Sacred Life Holy Death Seven Stages Of Crobing The Divide:

Sacred Life, Holy Death Robert Boldman,1999 This book arrives at a unique moment in our development As we debate right to die legislation and the morality of assisted suicide Boldman has written a guide to the passage between life and death as informed by that rare jewel of human experience the near death While this book will become essential reading for persons living with terminal illness and for their caretakers Boldman challenges all of us to live more fully through confronting our own approaching deaths Preparing to Die Andrew Holecek,2013-07-09 We all face death but how many of us are actually ready for it Whether our own death or that of a loved one comes first how prepared are we spiritually or practically In Preparing to Die Andrew Holecek presents a wide array of resources to help the reader address this unfinished business Part One shows how to prepare one s mind and how to help others before during and after death The author explains how spiritual preparation for death can completely transform our relationship to the end of life dissolving our fear and helping us to feel open and receptive to letting go in the dying process Daily meditation practices the stages of dying and how to work with them and after death experiences are all detailed in ways that will be particularly helpful for those with an interest in Tibetan Buddhism and in Tibetan approaches to conscious dying Part Two addresses the practical issues that surround death Experts in grief hospice the funeral business and the medical and legal issues of death contribute chapters to prepare the reader for every practical concern including advance directives green funerals the signs of death warnings about the funeral industry the stages of grief and practical care for the dying Part Three contains heart advice from twenty of the best known Tibetan Buddhist masters now teaching in the West These brief interviews provide words of solace and wisdom to guide the dying and their caregivers during this challenging time Preparing to Die is for anyone interested in learning how to prepare for death from a Buddhist perspective both spiritually and practically It is also for those who want to learn how to help someone else who is dying both during the time of illness and death as well as after death Original Christianity Peter Novak,2005-09-29 Offers more information about the first century world of early Christians asking Could Christ s original teachings have truly been lost Foreword Reviews Whoever finds the interpretation of these sayings will not experience death from the Gospel of Thomas The work of scholars such as Elaine Pagels and Marvin Meyer have captured the imagination of the public by setting forth the Gospel of Thomas and other lost teachings of Jesus Now Peter Novak in Original Christianity brings forth a critical element essential for fully understanding these scriptures Novak argues that the authors of these early texts subscribed to the Binary Soul Doctrine an ancient belief system that allows for both reincarnation and an eternal afterlife Novak s interdisciplinary approach offers fresh insights on the beliefs and politics of the early church founders He points out that reincarnation was a commonly held Christian belief until it was voted out of official Christianity and the record expunged This newfound key reveals the true identities of many mysterious Biblical figures such as Lazarus Barabbas Judas and especially the Apostle Thomas who may not only have been Jesus identical twin brother but indeed a second Christ in his own right who lived to produce a genetically identical bloodline More important still the rediscovery of the lost theology of Original Christianity means Christ's central message of personal integrity can again take center stage

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck
