

The background of the cover is a monochromatic blue photograph. It depicts a vast mountain landscape. In the foreground, the dark, silhouetted branches of trees are visible on the left side. The middle ground is filled with layers of mountains, their peaks and ridges partially obscured by soft, white clouds or mist. The sky above is a pale, uniform blue. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Meditations Johann Gerhard, 1896 Sacred Pneumatology; Or, The Scripture Doctrine of the Holy Spirit; in Three Books Joseph Wilson (Minister of Laxton.), 1836 The Optimist Creed Christian D. Larson, 2012-05-24 The first ever collection of writings by Christian D Larson author of the famous Optimist Creed and one of the twentieth century's pioneers of motivational thought Contemporary research has shown that optimistic people experience longer and healthier lives better relationships and higher incomes Generations before such findings however inspirational writer Christian D Larson showed an amazing grasp of the life changing power of gratitude and optimism Today Larson is known worldwide for his powerful meditation The Optimist Creed and other classics of spiritual living But no single volume has collected his greatest writings Here at last is a long overdue anthology that makes Larson's foundational writings available to the countless readers who already know his name and work Like no one else of his day Larson understood the metaphysical and psychological dimensions of grateful living or as he famously put it an attitude of gratitude Affirmative thought Larson reasoned sets in motion unseen forces both spiritual and psychical and aids in manifesting our desires The Optimist Creed features complete editions of Larson's most deeply affecting works each redesigned and reset. It contains The Pathway of Roses, Your Forces and How to Use Them, the work that features his original Optimist Creed, Mastery of Self, The Ideal Made Real, and Just Be Glad. Washington News Letter, 1916.

The Pathway Of Roses (Annotated Edition) Christian D. Larson, 2012
 This is a book of delightful idealism, sane awakening, life giving. There are in it twenty-eight chapters, each concluded with a page of lovable inspiring precept or philosophy. In the midst of it all are but three poems; the rest is solid matter refreshing to mind and soul. To some this may sound like little drops of water, but this book will instill a soul quality into the nature of whoever reads it in devotion to God. It is full of beautiful Christian spirit that takes the staleness out of life and guile and complaint and gives vim and wholesomeness. If you are morbid or discontented or fearful or off the Path, read this book. This is the annotated edition including an essay about the author and the New Thought Movement in Cincinnati which he founded.

Gladys J. Morgan-de-Groot, 1923.

An Introduction to Christian Theology Anthony Towey, 2018-02-22
 There has long been a need for a comprehensive but truly introductory single authored textbook in theology. By introducing the reader to the biblical, doctrinal, and contemporary dimensions of Christianity with the help of illustrated examples from selected primary texts, the book provides an excellent grounding in theology for both students of the discipline and the general reader. The work explores key tools for the scientific study of theology, endeavoring both to affirm the rationale behind Christian thinking and also to familiarize the reader with significant contrary positions. The solid foundations in biblical theology and hermeneutics given in the book will enable students to read Judeo-Christian scripture intelligently. Key testimonies regarding Jesus Christ are scrutinized and the nature of the New Testament discussed. As well as the emergence of doctrinal orthodoxy and the later disagreements which have shaped contemporary Christianity, the reader will become familiar with the dimensions of current Christian thinking in its dialogue with post-modernity. This new edition includes an additional chapter examining Spirituality and a series of companion videos for each chapter.

Finding Salvation in Christ Christopher D. Denny, Christopher McMahon, 2011-05-01
 Finding Salvation in Christ brings together some of the most important figures in contemporary theology to honor the work of William Loewe, systematic theologian and specialist in the theology of Bernard Lonergan, SJ. For over three decades Loewe's writings have sought to make classic christological and soteriological doctrines comprehensible to a Catholic Church that is working to integrate individual subjectivity, communal living, and historical consciousness in the wake of the Second Vatican Council. Essays included in this volume assess Loewe's reinterpretation of patristic and medieval Christology from Irenaeus to Anselm of Canterbury and explain the significance of the theology of Lonergan and Loewe for the fields of soteriology, economics, family life, and interreligious theology While some recent postliberal theologies have polarized the church's relationship with contemporary culture by minimizing similarities between Christianity and other worldviews the contributors in this volume continue Lonergan's project of integrating the findings of various intellectual disciplines with Christian theology and use Loewe's historical and systematic work as a guide in that endeavor While Lonergan's transcendental Thomism has been criticized by both traditionalists and revisionists essays in this collection apply Loewe's theological methodology in a variety of ways to demonstrate that time honored doctrines about Christ can be transplanted into new cultural contexts and gain intelligibility and credibility in this process Having lived and labored through the far reaching changes in Catholic thought introduced in recent decades Loewe's career provides a model for theologians attempting to build bridges between the past and the present and between the church and the world

The Pathway of Roses Christian D. Larson, 2021-05-06 A classic of Christian mysticism Larson's book describes the path to creating the life of prosperity and healing that you truly desire through becoming congruent with the divine essence within The author explains that God's Will is never to produce suffering Rather than becoming a passive recipient of fate Divine Will is for every woman to enjoy the beauty the power the grace and the opulence of the Creator's endless outpouring of love support prosperity and healing Transcribed from male dominant language to wording more inclusive of the feminine voice

Inherited Land Whitney A. Bauman, Richard R. Bohannon, Kevin J. O'Brien, 2011-08-04 Religion and ecology has arrived What was once a niche interest for a few academics concerned with environmental issues and a few environmentalists interested in religion has become an established academic field with classic texts graduate programs regular meetings at academic conferences and growing interest from other academics and the mass media Theologians ethicists sociologists and other scholars are engaged in a broad dialogue about the ways religious studies can help understand and address environmental problems including the sorts of methodological terminological and substantive debates that characterize any academic discourse This book recognizes the field that has taken shape reflects on the ways it is changing and anticipates its development in the future The essays offer analyses and reflections from emerging scholars of religion and ecology each addressing her or his own specialty in light of two questions 1 What have we inherited from the work that has come before us and 2 What inquiries concerns and conversation partners should be central to the next generation of scholarship The aim of this volume is not to lay out a single and clear path forward for the field Rather the authors critically reflect on the field from within outline some of the major issues we face in the academy and offer perspectives that will nurture continued dialogue

What is Wrong with Us? Eric Coombes, Theodore Dalrymple, 2016-11-08 Can any of us entirely banish from our hearts and minds grave misgivings about the condition of the culture we now inhabit Expressions of those misgivings are mostly unheard in public forums ignored in the dominant media and if noticed at all dismissed by state supported bureaucracies and commercial vested interests To have any chance of gaining attention they must resolve themselves into coherent forms We need to clarify our perceptions of the things that trouble us by articulating and developing our thoughts about them That is we are in need of serious criticism serious criticism aesthetic social and political which is notably lacking in the contemporary world especially in places readily available to the educated non specialist such as the quality weekend newspapers and especially perhaps in relation to the visual arts The pieces collected in this volume are not presented as amounting to an overall account or theory of our cultural condition They are offered merely as examples of serious criticism of what we need if we are to begin to think more profitably about our condition daring in defiance of contemporary dogmatism to make the necessary judgements of value without which our culture will continue to disintegrate Expository Notes, with Practical Observations, on the New Testament ... Wherein the Sacred Text is at Large Recited, the Sense Explained, and the Instructive Example of the Blessed Jesus and His Holy Apostles to Our Imitation Recommended ... William Burkitt, 1844
