Abstract

In the centuries since that night on St. Basil's, it is impossible to underestimate the impact of that Christmas Eve. Indeed, the phrase "Night is light when it comes" has become a legend, and the episode of Christmas Eve has entered the "Old Days of Yore" and is forever the story. There have been thousands of illustrations of the tale in its many guises of time. It has entered the story book of the people. As Christmas Eve comes in 1900, almost every child has heard of it. As Christmas Eve comes in 1900, every school has had a tale written. We find a 1900 story in every book and the story is the subject of the student and the teacher. Every Christmas Eve has been told in its own way, and the story of the Night of Yore is the story of the time when we find the story of Yore was recorded in the language of Christmas Eve when it was the first time the tale was told. As it was recorded in the story of Yore, every child in the world knows that the story is known in 1900, and they do not know that the story is the story of the Night of Yore. The story is the story of the Night of Yore, and the story is the story of the Night of Yore.
