Resettlers and Survivors Gaëlle Fisher, 2020-04-09 Located on the border of present day Romania and Ukraine the historical region of Bukovina was the site of widespread displacement and violence as it passed from Romanian to Soviet hands and back again during World War II This study focuses on two groups of Bukovinians ethnic Germans and German speaking Jews as they navigated dramatically changed political and social circumstances in and after 1945 Through comparisons of the narratives and self conceptions of these groups Resettlers and Survivors gives a nuanced account of how they dealt with the difficult legacies of World War II while exploring Bukovina's significance for them as both a geographical location and a place of memory

After Memory Matthias Schwartz, Nina Weller, Heike Winkel, 2021-06-08 Even seventy five years after the end of World War II the commemorative cultures surrounding the War and the Holocaust in Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe are anything but fixed The fierce debates on how to deal with the past among the newly constituted nation states in these regions have already received much attention by scholars in cultural and memory studies The present volume posits that literature as a medium can help us understand the shifting attitudes towards World War II and the Holocaust in post Communist Europe in recent years These shifts point to new commemorative cultures shaping up after memory Contemporary literary representations of World War II and the Holocaust in Eastern Europe do not merely extend or replace older practices of remembrance and testimony but reflect on these now defunct or superseded narratives New narratives of remembrance are conditioned by a fundamentally new social and political context one that emerged from the devaluation of socialist commemorative rituals and as a response to the loss of private and family memory narratives The volume offers insights into the diverse literatures of Eastern Europe and their ways of depicting the area's contested heritage

So They Remember Maksim Goldenshteyn, 2022-01-23 When we think of Nazi camps names such as Auschwitz Bergen Belsen and Dachau come instantly to mind Yet the history of the Holocaust extends beyond those notorious sites In the former territory of Transnistria located in occupied Soviet Ukraine and governed by Nazi Germany's Romanian allies many Jews perished due to disease starvation and other horrific conditions Through an intimate blending of memoir history and reportage So They Remember illuminates this oft overlooked chapter of the Holocaust In December 1941 with the German led invasion of the Soviet Union in its sixth month a twelve year old Jewish boy named Motl Braverman along with family members was uprooted from his Ukrainian hometown and herded to the remote village of Pechera the site of a Romanian death camp Author Maksim Goldenshteyn the grandson of Motl first learned of his family's wartime experiences in 2012 Through tireless research Goldenshteyn spent years unraveling the story of Motl his family members and their fellow prisoners The author here renders their story through the eyes of Motl and other children who decades later would bear witness to the traumas they suffered Until now Romanian historians and survivors have served as almost the only chroniclers of the Holocaust in Transnistria Goldenshteyn's account based on interviews with Soviet born relatives and other survivors archival documents and memoirs is among the first full length books to spotlight the Pechera camp ominously known by its prisoners as Mertvaya Petlya or the Death Noose Unfortunately as the author explains the Pechera camp was only one of some two hundred concentration sites spread across Transnistria where local Ukrainian policemen often conspired with Romanian guards to brutalize the prisoners In March 1944 the Red Army liberated Motl's family and fellow captives Yet for decades according to the author they were silenced by Soviet policies enacted to erase all memory of Jewish wartime suffering So They Remember gives voice to this long repressed history and documents how the events at Pechera and other surrounding camps and ghettos would continue to shape remaining survivors and their descendants

In the Shadow of the Shtetl Jeffrey Veidlinger, 2013-11-01 A history based on interviews with hundreds of Ukrainian Jews who survived both Hitler and Stalin recounting experiences ordinary and extraordinary The story of how the Holocaust decimated Jewish life in the shtetls of Eastern Europe is well known Still thousands of Jews in these small towns survived the war and returned afterward to rebuild their communities The recollections of some four hundred returnees in Ukraine provide the basis for Jeffrey Veidlinger's reappraisal of the traditional narrative of twentieth century Jewish history These elderly Yiddish speakers relate their memories of Jewish life in the prewar shtetl their stories of survival during the Holocaust and their experiences living as Jews under Communism Despite Stalinist repressions the Holocaust and official antisemitism their individual remembrances of family life religious observance education and work testify to the survival of Jewish life in the shadow of the shtetl to this day

The Ghetto in Global History Wendy Z. Goldman, Joe William Trotter, Jr., 2017-11-27 The Ghetto in Global History explores the stubborn tenacity of the ghetto over time As a concept policy and experience the ghetto has served to maintain social religious and racial hierarchies over the past five centuries Transnational in scope this book allows readers to draw thought provoking comparisons across time and space among ghettos that are not usually studied alongside one another The volume is structured around four main case studies covering the first ghettos created for Jews in early modern Europe the Nazis use of ghettos the enclosure of African Americans in segregated areas in the United States and the extreme segregation of blacks in South Africa The contributors explore issues of discourse power and control examine the internal structures of authority that prevailed and document the lived experiences of ghetto inhabitants By discussing ghettos as both tools of control and as sites of resistance this book offers an unprecedented and fascinating range of interpretations of the meanings of the ghetto throughout history It allows us to trace the circulation of the idea and practice over time and across continents revealing new linkages between widely disparate settings Geographically and chronologically wide ranging The Ghetto in Global History will prove indispensable reading for all those interested in the history of spatial segregation power dynamics and racial and religious relations across the globe

Memory Unbound Lucy Bond, Stef Craps, Pieter Vermeulen, 2016-11-01 Though still a relatively young field memory studies has undergone significant transformations since it first coalesced as an area of inquiry Increasingly scholars understand memory to be a fluid dynamic unbound phenomenon a process rather than a reified object Embodying just such an elastic approach this state of the field collection systematically explores the transcultural transgenerational transmedial and transdisciplinary dimensions of memory four key dynamics that have sometimes been studied in isolation but never in such an integrated manner Memory Unbound places leading researchers in conversation with emerging voices in the field to recast our understanding of memory's distinctive variability

Hitler's Forgotten Ally D. Deletant, 2006-04-12 This book is the first complete study in English of Antonescu's part in the Second World War Antonescu was a major ally of Hitler and Romania fielded the third largest Axis army joined the Tripartite Pact in November 1940 as a sovereign state and participated in the attack on the Soviet Union of 22 June 1941 as an equal partner of Germany

Inside Concentration Camps Maja Suderland, 2013-12-17 Terror was central to the Nazi regime and the Nazi concentration camps were places of horror where prisoners were dehumanized and robbed of their dignity and where millions were murdered How did prisoners cope with the brutal and degrading conditions of life within the camps In this highly original book Maja Suderland takes the reader inside the concentration camps and examines the everyday social life of prisoners their daily activities and routines the social relationships and networks they created and the strategies they developed to cope with the harsh conditions and the brutality of the guards Without overlooking the violence of the camps the contradictions of camp life or the elusive complexity of the multicultural prisoner society Suderland explores the hidden social practices that enabled prisoners to preserve their human dignity and create a sense of individuality and community despite the appalling circumstances This remarkable account of social life in extreme conditions will be of great interest to students and scholars in history sociology and the social sciences generally as well as to a wider readership interested in the Holocaust and the concentration camps

these East Central European borderline cities the legacies of Nazism Marxism Leninism and violent ethno nationalism have been revisited in recent decades in search of profound moral reckoning and in response to the challenges posed by the post transitional period Present shapes and contents of these urban settings derive from combinations of fragmented material environments cultural continuities and political ruptures present day heritage industries and collective memories about the contentious past expressive architectural forms and less conspicuous meaning making activities of human actors In other words they evolve from perpetual tensions between choices of the past and the burden of the past A novel feature of this book is its multi level approach to the analysis of engagements with the lost diversity in historical urban milieus full of post war voids and ruptures In particular the collected studies test the possibility of combining the theoretical propositions of Memory Studies with broader conceptualizations of borderlands cosmopolitan sociality urban mythologies and hybridity The volume s contributors are Eleonora Narvselius Bo Larsson Natalia Otrishchenko Anastasia Felcher Juliet D Golden Hana Cervinkova Pawe Czajkowski Alexandr Voronovici Barbara Pabjan Nadiia Bureiko Teodor Lucian Moga and Gaelle Fisher

Children Who Survived the Final Solution Peter Tarjan,2004 Holocaust survivors who were children during the Nazi persecution wrote this collection of memoirs Each story bubbled up spontaneously without an interviewer s guidance hence these represent the most permanent memories of their authors childhood experiences This book provides a rare vantage point to look into the diverse lives of children during the Holocaust Both professionals and adult survivors have often said The children were too young to remember They could not have been more wrong about that I was struck by the fact that the stories were not bitter they did not seek revenge I found the underlying thread in the purpose of the stories to be gifts to the world given in the hope that the stories and the anthology would contribute to other children not having to suffer such events in the future Paul Valent M D Melbourne Australia author Child Survivors of the Holocaust 1994 2002 Index to Jewish Periodicals ,2005 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests Lilith ,1997 Gone With the Wind Helen Taylor,2015-11-10 Gone with the Wind 1939 is one of the greatest films of all time the best known of Hollywood s Golden Age and a work that has in popular imagination defined southern American history for three quarters of a century Drawing on three decades of pertinent research Helen Taylor charts the film s production history reception and legacy
