Rev. Francis E. Gigot Collection [4 Books] Rev. Francis E. Gigot, Aeterna Press, Naamiwan's Drum Maureen Matthews, 2017-01-06 Naamiwan's Drum follows the story of a famous Ojibwe medicine man his gifted grandson and remarkable water drum This drum and forty other artefacts were given away by a Canadian museum to an American Anishinaabe group that had no family or community connections to the collection Many years passed before the drum was returned to the family and only about half of the artefacts were ever returned to the museum Maureen Matthews takes us through this astonishing set of events from multiple perspectives exploring community and museum viewpoints visiting the ceremonial group leader in Wisconsin and finally looking back from the point of view of the drum The book contains a powerful Anishinaabe interpretive perspective on repatriation and on anthropology itself Containing fourteen beautiful colour illustrations Naamiwan's Drum is a compelling account of repatriation as well as a cautionary tale for museum professionals

dominant churches each invested in a particular gospel This is classic Harnack and a true picture of the thought and mind of the last great 19th century theologian A Gentle Cynic Morris Jastrow (Jr.),1919 Luca Marenzio Marco Bizzarini,2017-07-05 Regarded by his contemporaries as the leading madrigal composer of his time Luca Marenzio was an important figure in sixteenth century Italian music and also highly esteemed in England Flanders and Poland This English translation of Marco Bizzarini s study of the life and work of Marenzio provides valuable insights into the composer s influence and place in history and features an extensive up to date bibliography and the first published list of archival sources containing references to Marenzio Women play a decisive role as dedicatees of Marenzio s madrigals and in influencing the way in which they were performed Bizzarini examines in detail the influence of both female and male patrons and performers on Marenzio s music and career including his connections with the confraternity of SS Trinit nd other institutions Dedications were also a political tool as the book reveals Many of Marenzio s dedications were made at the request of his employer Cardinal d Este who wanted to please his French allies Bizzarini examines these extra musical dimensions to Marenzio s work and discusses the composer s new musical directions under the more austere administration of Pope Clement VIII The Formation of the Biblical Canon: Volume 1 Lee Martin McDonald,2017-01-26 Lee Martin McDonald provides a magisterial overview of the development of the biblical canon the emergence of the list of individual texts that constitutes the Christian bible In these two volumes in sum more than double the length of his previous works McDonald presents his most in depth overview to date McDonald shows students and researchers how the list of texts that constitute the bible was once far more fluid than it is today and guides readers through the minefield of different texts different versions and the different lists of texts considered canonical that abounded in antiquity Questions of the origin and transmission of texts are introduced as well as consideration of innovations in the presentation of texts collections of documents archaeological finds and Church councils In this first volume McDonald reexamines issues of canon formation once considered settled and sets the range of texts that make up the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament in their broader context Each individual text is discussed as are the cultural political and historical situations surrounding them The second volume considers the New Testament and the range of so called apocryphal gospels that were written in early centuries and used by many Christian groups before the canon was closed Also included are comprehensive appendices which show various canon lists for both Old and New Testaments and for the bible as a whole The Biblical Canon Lee Martin McDonald,2006-11-01 Selected for inclusion in Preaching magazine s Annual Review of Outstanding Books for Preachers 2006 This is the thoroughly updated and expanded third edition of the successful The Formation of the Christian Biblical Canon It represents a fresh attempt to understand some of the many perplexing questions related to the origins and canonicity of the Bible

Repatriation of Indigenous Cultural Heritage Jason M. Gibson,2023-06-14 Repatriation of Indigenous Cultural Heritage examines how returned materials objects photographs audio and manuscripts are being received and reintegrated

into the ongoing social and cultural lives of Aboriginal Australians Combining a critical examination of the making of these collections with an assessment of their contemporary significance the book exposes the opportunities and challenges involved in returning cultural heritage for the purposes of maintaining preserving or reviving cultural practice Drawing on ethnographic work undertaken with Aboriginal communities and the institutions that hold significant collections the author reveals important new insights about the impact of return on communities Technological advances combined with the push towards decolonising methodologies in Indigenous research have resulted in considerable interest in ensuring that collections of cultural value are returned to Indigenous communities Gibson challenges the rhetoric of museum repatriation arguing that while it has been tremendously important to advancing Indigenous interest it is too often over simplified Repatriation of Indigenous Cultural Heritage offers a timely critical perspective on current museum practice and its place within processes of cultural production and transmission The book is sure to resonate in other international contexts where questions about Indigenous re engagement and decolonisation strategies are being debated and will be of interest to students and scholars of Museum Studies Indigenous Studies and Anthropology The Musician ,1904 Mimetic Theory and Biblical Interpretation Michael Hardin,2017-06-19 For close to two thousand years Christian theology has been captivated by a sacrificial rendering of the Gospel that renders God as retributive arbitrary and Janus faced In the past fifty years a non sacrificial way of perceiving the Gospel God and the mission and message of Jesus has challenged this sacrificial hegemony Now what began as a trickle in the 1960s has burst the dam and the Gospel is on a collision course with Christianity What are some of the implications of this moment What is the integral cohesion in a non sacrificial theology ethics and spirituality What does Christian doctrine look like if one removes retributive economies of exchange
