Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential

Alston, Cynthia A. Tyson, 2024-04-01 Much of the research and writing on faculty of color and persistence in the Academy speaks to mentoring recruitment retention job satisfaction and the Imposter Syndrome Yet in spite of the significance though we are small in numbers and necessity of faculty of color in the Academy there is no literature to describe or explain our experiences with regards to our holistic body mind and spirit existence and persistence in the Academy Some questions that persist for faculty of color include How do I continue to persist in the professoriate either in the tenure track or as a tenured professor How can I just be me and still be a successful professor Do I have to check certain parts of me at the door or can I bring all of who I am into the Academy How can I teach research and serve with my whole self and still have my work valued and accepted Do I have to do safe research work or can I do the work that I am passionate about This collection of chapters are the personal stories from faculty of color who have persisted in the Academy despite the sometimes very steep climb Prairie Home Breads Judith Fertig, 2011-10-11 Prairie Home Breads proves that not only is the Midwest where America's grains are grown but it's also where the art of bread baking is taken seriously To create these 150 recipes Judith M Fertig visited artisanal bakeries working farmhouse kitchens rural church suppers urban bakeries farmer's markets and typical home kitchens She found yeast breads as varied as Amish Pinwheel Bread and Roasted Sweet Pepper Bread as well as naturally leavened breads like Brewhouse Bread and whole grain breads like Northern Prairie Barley Bread There are also buns and rolls as well as quick biscuits popovers and crackers Along with elegant tea breads and homey muffins there are scrumptious coffeecakes kuchen and strudels Last but not least there are recipes for accompaniments and for using up leftovers Prairie Home Breads is also filled with rich stories of ethnic and regional culture agriculture Midwestern culinary traditions and warm celebrations of Heartland food Nikki Giovanni Virginia C. Fowler, 2013-01-24 This book offers a comprehensive examination of the life and work of Nikki Giovanni one of the most prolific and well known poets to emerge during the Black Arts Movement Nikki Giovanni A Literary Biography focuses on one of the most widely read poets to emerge from the Black Arts Movement providing a thorough examination of Giovanni's life and work from her earliest volume of poetry Black Feeling Black Talk to the recent Bicycles The book addresses Giovanni's preoccupation with historical themes and the past and demonstrates the pervasiveness of music in Giovanni's poetry Drawing on extensive interviews with Giovanni's friends and family this book offers biographical information not previously available in other publications It references material from Giovanni's prose works to illuminate and contextualize the analysis of her poetry examining its highly allusive and topical nature The book also shows the intersections of Giovanni's biography and the public history of the United States from the 1960s to the present making it of interest to general readers as well as those studying American and African American poetry or black feminism African American Autobiographers Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2002-03-30 There is growing popular and scholarly interest in autobiography along with increasing regard for the achievements of African American writers The first reference of its kind this volume chronicles the autobiographical tradition in African American literature Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 66 African American authors who present autobiographical material in their works The volume profiles major figures such as Frederick Douglass Zora Neale Hurston Richard Wright Maya Angelou James Baldwin and Malcolm X along with many lesser known autobiographers who deserve greater attention While some are known primarily for their literary accomplishments others have gained acclaim for their diverse contributions to society The entries are written by expert contributors and provide authoritative information about their subjects Each begins with a concise biography which summarizes the life and achievements of the autobiographer This is followed by a discussion of major autobiographical works and themes along with an overview of the autobiographer's critical reception The entries close with primary and secondary bibliographies and a selected general bibliography concludes the volume Together the entries provide a detailed portrait of the African American autobiographical tradition from the 18th century to the present
