From the contemporary perspective it is easy to overlook how glass has profoundly transformed vision. Chadaga shows the far-reaching effects of this phenomenon. Her book examines the similarities between glass and language, the ideological uses of glass and the material's associations with modernity while illuminating the work of Lomonosov, Dostoevsky, Zamyatin, and Eisenstein among others. In particular, Chadaga explores the prominent role of glass in the discourse around Russia's contentious relationship with the West by turns admiring and antagonistic as the nation crafted a vision for its own future. Chadaga returns throughout to the spectacular aspect of glass and shows how both the tendentious capacity and the playfulness of this material have shaped Russian culture. Danilov, 1991-08-14 One of the most frequently overlooked areas of the museum world are those museums and museum-like facilities that are part of manufacturing and other types of companies. Usually known as corporate museums, galleries, or visitor centers, they have other names such as exhibit halls, history rooms, sculpture gardens, information centers, and even halls of fame. In general, they are exhibit-based facilities owned and operated by publicly traded or privately held companies as public relations, marketing, and/or personnel relations vehicles. In some cases, however, they are operated through foundations started and largely funded and controlled by companies. This unique and comprehensive guide describes more than 300 such corporate museums, galleries, and visitor centers from throughout the world. These facilities are often not listed in conventional museum directories. As part of a corporate organization, they generally do not receive the visibility, publicity, and recognition accorded most nonprofit museums. This volume provides the first comprehensive directory of corporate museums galleries and visitors centers Those interested in these unusual museums as well as the companies that house them will want to own a copy of this unique reference work The Cumulative Book Index ,1991 A world list of books in the English language Russia, with Teheran, Port Arthur, and Peking Karl Baedeker (Firm),1914 Guide to Microforms in Print ,1998 Glass ,1990 Artbibliographies Modern ,1992 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Design & Applied Arts Index ,1992
