No Dibs P. A. Engebrecht, 2024-08-21 Ode to the Geranium. Grandma's favorite, red, of course. But pink and white come to play. With palm-size leaves, bugs will not eat, no disease to spray. Your colorful heads unfold bright red. Cheering us the summer long. When autumn freeze comes along, I lift you gently from your nest. Trim your green way back. Lay you lovingly to rest in a cool, dark place beneath summer grass and drying hay. Where you sleep and dream away until Robin Redbreast comes to play. And Jack Frost fades away, I lift you gently from your slumber. Trim your meager, soft white roots. And plant you in spring's soft, warm dirt. You like my dreams of old. Grow once more in the crevices of my soul.

Dancing Archives - Archive Dances Thom Hecht, 2014-03-15 This book presents the first in-depth archival exploration of a lost history of dance as an extracurricular activity at Radcliffe College, the women's liberal arts college of Harvard University during the first half of the twentieth century. Using archival storytelling, an innovative methodology that brings the researcher's lived experience at the Radcliffe College Archives into the historical discourse, three archive stories were created. These vivid narratives thrive in the researcher's personal encounters with the surroundings of the archive and the interpretation and reading of what is to be found, giving profound insights into what it means to walk in the footsteps of Radcliffe dance history.
