extensive resource also includes guidelines regarding copyrights sources for emergency funds a listing of online resources information on writers colonies and retreats and more Law & Advertising Dean K. Fueroghne,2017-03-01 In this lively entertaining and informative book Dean K Fueroghne guides readers through the complex laws governing the creation of advertising illuminating a heavily regulated arena at the intersection of free enterprise and consumer protection Is it acceptable to use images of real people famous or not Can Nike talk about Adidas in its promotional campaign When can money be shown What constitutes puffery or deceptive truth or bait and switch advertising What are the specific rules pertaining to professional businesses political advertising or the marketing of alcohol or tobacco What is the difference between copyright and trademark Fueroghne answers these questions and more as he covers the complex laws relevant to advertising in all its guises In addition to discussing specific cases he explains the reasoning behind the court s decisions and how it affects the business of advertising Students of strategic communication as well as advertising professionals from agency account executives and copywriters to art directors and freelance designers will learn to anticipate when proposed advertising may cause legal problems and how to avoid costly mistakes Advertising lawyers will also appreciate the book as a handy reference that gathers in one place the many disparate laws affecting marketing and promotion in the United States today Screams & Nightmares Brian J. Robb,2022-04-07 Writer producer and director Wes Craven has successfully tapped into the horror vein for over forty years serving up scary funny cutting edge thrillers that have become classics in the genre His films have been both critical and commercial successes most notably Nightmare on Elm Street which spawned a series of sequels and made Craven and his creation Freddy Kruger an international sensation He then created a second indelible series in the horror movie trope with Scream In Screams Nightmares Brian J Robb examines Craven s entire career from his low budget beginnings to his most recent box office hits from the banned thriller The Last House on the Left and the cult classic The Hills Have Eyes to the outrageous Shocker and The People Under the Stairs Through exclusive interviews with Craven Robb provides in depth accounts of the making of each of the films including the final instalments of the Scream series Craven s foray into writing novels and his numerous television projects Post-9/11 Horror in American Cinema Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr.,2012-03-22 The horror film is meant to end in hope Regan McNeil can be exorcized A hydrophobic Roy Scheider can blow up a shark Buffy can and will slay vampires Heroic human qualities like love bravery resourcefulness and intelligence will eventually defeat the monster But after the 9 11 American horror became much more bleak with many films ending with the deaths of the entire main cast Post 9 11 Horror in American Cinema illustrates how contemporary horror films explore visceral and emotional reactions to the attacks and how they underpin audiences ongoing fears about their safety It examines how scary movies have changed as a result of 9 11 and conversely how horror films construct and give meaning to the event in a way that other genres do not Considering films such as Quarantine Cloverfield Hostel and the Saw series Wetmore examines the transformations in horror cinema since 9 11 and considers not merely how the tropes have changed but how our understanding of horror itself has changed The Cinema of Generation X Peter Hanson,2002-03-06 When Steven Soderbergh exploded onto movie screens with sex lies and videotape in 1989 it represented more than the arrival of an important new director it heralded the arrival of an entire generation of important new directors Quentin Tarantino Pulp Fiction Kevin Smith Dogma David Fincher Fight Club M Night Shyamalan The Sixth Sense Ben Stiller Reality Bites Michael Bay Pearl Harbor and dozens of others are all members of Generation X the much talked about but much misunderstood successors to baby boomers This book is a critical study of the films directed by Gen Xers and how those directors have been influenced by their generational identity While Generation X as a whole sometimes seems to lack direction its filmmakers have devoted their careers to making powerful statements about contemporary society and their generation s role in it Each section of the book deals with an aspect of Gen X filmmaking including the influence of popular culture postmodern narrative devices slackerdom and the lack of direction disenfranchisement and nihilism the ever evolving role of technology gender issues and sexuality the question of race the influence of older filmmakers and visions of the future everything from film festival practices to marketing strategies talent development to awards campaigning Case studies of key films including The Piano Kids Scream The English Patient and Life is Beautiful reveal how Miramax went beyond influencing Hollywood business practices and motion picture aesthetics to shaping popular and critical discourses about cinema during the 1990s and looks at the range of Miramax released genre films foreign language films and English language imports released over the course of the decade forum for inter-american research Vol 1 Wilfried Raussert,2023-07-20 Volume 1 of 6 of the complete premium print version of journal forum for inter american research fiar which is the official electronic journal of the International Association of Inter American Studies IAS fiar was established by the American Studies Program at Bielefeld University in 2008 We foster a dialogic and interdisciplinary approach to the study of the Americas fiar is a peer reviewed online journal Articles in this journal undergo a double blind review process and are published in English French Portuguese and Spanish Fifty Filmmakers Andrew J. Rausch,2015-03-21 This book is an extensive collection of original interviews with 50 noted filmmakers Conducted over a seven year period expressly for this project the interviews cover various aspects of film production biographical information and the interviewees favorite or most influential films Filmmakers interviewed include highly respected auteurs Richard Linklater Wim Wenders B movie greats Roger Corman Lloyd Kaufman and well renowned documentary directors D A Pennebaker Albert Maysles Each entry includes a brief biography and filmography while dozens of personal photographs promotional materials and film stills appear throughout the work The Strange Case of Dr. Mabuse David Kalat,2015-09-16 The Mabuse phenomenon is recognized as an icon of horror in Germany as Frankenstein and Dracula are in the United States A study of the 12 motion pictures and five books and some secondary films that make up the eight decades of adventures of master criminal Mabuse created by author Norbert Jacques in the best selling 1922 German novel and brought to the screen by master filmmaker Fritz Lang in the same year Both on screen and off the story of Dr Mabuse is a story of love triangles and revenge of murder suicides and suspicious deaths of betrayals and paranoia of fascism and tyranny deceptions and conspiracies mistaken identities and transformation This work featuring much information never before published in English provides an understanding of a modern mythology whose influence has pervaded popular culture even while the name Mabuse remains relatively unknown in the United States

Back from the Dead Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr.,2011-07-25 Since 1968 the name of motion picture director George Romero has been synonymous with the living dead His landmark film Night of the Living Dead formed the paradigm of modern zombie cinema often cited as a metaphor for America during the Vietnam War and the Civil Rights movement the film used the tenets of the drive in horror movie genre to engage the sociophobics of late 1960s culture Subsequently Romero has created five more zombie films and other directors including Tom Savini and Zack Snyder have remade Romero s movies This survey of those remakes examines ways in which the sociocultural contexts of different time periods are reflected by changes to the narrative and the zombies of Romero s original versions Wes Craven Shannon Blake Skelton,2019-11-29 With a career spanning four decades Wes Craven 1939 2015 bridged independent exploitation cinema and Hollywood big budget horror A pioneer of the modern horror cinema Craven directed such landmark films as The Last House on the Left The Hills Have Eyes A Nightmare on Elm Street and Scream considered not only classics of the genre but examples of masterful filmmaking Producing an impressive oeuvre that mixed intellectual concerns and political ideas Craven utilized high tension suspense devastating visual brutality and dark humor to evoke a unique brand of fear Moreover his films draw attention to the horror of American society namely racism classism and the traumas often associated with family This collection of twenty nine interviews spanning from 1980 until his final interview in 2015 traces Craven s life and career from his upbringing in a strict religious family and his life as an academic to his years toiling in exploitation cinema The volume also chronicles Craven s ascendancy as an independent director his work within the studio system and his eventual triumph in mainstream cinema Within the interviews gathered here including three previously unpublished pieces Craven reflects on failed projects and the challenges of working with studios while offering thoughtful meditations on the dynamics and appeal of horror Wes Craven Interviews cements Craven s legacy as a master of horror who left an indelible mark on the genre by forever altering expectations of and approaches to the cinema of fear
