Staging the Artist Claire Moran, 2017-07-05 Restoring the role of theatrical performance as both subject and trope in the aesthetics of self representation Staging the Artist questions how nineteenth century French and Belgian artists self consciously fashioned their identities through their art and writings This emphasis on performance allows for a new understanding of the processes of self fashioning which underlie self representation in word and image Claire Moran offers new interpretations of works by major nineteenth century figures such as Paul Gauguin and Edgar Degas and addresses the neglected topic of the function of theatre in the development of modern visual art Incarnating Baudelaire's metaphor of the artist as an actor ever conscious of his role the artists discussed Courbet Ensor and Van Gogh among others employed theatre as both a thematic source and formal inspiration in their painting writings and social behaviour Moran argues that what renders this visual literary and social performance modern is its self consciousness which in turn serves as a model with which to challenge pictorial convention This book suggests that tracing modern performance and artistic identity to the nineteenth century provides a greater understanding not only of the significance of theatre in the development of modern art but also highlights the self conscious staging inherent to modern artistic identity

Dysfluencies Chris Eagle, 2013-11-07 Dysfluencies is the first comprehensive study of how speech disorders are portrayed in modern literature Tracing the roots of this interaction between literary practice and speech pathology back to the rise of aphasiology in the 1860s Dysfluencies examines portrayals of disordered speech by writers like Zola Proust Joyce Melville and Mishima as well as contemporary writers like Philip Roth Gail Jones and Jonathan Lethem Dysfluencies thus speaks directly to the growing interest at present both in popular culture and the Humanities regarding the status of the Self in relation to speech pathology The need for this type of study is clear considering the number of prominent writers whose works foreground disorders of speech Melville Zola Kesey Mishima Roth et al Moreover thinkers like Freud Bergson and Jakobson were similarly concerned with the implications of language breakdown This volume shows this concern began with the rise of neurology and aphasiology which challenged spiritual conceptions of language and replaced them with a view of language as a material process rooted in the brain Dysfluencies traces the history of this interaction between literary practice and speech pathology arguing that works of literature have responded differently to the issue of language breakdown as the dominant views on the issue have shifted from neurological circa 1860s to 1920s to psychological circa 1920s to 1980s and back to neurological structure of feeling of those periods The study focuses on the role of popular music film photography the thriller the romance novel as well as the radio and other gadgets of modern technology in Mu oz Molina s Novels The Gaze on the Past argues that through the incorporation of popular culture in texts Mu oz Molina undertakes a deliberate and intense reflection on memory and on the creation of historical moments highlighting their desire to be heard from publisher Jewish American and Holocaust Literature Alan L. From the conception of the teenager after the Second World War through notions of rebellion and consumption peaking in the 1980s and 1990s to representations of their precarious futures amidst the political social economic and environmental uncertainties of today Pamela Thurschwell exposes British and American representations of the adolescent as both destructive and recursive in their disturbance of narrative and teleology in literature film and sub cultural history Calling on theories of queer temporality time studies psychoanalysis and Marxist accounts of modernity this book traces how the teenager is out of time and time travelling commodified anarchic futureless precarious with an uneven distribution of time in relation to race and how they confront dystopias in Young Adult catastrophe literature Covering a wide range of works this book features contemporary and YA fiction such as The Member of the Wedding American Pastoral Sula The Hate U Give The Fault in Our Stars How I Live Now Never Let Me Go The Hunger Games and They Both Die at the End and films including Donnie Darko The Breakfast Club Back to the Future Say Anything and Ghost World Original and conceptually sophisticated Thurschwell demonstrates how adolescence is formed in dialogue with a crisis in and of historical time revealing the promise and destruction of the modern teenager

The Poetic Vision of Robert Penn Warren Victor H. Strandberg, 2021-12-14 Though it has won the Pulitzer Prize the National Book Award and the Bollingen Prize the poetry of Robert Penn Warren still is not widely or well understood In this study Victor H Strandberg redresses this imbalance by providing a comprehensive survey of the poetic canon of this gifted complex and much neglected poet Warren writes in the tradition of Western poets concerned with the painful experience of a forced one way passage from innocence into the world's stew of time and loss This passage Strandberg explains results for Warren in bifurcation of the self into warring segments a clean idealistic surface ego and a polluted undiscovered self in the unconscious Revelation of the dirty part of human personality is tellingly evoked in many of Warren s major works As the poet s vision expands however these conflicting elements are unified in a mystic osmosis of being whereby the world which once provoked fear and disgust may now be totally loved In addition to close analysis both of individual poems and of the poet s overall development Strandberg reviews critical opinion of Warren s poetry over the last three decades and assesses his place among fellow poets Both as prophecy and as art he concludes Robert Penn Warren s poetry is so significant versatile and excellent as to rank him among the finest and most fertile talents of his age Philip Roth David Brauner,2013-07-19 This is a groundbreaking study of the most important contemporary American novelist Philip Roth Reading the author alongside a number of his contemporaries and focusing particularly on his later fiction this book offers a highly accessible informative and persuasive view of Roth as an intellectually adventurous and stylistically brilliant writer who constantly reinvents himself in surprising ways At the heart of this book are a number of detailed and nuanced readings of Roth s works both in terms of their relationships with each other and with fiction by Nathaniel Hawthorne Thomas Pynchon Tim O Brien Brett Easton Ellis Stanley Elkin Howard Jacobson and Jonathan Safran Foer Brauner identifies as a thread running through all of Roth s work the use of paradox both as a rhetorical device and as an organising intellectual and ideological principle Turning Up the Flame Jay L. Halio,Ben Siegel,2005 The time would appear ripe then to take a closer look at Roth s more recent or later fiction That is the intent of this gathering of critical essays This is the only essay collection devoted primarily to Roth s fiction of the last two decades It includes fourteen essays written by some of the leading Roth specialists in this country and abroad BOOK JACKET Send Me Nicola Di Matteo,2016-10-12 All over the world like a train that first comes to a halt then goes back again the progress of the civil societies strangely and mysteriously stops and returns to a sort of obscure high Middle Age One day the archangels Michael Gabriel and Raphael together with the Seraph Daniel appear to four young farmers the Oedah brothers and ask them go to the earthly paradise and accomplish a difficult and dangerous mission The Routledge Companion to Decolonizing Art History Tatiana Flores,Florencia San Martín,Charlene Villaseñor Black,2023-11-27 This companion is the first global comprehensive text to explicate theorize and propose decolonial methodologies for art historians museum professionals artists and other visual culture scholars teachers and practitioners Art history as a discipline and its corollary institutions the museum the art market are not only products of colonial legacies but active agents in the consolidation of empire and the construction of the West The Routledge Companion to Decolonizing Art History joins the growing critical discourse around the decolonial through an assessment of how art history may be rethought and mobilized in the service of justice racial gender social environmental restorative and more This book draws attention to the work of artists art historians and scholars in related fields who have been engaging with disrupting master narratives and forging new directions often within a hostile academy or an indifferent art world The volume unpacks the assumptions projected onto objects of art and visual culture and the discourse that contains them It equally addresses the manifold complexities around representation as visual and discursive praxis through a range of epistemologies and metaphors originated outside or against the logic of modernity This companion is organized into four thematic sections Being and Doing Learning and Listening Sensing and Seeing and Living and Loving The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture museum studies race and ethnic studies cultural studies disability studies and women s gender and sexuality studies ANNUAL
