On the Tour Thomas Porky McDonald, 2017-09-25 The second volume of mini travelogues by poet and writer Thomas Porky McDonald On the Tour More City Walks picks up where A Walk in the City An Incomplete Tour left off This time in addition to some previously unmentioned museums a number of parks historic houses theaters and New York landmarks join in the mix From Washington Square Park to the Old Town Bar Restaurant to the Louis Armstrong House to the Queens Bronx and Prospect Park Zoos The City is well represented in McDonalds brief vignettes Once again a Walking Distance addendum is featured in order to give the traveler an idea of the most possible sites one can see in a given day Another useful and understated guide to the writers lifetime home

Porkwalk Thomas Porky McDonald, 2020-10-01 Having packaged his more than 3 100 poems in chronological and themed collections poet writer Thomas Porky McDonald had the idea of putting together a volume of some relevant pieces that feature his lifetime home of Queens New York On addition Porkwalk The Queens Collection utilizes the same formula that McDonald chose in a previous collection based on his 20 years working out of neighboring Brooklyn Dem Poems The Brooklyn Collection The 364 poems contained in this book are divided into sections with old friends his Astoria neighborhood baseball and the losses he has suffered in the mix This collection brings the poet back to where it all began and is thus arguably the most important one to date

A Walk in the City Thomas Porky McDonald, 2014-12-18 A random poem written on a birthday years before finds a new life when a series of interrelated profiles come together in a most unexpected way This is what constitutes A Walk in the City writer poet Thomas Porky McDonald s New York City travelogue A compilation of pieces written originally for an internal website at his workplace in New York City transit this volume shares brief yet effective vignettes on a number of various sites in the city some famous and others hardly on the radar It is dedicated to the average tourist and or the lifetime

New Yorker McDonald's love of the place he's called home for his entire life comes across most vibrantly. Though the outer boroughs are touched upon transiently, this collection of go-to sketches and reminiscences is centered mainly in Manhattan, which as any New Yorker knows is the place that all those who live in Brooklyn, Queens, the Bronx, and Staten Island call The City. From the world-famous sites like the Empire State Building and Times Square to hidden jewels like the New York City Transit Museum, the Theodore Roosevelt Birthplace, or the New York City Fire Museum, A Walk in the City provides something for anyone seeking interesting pit stops in New York, whether planned ahead or merely in the course of a day already begun. The book is subtitled An Incomplete Tour since it is McDonald's contention that no one could truly put every point of interest in the city into a single volume. Here, an unencumbered collection of articles attempts to send the reader out in search of something that cannot be explained without actually having the experience of being there. In any case, this is a city wanderer's bonanza, one that should be considered by anyone who aspires to explore the diverse venues located in the greatest city in the world.

After the Dream Poems: 2009-2011 Thomas Porky McDonald, 2020-02-13. The eighth, five-book collection of poetry by poet and writer Thomas Porky McDonald. After the Dream Poems 2009-2011 brings the author even closer to home than in his previous work, with a thought to where the world is headed. The title poems for each of the five books in the mix: Born in the City, The Class of No Return, Touched by Life, Back to Astoria, and What Lies Ahead, all speak of a man still searching to incorporate his early life into the realities of the 21st Century. Other notable pieces from each collection include Friendships to Eternity, Together One as Always, City While the Leaves Blew, Always Too Old to Change Anything, Class When the Game Simply Took You Away, I've Never Forgotten About Friendship, Life Scenes From a Lost Neighborhood, When Fear Overrides Our Humanity, Astoria Needed in the Land of the Needy, and A Glimpse of Bernadine Ahead. A solid entry from the still-wandering and wondering balladeer.

Poet in the Grandstand Thomas Porky McDonald, 2010-11-18. In the area of ballpark hopping, there have been a number of accounts written, recorded, or talked about in recent times, sometimes for a cause or others just as a gimmick. Through Poet in the Grandstand, poet and writer Thomas Porky McDonald gives us a most unique twist on a preoccupation which has grown in the past few decades in the wake of the closings of classic old yards and the birth of the more entertainment- and nostalgia-driven open-air parks. From his first trip in 1990 to the fabled Comiskey Park of Shoeless Joe Jackson, Bill Veeck, and the Go Go Sox, on through to the 2010 opening of Minnesota's fabulous Target Field featuring the modern M.M. Boys, Joe Mauer, and Justin Mourneau, McDonald offers up a book that is part travelogue and part poetic tribute to all the places that men and women have gone to over the years for a very personal sense of joy. This journey, done methodically over two decades, picks up steam as the chapters begin to flow. The effect of McDonald himself clearly growing as a poet through the years is accentuated by the fact that more and more pieces are written in the later trips. The end result is a most interesting volume of not just ballparks but Americana, as numerous attractions taken in during those ballpark weeks and weekends are also noted and/or dissected. For
