Prisoners in Paradise Theresa Kaminski, 2000 Draws on letters diaries of American wives missionaries teachers nurses and spies to uncover their heroic tales while captives of the Japanese during World War II Ground Zero (Edisi Bahasa Inggris `Titik Nol`) Agustinus Wibowo, 2015-11-10 After ten years wandering the world Agustinus Wibowo has finally come home He is now forced to face a reality that he has always feared His mother is on the brink of death as cancer ravages her body Not unlike Scherazade who reads through one thousand and one tales over as many nights the traveller recounts his journey to his ailing mother who has barely ever left their little village in Java Indonesia He talks about the illusory homeland of China the holy Tibet the spiritual Nepal the dramatic India the struggling Pakistan and the surviving Afghanistan And along with these stories his mother nally nds a voice to recount her own life journey Fragments of their lives come together two distinctive roads spanning time and distance only to converge to become a heart wrenching tale of love and survival Relating his travels to his dying mother Wibowo beautifully captures the bittersweet experience of solo travel The excitement of discovery the shadow of a changeling identity and the low grade thrum of the road not taken combine to produce this lyrical journey through time and place Elizabeth Pisani author of Indonesia Etc Exploring the Improbable Nation

Rutledge,2013-04-26 Just as Africa and the West have traditionally fit into binaries of Darkness Enlightenment Savage Modern Ugly Beautiful and Ritual Art among others much of Western cultural production rests upon the archetypal binary of Trickster Epic with trickster aesthetics and commensurate cultural forms characterizing Africa Challenging this binary and the exceptionalism that underlies anti hegemonic efforts even today this book begins with the scholarly foundations that mapped out African trickster continuities in the United States and excavated the aesthetics of traditional African epic performances Rutledge locates trickster like capacities within the epic hero archetype the epic trickster paradigm and constructs an Homeric Diaspora which is to say that the modern Homeric performance foundation lies at an absolute time and distance away from the ancient storytelling performance needed to understand the cautionary aesthetic inseparable from epic potential As traditional epic performances demonstrate unchecked epic trickster dynamism anticipates not only brutal imperialism and creative diversity but the greatest threat to everyone an eco apocalypse Relying upon the preeminent scholarship on African American trickster heroes traditional African heroic performances and cultural studies approaches to Greco Roman epics Rutledge traces the epic trickster aesthetic through three seminal African American novels keenly attuned to the American Homeric Diaspora Charles Chesnutt's The Marrow of Tradition Richard Wright's Native Son and Toni Morrison's Beloved Simon Leys Philippe Paquet, 2017-09-18 An award winning biography of one of the greats Simon Leys is the pen name of Pierre Ryckmans who was born in Belgium and settled in Australia in 1970 He taught Chinese literature at the Australian National University and was Professor of Chinese Studies at the University of Sydney from 1987 to 1993 He died in 2014 Writing in three languages French Chinese and English he played an important political role in revealing the true nature of the Cultural Revolution His writing on China and on varied literary and cultural topics appeared regularly in the New York Review of Books Le Monde Le Figaro Littéraire Quadrant and the Monthly and his books include The Hall of Uselessness The Death of Napoleon Other People's Thoughts and The Wreck of the Batavia Prosper In 1996 he delivered the ABC's Boyer Lectures His many awards include the Prix Renaudot the Prix Mondial Cino Del Duca the Prix Guizot and the Christina Stead Prize for fiction This substantial biography recently published by Gallimard in France to wide acclaim and winning an award from the Académie Française draws on extensive correspondence with Ryckmans as well as his unpublished writings It has been translated by an internationally renowned French translator Julie Rose based in Sydney "A Warr So Desperate" Jim Daems, 2011-11-15 A Warr So Desperate John Milton and Some Contemporaries on the Irish Rebellion examines the political and colonial contexts of Milton's Observations Upon the Articles of Peace as well as the relatively brief but significant comments on the Irish Rebellion that occur elsewhere in his work Commissioned by the Council of State in March 1649 Milton's Observations puts forward the Commonwealth's justifications for the reconquest of Ireland which would soon follow with Oliver Cromwell's campaign In doing so Milton covers some familiar ground for example the trial and execution of Charles I and the intolerance and political hypocrisy of the Presbyterians However the Irish Rebellion leads Milton to engage with these in a way which does not fit particularly well with how his views of personal political and religious liberties are generally perceived Beginning with Milton s pragmatic reading of the documents he cogently critiques in the tract this book then situates Observations within the polemical contexts of the 1640s and early 1650s particularly the frequent representation of Irish atrocities reliant on both anti Catholic and ethnic prejudices and Eikon Basilike s justification of Charles I s handling of the rebellion arguing both Milton s agreement with and complicity in the reconquest
