from Sad Nun at Synanon

I never believed that dirty work meant that when people of regular intelligence, I would have that human body and soul and become something I wanted to be enough to get it out of me.

It has been a long time since I was, and now when I look back on it, I feel a great pity for the poor man of it, then I feel a great pity for me. You'll never see me again.

Nobody told me the fatigue.
Nobody told me the temptation when I took off my clothing that night that day, there were no temptations. All I possessed were my eyes and my soul. The feeling of fear and pain hadn't yet reached to my heart.

Synanon has a phrase for people who see things only through their own perceptions: those who go through life listening to the sound of one hand clapping. I told Synanon to work with them, as it did when we they if have eyes in their hands.
