Sacred Language, Vernacular Difference Annette Damayanti Lienau, 2024-01-09 How Arabic influenced the evolution of vernacular literatures and anticolonial thought in Egypt Indonesia and Senegal Sacred Language Vernacular Difference offers a new understanding of Arabic's global position as the basis for comparing cultural and literary histories in countries separated by vast distances By tracing controversies over the use of Arabic in three countries with distinct colonial legacies Egypt Indonesia and Senegal the book presents a new approach to the study of postcolonial literatures anticolonial nationalisms and the global circulation of pluralist ideas Annette Damayanti Lienau presents the largely untold story of how

Arabic often understood in Africa and Asia as a language of Islamic ritual and precolonial commerce assumed a transregional role as an anticolonial literary medium in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries By examining how major writers and intellectuals across several generations grappled with the cultural asymmetries imposed by imperial Europe Lienau shows that Arabic as a cosmopolitan interethnic and interreligious language complicated debates over questions of indigeneity religious pluralism counter imperial nationalisms and emerging nation states Unearthing parallels from West Africa to Southeast Asia Sacred Language Vernacular Difference argues that debates comparing the status of Arabic to other languages challenged not only Eurocentric but Arabocentric forms of ethnolinguistic and racial prejudice in both local and global terms The Buried Peter Hessler, 2019-05-21 An intimate account of the Arab Spring and Egypt's past and present seen through the eyes of a wide range of Egyptians political operators archaeologists and garbage collectors women the queer community and migrants Language, Society and Ideologies in Multilingual Egypt Valentina Serreli, 2024-03-18 The book explores the change over time in language society relations in a multilingual periphery of Egypt It examines the role of language ideologies in the construction and negotiation of social identities in the processes of contact maintenance and shift typical of multilingualism Based on extensive fieldwork and interviews it is the first of its kind to portray the inventory of linguistic and accompanying non linguistic behaviors observed within and between different ethnolinguistic groups in the Siwa Oasis It provides first hand information about the linguistic habits of Siwan women an aspect which is generally difficult to access in this gender segregated community The book sheds light on Berber Arabic contact at the core of the Arab world and at a critical time when individual linguistic repertoires are expanding and Arabic is emerging as a powerful resource

Lives of the Great Languages Karla Mallette, 2021-09-17 The story of how Latin and Arabic spread across the Mediterranean to create a cosmopolitan world of letters In this ambitious book Karla Mallette studies the nature and behaviors of the medieval cosmopolitan languages of learning classical Arabic and medieval Latin as they crossed the Mediterranean Through anecdotes of relationships among writers compilers translators commentators and copyists Mallette tells a complex story about the transmission of knowledge in the period before the emergence of a national language system in the late Middle Ages and early modernity Mallette shows how the elite languages of learning and culture were only tenuously related to the languages of everyday life These languages took years of study to master marking the passage from intellectual childhood to maturity In a coda to the book Mallette speculates on the afterlife of cosmopolitan languages in the twenty first century the perils of monolingualism and the ethics of language choice The book offers insight for anyone interested in rethinking linguistic and literary tradition the transmission of ideas and cultural expression in an increasingly multilingual world Keep Talking Eric S. Henry, 2025-12-02 Language is not merely a set of words and grammatical rules it is a deeply cultural phenomenon we use to navigate our social lives and craft our identities Linguistic anthropology situates language in this essential context A distinctively Canadian take on the field of linguistic anthropology Keep Talking provides an up to date and detailed introduction to the discipline Linguistic anthropologist Eric S Henry draws on the significant research he has conducted on modernity language and culture to create an accessible foundational guide on the subject for all students A key argument laced throughout the chapters of this textbook is the idea that language is a form of social action speaking is also doing From oral performances to texting from learning a first language to mixing others together Keep Talking guides students through all the major concepts of the field while highlighting scholars and research relevant to the Canadian experience Major areas of focus include Indigenous languages the role of gender and ethnicity in communication and doing research in the field With an approachable writing style this book includes images tables and text boxes along with summaries of further reading for students Wide ranging and deeply current this textbook is perfectly suited for readers interested in the intersections of language and culture

Fatma Sagir, 2021 Music has the universal power to move individuals peoples and societies Music is one of the most important signifiers of cultural change It is also most significant for youth movements and youth cultures While Islam has a historically and traditionally rich culture of music religious controversy on the topic of music is still ongoing However young Muslims in today's globalised world seek pop cultural tools such as music and particularly hip hop music as way of exploring and expressing their manifold identities whilst challenging Islamophobia stigma and racism on the one hand and traditional and religious challenges on the other hand In this volume following an international conference with the same title scholars and young academics from a variety of disciplines seek to explore and highlight the phenomena surrounding the two somewhat artificially separated realms of music and religion The contributions not only look into different genres of music from Tunisian metal over German female hip hop to Egyptian folk but take the reader on a journey from continent to countries to cities and rural areas and thus give space and time to a widely neglected area of research that of Muslim popular culture and young Muslims Language Planning and Policy Ashraf Abdelhay, Sifre Makoni, Cristine Severo, 2020-02-13

Language policy is heterogeneous and varies according to its object levels of intervention purpose participants and institutions involved underlying language ideologies local contexts power relations and historical contexts This volume offers unique cross cultural perspectives on language planning and policy in diverse African and Middle Eastern contexts including South Africa Bahrain Sudan Saudi Arabia Morocco Zambia and Algeria The African diaspora is also considered as is the case of Brazil By bringing together diverse contexts in Africa and the Middle East this volume encourages a dialogue in the burgeoning scholarship on language policies in different regions of Africa and the Middle East in order to inspect the intersection between language policy discourses and their social political and educational functions The Cambridge
