Sacred Scriptures Of World Religion 3ed:

Sacred Scriptures of the World Religions Joan Price, 2010-02-17 Price examines religions across the world offering an insight into each tradition's views of the world through their scriptural texts and spiritual practices

World Religions and Cults Volume 3 Bodie Hodge, Roger Patterson, 2016-11-30 This final book in the series focuses on the atheistic or humanistic type of religions. It would be one of the most valuable for the church in the Western World where anti-god and pro-evolution religions are beginning to explode for it was written to refute those religions and show how they fail. Unlike most books on world religions, this title dives into the secular humanistic religions. The book starts with God's Word as the absolute authority. In doing so, God becomes our guide to refute false religions. Humanistic religions are all around us and we need to be able to spot their tenets and oppose them instead of allowing them to subtly infiltrate our Christianity and undermine us from within. We need to know how to refute these humanistic religions. We need to know how to effectively present the gospel to people who have been deceived by humanistic religions

Nectar #3 Babaji Bob Kindler, Lex Hixon, Swami Sunirmalananda, Swami Ranganathananda, Annapurna Sarada, Rabbi Ariel Stone-Halpern, Rabbi Rami Shapiro, Llewellyn Vaughn Lee, 2001-06-07 This installment of Nectar is dedicated to the auspicious boon and blessing of sacred scripture. In Vedic tradition, scripture is seen as something revealed rather than written wisdom inherent in Consciousness instead of something created by the mind. It is nitya anadi and apaurasheya, eternally present and accessible without beginning or end and not ascribable to human authorship. Other viewpoints consider that these sacred teachings come from Ishvara, God's presence in the universe, or that the actual knowledge comes from God while the language is supplied by luminaries. Finally, one school believes that scripture is only a product of the finest human intellect. Whatever the case may be, these teachings are very valuable to all who would cross the ocean of birth and death, samsara, and establish themselves in their undying and immortal essence

The Catholic Doctrine of Non-Christian Religions Miikka Ruokanen, 2016-05-18 In the Second Vatican Council 1962-65 the Catholic Church for the first time recognized non Christian religions as entities which the Church should respect and with which Christians should enter into dialogue There are however conflicting views in Catholic interpretations of Conciliar theology to what extent did the Council see other religions as means to salvation The author offers The Catholic Doctrine of non Christian Religions according to the Second Vatican Council as the first comprehensive and analytic piece of research on Conciliar teaching concerning the nature of other faiths His study is based on the original Latin and covers Conciliar and pre conciliar documents with special focus on the Declaration on the relation of the Church to Non Christian religions Nostra aetate In his detailed and careful analysis Ruokanen demonstrates that Vaticanum Secundum understood non Christian religions as naturally good entities part of human culture Religions express in many ways and to varying degrees the natural cognition of God and of natural moral law Except for Judaism they do not however possess the status of being considered channels of divine revelation or salvific grace The seeds of truth present in other faiths must be purified and perfected by the fullness of grace and truth given in Christ and entrusted to the Church

The Study of Religion in an Age of Global Dialogue Leonard J. Swidler, Paul Mojzes, 2000 Religion is the most fundamental comprehensive of all human activities it tries to make sense out of not simply one or another aspect of human life but of all aspects of human experience At the core of every civilization lies its religion which both reflects and shapes it Thus if we wish to understand human life in general and our specific culture and history we need to understand religion What is religion Religion is an explanation of the ultimate meaning of life and how to live accordingly based on a notion of the Transcendent Normally it contains the four C s Creed Code Cult Community structure CREED refers To The cognitive aspect of a religion it is everything that goes into the explanation of the ultimate meaning of life CODE OF BEHAVIOR or ethics includes all the rules and customs of action that somehow follow from one aspect or another of the Creed CULT means all the ritual activities that relate the follower to one aspect or another of the Transcendent either directly or indirectly prayer being an example of the former and certain formal behavior toward representatives of the Transcendent such as priests of the latter COMMUNITY STRUCTURE refers To The relationships among the followers this can vary widely from a very egalitarian relationship As among Quakers through a republican structure as Presbyterians have To a monarchical one As with some Hasidic Jews have with their Rebbe THE TRANSCENDENT As the roots of the word indicate means that which goes beyond the everyday The ordinary The surface experience of reality it can mean spirits gods a Personal God An Impersonal God Emptiness etc This volume looks at the ways we humans have developed to study religion However a new age in human consciousness is now dawning The Age of Global Dialogue a radically new consciousness which fundamentally shifts the ways we understand everything in life including religion This global dialogical way of understanding life does not lead to one global religion but it does lead toward a consciously acknowledged common set of ethical principles a Global Ethic The book looks at these two movements the Age of Global Dialogue and inchoative Global Ethic in order to help readers understand what is going on around them So they might make informed intelligent decisions about the meaning of life and how to live it Author note Leonard Swidler is Professor of Religion at Temple University Paul Mojzes is Academic Dean and Professor of Religious Studies at Rosemount College

Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 2 Robert Boyd,2017-06-20 Evangelical theology strives to be evangelical conservative and contemporary In a world in which everyone is Christian evangelical theology provides a balanced position between fundamentalism and liberalism While theological debates within the family will occur to be evangelical is a breath of fresh air for many However we do not live in such a world We do find ourselves living in a secular global society It is secular because no religious organization dictates how we live our lives It is global for at least two reasons First our technology brings us immediately in contact with those faraway places Second and of more importance we can simply step outside our front doors and encounter our neighborhoods that reflect a global pluralism This raises the question how shall we then live The intent of An Evangelical Theology of Religions is to suggest a direction for evangelicals to think about the secular global society in which they live in a way that is not only conservative but also evangelical and contemporary The final essay strives to address the evangelical aspect of our tradition that places an emphasis on the Great Commission and the law of love
