Sacred Texts of World Religions Edited by: Kisak, 2015-09-01 Religious texts also known as scripture scriptures holy writ or holy books are the texts which various religious traditions consider to be sacred or central to their religious tradition Many religions and spiritual movements believe that their sacred texts are divinely or supernaturally revealed or inspired Attitudes towards sacred texts differ widely between religions Some religions make written texts widely and freely available while others hold that sacred secrets must remain hidden from all but the loyal and the initiate Most religions promulgate policies defining the limits of the sacred texts and controlling or forbidding changes and additions Some religions view their sacred texts as the Word of God often contending that the texts are inspired by God and as such should never be altered Translations of texts may receive official sanction but an original sacred language often has defacto absolute or exclusive authority This book serves as a reference guide that lists the works that the corresponding religions are based upon

Scriptures of the World's Religions James Fieser, John Powers, 2004 This anthology of scriptures from the world s living religions offers selections that vary in length from a few paragraphs to 10 pages accompanied by brief introductions that discuss the nature and scope of scripture within each religion as well as the history of each scripture presented The anthology is also available in two volumes Scriptures of The East contains sacred writings of Hinduism Jainism Buddhism Sikhism Confucianism Taoism Shinto and indigenous religions of the East Scriptures of The West contains sacred writings of Zoroastrianism Judaism Christianity Islam the Baha i faith and indigenous religions of the West Sacred Writings of World Religions Fernand Comte, 1992 This book provides an insight into the texts of the greatest religions which have provided a basis of faith to millions including writings from wherever man has heard the divine word Sacred Scriptures of World-religion , 1914 World Scripture Andrew Wilson, 1991 Demonstrating the commonality of the world s religions and our common humanity this rich and varied anthology of scripture offers a highly useful collection of religious quotations passages and excerpts from the holy texts representing a new holistic approach to the world s religions Sacred Texts of the World Ninian Smart, Richard D. Hecht, 2007 For a contemporary world in which religious belief exercises a more potent some might say more dangerous influence on global events than many would have thought possible a generation ago the nature and interpretation of the core tenets of religious faith has become a matter of compelling and widespread interest both within and outside practising religious communities Each of the 14 chapters of Sacred Texts is devoted to one of the principal religious and other belief systems of humanity both defunct and extant The chapters follow a consistent pattern a short and accessible introduction to the faith in question followed by extracts that clearly illustrate its mythic narratives its spiritual and theological doctrines its central moral teachings its rituals and modes of worship and its mystical traditions Accompanying notes make clear the meanings of all the quoted passages Taken together the extracts provide a rounded and coherent picture of each religious tradition Sacred Texts covers not only Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism Buddhism Jainism Taoism Confucianism Shintoism and Sikhism but also small scale traditional religions new religions and secular worldviews such as humanism It is an essential reference for those who wish to understand the nature and continuing appeal of religious belief in a globalised multi faith world Anthology of World Scriptures Robert E. Van Voorst, 1997 This anthology includes the most notable and instructive scriptures of Hinduism Buddhism Jainism Sikhism Confucianism Taoism Shinto Zoroastrianism Judaism Christianity and Islam The context for applying these readings is also provided through a short introduction at the beginning of each chapter

Who Are the Authoritative Interpreters of Sacred Writings? Reynaldo Pareja,2019-03-09 Authentic sacred books possess a compelling interior force that seems to open a channel of communication between this dimension of human existence and the transcendent They have been for thousands of years the depositories of a divine wisdom and language that is not found in other type of literature Their imperishable richness is not void of an individual and collective effort of interpretation of what those texts authentically mean How much of the literal text is a historical account of events that happened beyond recorded time How much of it is symbolic language that defies literal interpretation What ethical and moral foundation do they offer as guidance for humanity s spiritual development The ultimate question to find answers to these questions is Who has an authoritative interpretation of those sacred texts that is truthful and accurate This is the objective of this book an exploration on who has such authority and how it has been manifested in past religions Essays on World Religions Domenic Marbaniang,2012-12-21 This book contains essays by Domenic Marbaniang on topics such as the Origins of Religions the Need of Studying World Religions the Main Teachings of Hinduism Islam and Buddhism the problem of Religious Violence and other essays The essays were written between the years 2002 and 2012
