Dupee,1959      The Russian Revolution Lev Trotskii,1969      The Russian Revolution Lev Trotskij,1959      The History of the Russian Revolution: The overthrow of tzarism ; Vol. 2: The attempted counter-revolution ; Vol. 3: The triumph of the Soviets Lev Trotskij,1980      The Russian Revolution Leon Trotsky,1959 First published in English in 1932 Max Eastman s translation of this intrinsic historical text was established among the all time classics of historical writing Reprinted here are Trotsky s chapters describing the twin revolutions of February and October 1917 Omitted chapters are carefully summarized by Dupee and original glossaries and indexes have been retained      The Russian Revolution Lev Davidovič Trockij,1989      The French Revolutionary Tradition in Russian and Soviet Politics, Political Thought, and Culture Jay Bergman,2019 The Bolsheviks sought legitimacy and inspiration in historic revolutionary traditions and Jay Bergman argues that they saw the revolutions in France in 1789 1830 1848 and 1871 as supplying practically everything Marxism lacked including guidance in constructing socialism and communism and useful fodder for political and personal polemics      The Russian Revolution (1917-1918) (SparkNotes History Note) SparkNotes,2014-08-12 The Russian Revolution 1917 1918 SparkNotes History Note Making the reading experience fun SparkNotes History Guides help students strengthen their grasp of history by focusing on individual eras or episodes in U S or world history Breaking history up into digestible lessons the History Guides make it easier for students to see how events figures movements and trends interrelate SparkNotes History Guides are perfect for high school and college history classes for students studying for History AP Test or SAT Subject Tests and simply as general reference tools Each note contains a general overview of historical context a concise summary of events lists of key people and terms in depth summary and analysis with timelines study questions and suggested essay topics and a 50 question review quiz      Writing History in the Soviet Union Arup Banerji,2008 The history of the Soviet Union has been charted in several studies over the decades These depictions while combining accuracy elegance readability and imaginativeness have failed to draw attention to the political and academic environment within which these histories were composed Writing History in the Soviet Union Making the Past Work is aimed at understanding this environment The book seeks to identify the significant hallmarks of the production of Soviet history by Soviet as well as Western historians It traces how the Russian Revolution of 1917 triggered a shift in official policy towards historians and the publication of history textbooks for schools In 1985 the Soviet past was again summoned for polemical revision as part and parcel of an attitude of openness glasnost and in this literary figures joined their energies to those of historians The Communist regime sought to equate the history of the country with that of the Communist Party itself in 1938 and 1962 and this imposed a blanket of conformity on history writing in the Soviet Union The book also surveys the rich abundance of writing the Russian Revolution generated as well as the divergent approaches to the history of the period The conditions for research in Soviet archives are described as an aspect of official monitoring of history writing Another instance of this is the manner by which history textbooks have through the years been withdrawn from schools and others officially nursed into circulation This intervention occasioned in the present circumstance by statements by President Putin himself in the manner in which history is taught in Russian schools continues to this day In other words over the years the regime has always worked to make the past work Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh Sri Lanka
