Women in Place Nazanin Shahrokni, 2019-12-24

While much has been written about the impact of the 1979 Islamic revolution on life in Iran discussions about the everyday life of Iranian women have been glaringly missing Women in Place offers a gripping inquiry into gender segregation policies and women's rights in contemporary Iran Author Nazanin Shahrokni takes us onto gender segregated buses inside a women only park and outside the closed doors of stadiums where women are banned from attending men's soccer matches The Islamic character of the state she demonstrates has had to coexist fuse and compete with technocratic imperatives pragmatic considerations regarding the viability of the state international influences and global trends Through a retelling of the past four decades of state policy regulating gender boundaries Women in Place challenges notions of the Iranian state as overly unitary ideological and isolated from social forces and pushes us to contemplate the changing place of women in a social order shaped by capitalism state sanctioned Islamism and debates about women's rights Shahrokni throws into sharp relief the ways in which the state strives to constantly regulate and contain women's bodies and movements within the boundaries of the proper but simultaneously invests in and claims credit for their expanded access to public spaces The Paradise of Women Betty Travitsky, 1981 The Anatomy of Melancholy, what it Is, with All the Kinds, Causes, Symptoms, Prognostics, and Several Cures of It. In Three Partitions Robert Burton, 1880 Women of All Nations Thomas Athol Joyce, Northcote Whitridge Thomas, 1912 "Material Women, 1750-1950" Maureen Daly Goggin, 2017-07-05 With the volume's global perspective and comparative framework this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly examination of consumption by taking the topic of women material culture and consumption into new arenas The essays explore the connections between consumption and subjectivity they build upon and complicate the idea that consumption as a form of meaning making is key to the construction of gendered classed and national identities Providing a cross cultural perspective on consumption the essays are historically specific case studies While some essays examine women's consumption in a range of Anglophone and Francophone locations primarily in Britain France Australia Canada and the US other essays on Chinese Senegalese Indian and Mexican women's consumption particularly as it relates to fashion and design provide a comparative framework that will recalibrate ongoing discussions about consumption and domesticity dress and identity and desire and subjectivity In addition to its focus on gender and consumption this volume addresses gender and collecting exploring the tensions between accumulation and systematic collecting Also examined is the way in which the display of collected objects in Impressionists paintings in mass produced illustrations in the glass cases of museums and department stores participates in the construction of particular identities as well as serving as a kind of value producing material practice Women Writers of Discourses and Representations of Friendship in Early Modern Europe, 1500-1700 Daniel T. Lochman, Maritere López, Lorna Hutson, 2011 Interdisciplinary in scope, this collection examines the varied and complex ways in which early modern Europeans imagined, discussed, and enacted friendship, a fundamentally elective relationship between individuals otherwise bound in prescribed familial, religious, and political associations. Women's Work Courtney Thorsson, 2013-06-17 In Women's Work, Courtney Thorsson reconsiders the gender, genre, and geography of African American nationalism as she explores the aesthetic history of African American writing by women. Building on and departing from the Black Arts Movement, the literary fiction of such writers as Toni Cade Bambara, Paule Marshall, Gloria Naylor, Ntozake Shange, and Toni Morrison employs a cultural nationalism practiced by their characters as women's work that defines a distinct contemporary literary movement, demanding attention to the continued relevance of nation in post-Black Arts writing. Identifying five forms of women's work as organizing, dancing, mapping, cooking, and inscribing, Thorsson shows how these writers reclaimed and revised cultural nationalism to hail African America.

The Politics and Poetics of Everyday Life Kristin Ross, 2023-05-02 Using the concept of the everyday as a lever for social transformation, the texts in this volume represent Kristin Ross's attempt to think the question of the everyday across a range of discourses, practices, and knowledges from philosophy to history from the visual arts to popular fiction all the way to the forms taken by collective political action in the territorial struggles of today If everyday life is as many have come to believe the ideal vantage point for an analysis of the social it is also the crucial first step in its transformation The volume opens with a return to Henri Lefebvre's powerful attempt to use the everyday as both residue and resource as the site of profound alienation and by the same token the site where all emancipatory initiatives and desires begin The second section focuses on our attempts to represent our lived reality to ourselves in cultural forms from painting and literature and film to an analysis of the contemporary transformations of the sub genre most embedded in the deep superficiality of everyday life detective fiction The final section turns to present day ecological occupations in the wake of the zad at Notre Dame des Landes and locates the everyday as a site for rich oppositional resources and immanent social creativity
