Scots In The Usa And Canada 1825 1875 Part Four:

Scots in the USA and Canada, 1825-1875 David Dobson, 2009-06 This is the fourth book in David Dobson's Scots in the USA and Canada 1825 1875 a series designed to compensate for the lack of official Scottish passenger lists to North America during the nineteenth century Containing about 1 300 sketches not found in the prior books Part Four brings the total number of descriptions of the Scottish men and women and their families who were part of this great exodus to about 6 000 In addition to skilled craftsmen a number of the immigrants found in Part Four were dispossessed Highland farmers who had suffered as a result of the Highland Clearances a kind of enclosure movement or by periods of famine at mid century

Scots in the USA and Canada, 1825-1875 David Dobson, 2005 Scots in the USA and Canada, 1825-1875 David Dobson, 1998 Although it is difficult to estimate the figure accurately experts believe that 100 000 Scots emigrated to the United States or Canada during the middle of the nineteenth century The majority of these emigrants were skilled educated workers from urban industrial backgrounds whose expertise was in great demand in the rapidly industrializing cities of North America For this book the first of five in the series see also Part Two Part Three Part Four and Part Five David Dobson who has previously published the most extensive lists of Scottish immigrants to America during the colonial and early Federal periods in print extends his coverage of Scottish immigration to the period 1825 1875 For the most part his findings come from Scottish newspapers like the Aberdeen Journal Fife Advertiser Scottish Guardian etc as well as from a handful of documents in the Scottish Record Office and other archives The Scottish expatriates identified by the compiler are arranged alphabetically and invariably give besides the individual's full name place of residence country state province or city an identifying date and the source of the information In addition many of the entries indicate the individual's date of birth father's name and occupation or place of residence spouse or the name of the vessel upon which he arrived In all Mr Dobson has culled information on upwards of 2 000 Scotsmen who were residing in North America during the early Victorian era

Tracing Your Scottish Family History on the Internet Chris Paton, 2020-04-30 From search engines and databases to DNA platforms discover how to easily learn more about your Scottish ancestry online with this helpful guide Scotland is a land with a proud and centuries long history that far predates its membership of Great Britain and the United Kingdom Today in the 21st century it is also a land that has done much to make its historical records accessible to help those with Caledonian ancestry trace their roots back to earlier times and a world long past In Tracing Scottish Family History on the Internet Chris Paton expertly guides the family historian through the many Scottish records offerings available but also cautions the reader that not every record is online providing detailed advice on how to use web based finding aids to locate further material across the country and beyond He also examines social networking and the many DNA platforms that are currently further revolutionizing online Scottish research From the Scottish Government websites offering access to our most important national records to the holdings of local archives libraries family history societies and online vendors Chris Paton takes the reader across Scotland from the Highlands and Islands through the Central Belt and the Lowlands and across the diaspora to explore the various flavors of Scottishness that have bound us together as a nation for so long
