Sacred Earth, Sacred Community John Mihevc, Canadian Ecumenical Jubilee Initiative, 2000 World Christianity and Ecological Theologies Raimundo C. Barreto, Graham McGeoch, Wanderley Pereira da Rosa, 2024-10-22 World Christianity and Ecological Theologies invites scholars in religious studies and theology from different continents and contexts to a North South dialogue on environmental ethics political ecology and ecofeminism Throughout the global pandemic the connection between environmental rapacity religion and political interests has once again called scholarly attention to the important conversation on public religion and global environment related issues Acknowledging a deficit among scholars of World Christianity in addressing environmental concerns and the field's limited language for framing those concerns this book aims to bring the fields of study of World Christianity religion and ecology into a sustained conversation with the goal of expanding the theoretical horizons of these fields World Christianity and Ecological Theologies reiterates that all Christian theologies are contextual as they shape and are shaped by specific historical and cultural circumstances It aims at showcasing the ways in which the intersection of religion and ecology is approached by scholars in religious studies and theology in the Global South or by those in conversation with them in the Global North pointing to what can be generated if these bodies of scholarship are engaged as dialogue partners to investigate new patterns of religious environmentalism Barth and Ecotheology Adrian Langdon, 2025-03-31 Barth and Ecotheology offers a critical and constructive reading of Karl Barth's theology in the context of the Anthropocene It reflects on how a contemporary doctrine of creation must be broad enough to address issues such as climate change colonialism and racism sexism as well as integrating modern science Such a theology would resist the human domination of nature and the various forms of displacement occurring in modernity With Barth the author contends that a theology of creation grounded in the self-revelation of God in Jesus Christ is the best place to rethink what it means to be human and to exist within the community of creation Nevertheless if we are to affirm the livingness of the world creaturely differences and a central place for land and place then critical additions to Barth are needed To accomplish this the book provides constructive reinterpretations of Barth's theological method doctrine of God creation by the Word and Spirit anthropology and reconciliation What emerges is a vision of the triune God of love as the source and ground of all that is Along the way Barth is brought into dialogue with ecotheology as well as theologians such as Wolfhart Pannenberg Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Bruce McCormack The volume will be of particular interest to theologians focused on the doctrine of creation ecotheology and Barth studies The Insurgency of the Spirit Robert E. Shore-Goss, 2020-10-06 The Insurgency of the Spirit taps multi-disciplinary methodologies of post-colonial biblical scholarship and anthropology liberation theologies indigenous studies grief trauma research and nature meditation writings to shape a constructive retrieval of the animist Jesus The vision that emerges is one that sets forward an Earth-loving Jesus who challenges Christians in particular to mobilize against the destructive relationship that exists between imperial religion and political systems The Concept of Ecological Debt Erik Paredis, 2009 This volume is the scientific report of a research project that aimed to clarify the concept of ecological debt and to study its relevance and applicability in Belgian and international policy When Worlds Converge Clifford N. Matthews, Mary Evelyn Tucker, Philip Hefner, 2002 In this book over 30 prominent scientists theologians and philosophers explore three main convergences the convergence of different sciences to give a coherent story of mankind religious convergence whereby different traditions work together toward global harmony and the convergence of science and religion Convergent Knowing Simon Appolloni, 2018-11-16 A compelling exploration of a new epistemic framework for Christian ethical thinking Romans Disarmed Sylvia C. Keesmaat, Brian J. Walsh, 2019-05-21 Globalization Homelessness Ecological and economic crisis Conflicts over sexuality Violence These crisis level issues may seem unique to our times but Paul's Letter to the Romans has something to say to all of them Following their successful Colossians Remixed Sylvia Keesmaat and Brian Walsh unpack the meaning of Romans for its original context and for today The authors demonstrate how Romans disarms the political economic and cultural power of the Roman Empire and how this ancient letter offers hope in today's crisis laden world Romans Disarmed helps readers enter the world of ancient Rome and see how Paul's most radical letter transforms the lives of the marginalized then and now Intentionally avoiding abstract debates about Paul's theology Keesmaat and Walsh move back and forth between the present and the past as they explore themes of home economic justice creation care the violence of the state sexuality and Indigenous reconciliation They show how Romans engages with the lived reality of those who suffer from injustice both in the first century and in the midst of our own imperial realities Colossians Remixed Brian J. Walsh, Sylvia C. Keesmaat, 2004-10-04 Drawing together biblical scholarship with a passion for authentic lives that embody the gospel this groundbreaking interpretation of Colossians from Brian J Walsh and Sylvia C Keesmaat provides us with tools to subvert the empire of our own context in a way that acknowledges the transforming power of Jesus Christ The Pacific Journal of Theology, 2006 Religion and the Environment: Connections: science, ethics, eco-feminism, consumerism, sustainability and spirituality Roger S. Gottlieb, 2010 In the last two decades a new form of religiously motivated social action and a virtually new field of academic study each based in recognition of the connections between religion and humanity's treatment of the environment have developed Interactions between religion and environmental concern have been manifest in the explosive growth of ecotheological writings institutional commitment by organized religions and environmental activism explicitly oriented to religious ideals Clergy throughout the world in virtually every denomination have received word from leaders of their religion that the environment no less than sexuality poverty or war and peace is now a basic and compelling religious matter Out of this confrontation have been born vital new theologies based in the recovery of marginalized elements of tradition profound criticisms of the past and ecologically oriented visions of God the Sacred the Earth and human beings Theologians from every religious tradition along with dozens of non denominational spiritual writers have confronted world religions past attitudes towards nature In the realm of institutional commitment public statements and actions by organized religions have grown dramatically In the context of political action throughout the U S and the world religiously oriented groups take part in environmentally oriented political action from lobbying and consciousness raising to activist demonstrations and civil disobedience This collection serves as a comprehensive introduction overview and in depth account of these exciting new developments The four volumes cover virtually every aspect of the field from theological change and institutional commitment to innovation in liturgy from new ecumenical connections among different religions and between religion science and environmental movements from religious participation in environmental politics to an account of the global social and political contexts in which religious environmentalism has unfolded
