PSYCHIC SPY

The story of an astounding man

This is the story of an astounding man, Dr. Ernesto A. Montgomery: psychic spy, clairvoyant, faith-healer, advisor to politicians and famous performers, minister, youth worker. Using psychic trances and "soul traveling," he provided valuable information in World War II which allowed the Allied D-Day invasion of Normandy to take place as scheduled. Before and since he has predicted many highly dramatic, and too often tragic, events, including the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and his brother Robert. This book tells his full story and his predictions for our future.
