddenly after 1999 Singh provides a non partisan account of the shift from partnership to cold peace and an examination of how it has affected the bilateral regional and global security environment The Indonesian public and political elite have become hostile toward Australia as a result of her perceived role in the birth of an independent East Timor Indonesians are also increasingly suspicious of Australian intentions toward their own country with many believing that Canberra would like to repeat its East Timor success in Papua thereby leading to the disintegration of Indonesia itself John Howard s pro Western policies are also viewed as a return to Australian projection of itself as a Western outpost on the fringes of Asia As the strategic cooperation between the two nations has faltered it has had tremendous implications for the defense and security outlook of both powers The world cannot afford to ignore this possible threat to regional stability Policy Agendas in Australia Keith Dowding,Aaron Martin,2016-11-04 This book contributes to and expands on the major international Comparative Policy Agendas Project It sets the project in context and provides a comprehensive assessment of the changing policy agenda in Australia over a forty year period using a unique systematic dataset of governor general speeches legislation and parliamentary questions and then mapping these on to media coverage and what the public believes according to poll evidence government should be concentrating upon The book answers some important questions in political science what are the most important legislative priorities for government over time Does the government follow talk with action Does government attend to the issues the public identifies as most important And how does media attention follow the policy agenda The authors deploy their unique dataset to provide a new and exciting perspective on the nature of Australian public policy and the Comparative Policy Agendas Project more broadly Encyclopedia of World Geography R. W. McColl,2005 Presents a comprehensive guide to the geography of the world with world maps and articles on cartography notable explorers climate and more Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2000 An Articulate Country Kay Ferres,Denise Meredyth,2001 For teachers charged with implementing a government sponsored Discovering Democracy curriculum this study surveys Australian and North American debates over civics education in a pluralistic society The authors presumably educators discuss Australia's democratic tradition and its agenda for ed Lock Haven International Review, 2001

Parliament and Public Opinion, 2002 Includes the following lectures National sovereignty in a globalising world Jeremy Rabkin Distrustful disenchanted and disengaged Polled opinions on politics politicians and the parties an historical perspective Murray Goot Confidence in public institutions restoring pride to politics David Zussman and more Dividing Paradise Jennifer Sherman, 2021-04-13 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2022 How rural areas have become uneven proving grounds for the American Dream Late stage capitalism is trying to remake rural America in its own image and the resistance is telling Small town economies that have traditionally been based on logging mining farming and ranching now increasingly rely on tourism second home ownership and retirement migration In Dividing Paradise Jennifer Sherman tells the story of Paradise Valley Washington a rural community where amenity driven economic growth has resulted in a new social landscape of inequality and privilege with deep fault lines between old timers and newcomers In this complicated cultural reality class blindness allows privileged newcomers to ignore or justify their impact on these towns papering over the sentiments of anger loss and disempowerment of longtime locals Based on in depth interviews with individuals on both sides of the divide this book explores the causes and repercussions of the stark inequity that has become commonplace across the United States It exposes the mechanisms by which inequality flourishes and by which Americans have come to believe that disparity is acceptable and deserved Sherman who is known for her work on rural America presents here a powerful case study of the ever growing tensions between those who can and those who cannot achieve their visions of the American dream International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 2001 Challenge and Change Allen Hern, 2022-04-19 A naive teenager in Northern Ontario A United Church minister A resident in a Catholic Convent A teacher in the Government High School in Nassau the Bahamas A world traveler What do these have in common They are various phases in the life of Reba Ethel Hern the second woman ordained into the ministry of the United Church of Canada in 1937 A fascinating woman whose story has been waiting to be told Challenge and Change The Travails and Joys of a Complex Woman is a celebration and exploration of the life of Reba Hern the second woman in all of Canada to be ordained into the United Church ministry a strong independent woman who stepped outside the box breaking ground for others through a wide variety of experiences and numerous major world events a woman ahead of her time After thirteen years of ministry Reba burned out and entered a Catholic Convent for five years following which this native of Sault Ste Marie ON travelled to Nassau Bahamas where she spent the next sixteen years teaching Religious Knowledge and English in the Government High School During that time Reba was on hand for the birth of a black government and for the Independence of the Bahamas from British Colonial rule From this position she began to travel the world a recreation she continued after retiring to Tsawwassen BC in 1974 Challenge and Change illustrates the degree to which opportunities for women have progressed since WW II and investigates these questions How did women secure the right to become ministers in a profession which had traditionally been male dominated What was it like for a white woman to live and teach black students in a predominately black culture What was the country of the Bahamas like How did the Bahamas achieve its independence What is it like to travel in countries in which English is a secondary language or where bathroom facilities consist of a hole in the floor

Disasters in Paradise Amanda D. Concha-Holmes,Anthony Oliver-Smith,2019-10-11 Long considered ground zero for global climate change in the United States Florida presents the perfect case study for disaster risk and prevention Building on the idea that disasters are produced by historical and contemporary social processes as well as natural phenomena Amanda D Concha Holmes and Anthony Oliver Smith present a collection of ethnographic case studies that examine the social and environmental effects of Florida s public and private sector development policies Contributors to Disasters in Paradise explore how these practices have increased the vulnerability of Floridians to hurricanes tornadoes floods droughts frosts and forest fires

Choice ,2004 The Evangelical Church at the Crossroads of Secular Culture and Change Dr. Arnold O. Thompson,2025-03-28 This book lays out in clear biblical and specific ways how the kingdom of God can effectively intersect with the kingdom of this world The author first laid out the dark forces in the churches engagement in the so called cultural wars like storm force winds blowing at the doors of the church to influence its message change its historical methods corrupt its mission It identifies the crises in all three areas The author contends that by and large the so called cultural wars waged by sections of the evangelical church have been lost in the real mission of the Christian church The book does not linger long here but rigorously lays out the biblical mandate and methods for the church to regain its purpose and mission of Christ in the world

This is the goal of this book From the start the author understood this was an extensive undertaking to stand like John on the island of Patmos looking at visions of the modern church and to write a manifesto as if to say for God I see you I see what a large and influential segment of the church is doing which I contend is hurting the cause of Christ and His Gospel today But also to say that I see what is needed to again influence the culture to turn to Christ To give as did John a clear voice to defy the confusions and uncertainties and communicate effectively the Gospel of Christ to a lost world This goal would seem impossible to see a revival of the Gospel in secular culture like the great revivals of the past Except the ancient prophets said as did Peter in the revival of Pentecost In the last days God says I will pour out my Spirit on all people Your sons and daughters will prophesy your young men will see visions your old men will dream dreams Acts 2 17 This book is a dream path to the reality of a revival of the Gospel in our times

The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn, 2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind s eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media
