Russian Conservatism Glenn Diesen, 2021-01-12 Russian conservatism is making a forceful return after a century of experimenting with socialism and liberalism Conservatism is about managing change by ensuring that modernization evolves organically by building on the past Conservatism has a natural attraction for Russia as its thousand year long history is largely characterized by revolutionary change the destructive process of uprooting the past to give way to modernity Navigating towards gradual and organic modernization has been a key struggle ever since the Mongols invaded in the early 13th century and decoupled Russia from Europe and the arteries of international trade Russian history has consisted of avoiding revolutions that are either caused by falling behind on modernization or making great leaps forward that disrupts socio economic and political traditions Russian conservatives are now tasked with harmonizing the conservative ideas of the 19th century with the revolutionary changes that shaped Russia in the 20th century The rise of Asia now provides new opportunities as it enables Russia to overcome its fixation on the West and develop a unique Russian path towards modernization that harmonizes its Eurasian geography and history

New Perspectives on the History of Life Sciences and Agriculture Denise Phillips, Sharon Kingsland, 2015-02-12 This volume explores problems in the history of science at the intersection of life sciences and agriculture from the mid eighteenth to the mid twentieth century Taking a comparative national perspective the book examines agricultural practices in a broad sense including the practices and disciplines devoted to land management forestry soil science and the improvement and management of crops and livestock The life sciences considered include genetics microbiology ecology entomology forestry and deal with US European Russian Japanese Indonesian Chinese contexts The book shows that the investigation of the border zone of life sciences and agriculture raises many interesting questions about how science develops In particular it challenges one to re examine and take seriously the intimate connection between scientific development and the practical goals of managing and improving perhaps even recreating the living world to serve human ends Without close attention to this zone it is not possible to understand the emergence of new disciplines and transformation of old disciplines to evaluate the role and impact of such major figures of science as Humboldt and Mendel or to appreciate how much of the history of modern biology has been driven by national ambitions and imperialist expansion in competition with rival nations

Political Reform in the Ottoman and Russian Empires Adrian Brisku, 2017-09-21 Throughout the long 19th century the Ottoman and Russian empires shared a goal of destroying one another Yet they also shared a similar vision for imperial state renewal with the goal of avoiding revolution decline and isolation within Europe Adrian Brisku explores how this path of renewal and reform manifested itself forging new laws and institutions opening up the economy to the outside world and entering the European political community of imperial states Political Reform in the Ottoman and Russian Empires tackles the dilemma faced by both empires namely how to bring about meaningful change without undermining the legal political and economic status quo The book offers a unique comparison of Ottoman and Russian politics of reform and their connection to the wider European politico economic space Inequality and Governance in an Uncertain World Rekha Datta,Saliba Sarsar,2023-05-25 In Inequality and Governance in an Uncertain World Perspectives on Democratic Autocratic Governments the authors address structural and systemic inequalities in democratic and autocratic governments from a multidimensional perspective in nine world regions Sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and North Africa South Asia East Asia Eurasia Eastern Europe Western Europe North America and Latin America Their focus is on issues of race caste class gender religion culture and ethnicity which has intensified during the COVID 19 pandemic The fragility of democracies is only enhanced by the sobering reality of the climate crisis and the deleterious nature of disinformation through social media However just as the world has been witnessing a shift toward autocracy a commitment to democracy can be also possible through a renewal of the social contract calling for more equitable social economic and health policies obliterating the intersections of inequality and trudging toward a more sustainable future for all Russia and the Russians Geoffrey A.
