Menking, 2023-02-02 The powers of death are closer than we thought Their perils appear in the forms of increased gun violence racism economic disparity and global warming to name but a few Faced with these threats Christians in this self absorbed culture tend to use their faith as a kind of palliative comfort that protects them from the truths of what these powers are doing to us as a human community and the sufferings they are inflicting on others particularly the poor and the disenfranchised Moreover it is used to shield them from responding to the gospel's call to leave survival for vocation Using Luther's theology of the cross and the instruction he imparts in his

Large Catechism this book asserts that in the face of the sufferings in which we are situated the gospel news of Jesus's resurrection is a call to stand in its hope and power to resist these devastations and the dehumanization exploitation and domination they inflict The hope of God's life giving creativity in the face of the powers of death is given witness when Christians leave survival modes of existence to be in their baptismal vocation of loving neighbors as themselves
