Visions Thy Phu explores photography from dispersed communities throughout Vietnam and the Vietnamese diaspora both during and after the Vietnam War to complicate narratives of conflict and memory While the visual history of the Vietnam War has been dominated by American documentaries and war photography Phu turns to photographs circulated by the Vietnamese themselves capturing a range of subjects occasions and perspectives Phu s concept of warring visions refers to contrasts in the use of war photos in North Vietnam which highlighted national liberation and aligned themselves with an international audience and those in South Vietnam which focused on family and everyday survival Phu also uses warring visions to enlarge the category of war photography a genre that usually consists of images illustrating the immediacy of combat and the spectacle of violence pain and wounded bodies She pushes this genre beyond such definitions by analyzing pictures of family life weddings and other quotidian scenes of life during the war Phu thus expands our understanding of how war is waged experienced and resolved

Happitimes - The Early Years Ally Burnett,2013-10 Ally Burnett is a longtime educator who hoped to one day share her life story That story has come to fruition with Happitimes The Early Years The story takes the reader on an emotional roller coaster as Ms Burnett describes her childhood in vivid detail sometimes interjecting academic insight into how she and her siblings were affected by the abuse they lived At times her story is heart wrenching but true to an understanding that domestic violence reaches every corner of human existence Ms Burnett continues to educate students with special needs in the Nashville area and hopes to write a book 2 to give continued validation to abused children

Endpapers Alexander Wolff,2023-02-22 A powerfully told story of family honor love and truth the beautiful and haunting stories told in this book transcend policy and politics Beto O Rourke A literary gem researched over a year the author spent living in Berlin Endpapers excavates the extraordinary histories of the author s grandfather and father the renowned publisher Kurt Wolff dubbed perhaps the twentieth century s most discriminating publisher by the New York Times Book Review and his son Niko who fought in the Wehrmacht during World War II before coming to America Born in Bonn into a highly cultured German Jewish family Kurt became a publisher at twenty three setting up his own firm and publishing Franz Kafka Joseph Roth Karl Kraus and many other authors whose books would soon be burned by the Nazis After fleeing Germany in 1933 Kurt and his second wife Helen founded Pantheon Books in a small Greenwich Village apartment Pantheon would soon take its own place in literary history with the publication of Nobel laureate Boris Pasternak s novel Doctor Zhivago and as the conduit that brought major European works to the States But Kurt s taciturn son Niko offspring of his first marriage to Elisabeth Merck was left behind in Germany where despite his Jewish heritage he served the Nazis on two fronts As Alexander Wolff visits dusty archives and meets distant relatives he discovers secrets that never made it to the land of fresh starts including the connection between Hitler and the family pharmaceutical firm E Merck With surprising revelations from never before published family letters diaries and photographs Endpapers is a moving and intimate family story weaving a literary tapestry of the perils triumphs and secrets of history and exile

Women Writing Resistance

Jennifer Browdy de Hernandez, 2003 Eighteen women including Jamaica Kincaid Rigoberta Mench Cherr e Moraga Marjorie Agosin Margaret Randall Gloria Anzald a Michelle Cliff Edwidge Danticat and Julia Alvarez are featured in this powerful anthology on art feminism and activism in Latin America and the Caribbean Women Writing Resistance highlights Latin American and Caribbean women writers who with increasing urgency are writing in the service of social justice and against the entrenched patriarchal racist and exploitative regimes that have ruled their countries Many of the women in this collection have been thrust out into the Latino Caribbean diaspora by violent forces that make differences in language and culture seem less significant than connections based on resistance to inequality and oppression It is these connections that Women Writing Resistance highlights presenting conversations on the potential of writing to confront injustice This mixed genre anthology a resource for activists and readers of Latin American and Caribbean women s literature demonstrates and enacts how women can collaborate across class race and nationality and illustrates the value of this solidarity in the ongoing struggles for human rights and social justice in the Americas Jennifer Browdy de Hernandez earned her Ph D in comparative literature from New York University specializing in contemporary Caribbean Latin American and ethnic North American autobiographies by women She teaches literature and gender studies courses at Simon s Rock College of Bard and is also a faculty member at the University at Albany SUNY

The Macro World of Micro Cars Kate Trant, Austin Williams, 2004-06 Once a common sight in our towns and cities microcars were ingenious solutions to the post war demand for economical and accessible motoring Nowadays they are making a celebrated comeback with all of the big car manufacturers featuring at least one flagship small car from DaimlerChrysler s Smart and BMW s Mini to Nissan s Micra But what are the factors now and then that turned the microcar into a viable alternative to the normal car How have the aspirations and ideas behind the microcar changed over the decades The cars themselves have undoubtedly undergone a radical transformation Whereas the current trend in small cars is led by environmental concerns the first phase of the microcar phenomenon was determined by economic necessity many manufacturers of planes trains and white goods had to re invent themselves as producers of automobiles The result was a proliferation of small cheap and extraordinary looking three and four wheeled vehicles This book looks at the social and cultural conditions behind the rise the fall and the ultimate resurrection of the small car and features some of the most fascinating and best loved examples With the debate over transport sustainability congestion fuel consumption taxation and the environment high on the agenda there has never been a better time than now to examine the role of the microcar

Colors of Christmas Olivia Newport, 2017-10-01 Celebrate the joyful hope of the Christmas season as characters find healing in the midst of heartbreak New from Olivia Newport Christmas in Blue In the wake of a personal loss deeper than anyone realizes Angela plans to bypass as much of the season as possible and get through her duties as the church organist by going on autopilot

Instead she finds herself in charge of the town's celebration. After a mysterious young man arrives, townspeople suspect he is the reason that one set of plans after another disintegrate until little is left of their traditions. Yet Angela warms to Gabe because she suspects they share a secret; his real reason for coming to town. Even when all they have to work with is a garish supply of blue Christmas decorations, Gabe helps Angela discover the hidden beauty of hope. Christmas in Gold. After eighty years, change is nothing new for Astrid. By the time she was twenty, she survived the destructive Nazi regime, caring for her family under brutal circumstances, moving to America and losing her husband. At forty, she was widowed again and left to build a new life with her children. Now when she faces a move into an assisted living community and meets a young woman on the brink of despair, she resolves to stir up hope through tragedy one more time. Billboard, 1995-05-06.
