Rust And Bones Stories:

Rust and Bone Craig Davidson, 2012-10-22 Enough incident shock and suspense for a dozen books Filled with stories you haven't heard before Bret Easton Ellis In steel tipped prose Craig Davidson conjures a savage world populated by fighting dogs prizefighters sex addicts and gamblers In his title story Davidson introduces an afflicted boxer whose hand never properly heals after a bone is broken The fighter's career descends to bouts that have less to do with sport than with survival no referee no rules not even gloves In A Mean Utility we enter an even more desperate arena dogfights where Rottweilers pit bulls and Dobermans fight each other to the death Davidson's stories are small monuments to the telling detail The hostility of his fictional universe is tempered by the humanity he invests in his characters and by his subtle and very moving observations of their motivations He shares with Chuck Palahniuk the uncanny ability to compel our attention time and time again to the most difficult subject matter

Rust and Bone Craig Davidson, 2006 Enough incident shock and suspense for a dozen books Filled with stories you haven't heard before Bret Easton Ellis Jacques Audiard Gemma King, 2021-06-15 Fragile yet powerful macho yet transgressive Jacques Audiard's films portray disabled marginalised or otherwise non normative bodies in constant states of crisis and transformation Jacques Audiard is the first book on the cinema of one of the most important French directors working today It studies his screenwriting background his collaborative practices and his use of genre motifs alongside his reputation as a celebrated French auteur Using the motif of border crossing both physical and symbolic the book explores how Audiard's films construct and transcend boundaries of many forms Focusing on the representation of the physical body French society and broader transnational contexts it reveals how Audiard's cinema occupies a space both within and beyond the imaginary of French cinema The Journey Prize

Stories 26 Various, 2014-10-07 For more than twenty five years The Journey Prize Stories has been Canada's most celebrated annual fiction anthology and a who's who of up and coming writers With settings ranging from Toronto's Royal Conservatory of Music to a hospital ward in Thailand from British Columbia's Burrard Inlet to St John's Bowring Park the stories in this collection represent the year's best short fiction by some of our most exciting new writers Among the stories this year A woman's quest to trend on social media blinds her to her inability to connect with her own adult daughter The delicate equilibrium maintained by a newly pregnant expat living in Israel is shattered when a missile lands in her backyard An unusual guide to caring for an exotic pet highlights the many opportunities owners will have to learn valuable life lessons beginning with the pet's death The tender relationship between two musical prodigies is no match for the machinations of the adult world After a woman returns to her parents house to recuperate from a life changing surgery she discovers how difficult it is for others to accept who she has become A terrible act of cruelty forces the tensions between two workers at a fish processing plant to spill out into the surrounding waters When a former couple has a chance encounter on a B C ferry old grievances and desires alike resurface with surprising results Contemporary Art and Disability Studies Alice
