The Road to Parnassus: Artist Strategies in Contemporary Art Diego Mantoan, 2020-10-06 How can one become a successful artist Where should one start a career in the art world What are useful strategies to achieve recognition in the art system Such questions hoard in students minds ever since entering art school and they probably chase every kind of art professional who is at an early career stage The Road to Parnassus tries to understand what makes a good start in today s art world who are influential players in the field and which strategies might apply The swift career ascension of Glasgow artist Douglas Gordon one of today s leading visual artists and of the broader YBA generation that rose into worldwide prominence in the 1990s Damien Hirst and Sarah Lucas among the best known serves as a convenient case to analyse contemporary artist strategies This book takes a multidisciplinary approach spanning from traditional art history to sociology and economics pursuing the reconstruction of the field of forces in art as intended by French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu Compared to previous publications on art system dynamics such as Thompson s The 12 Million Stuffed Shark this book offers an enhanced understanding of the factors that allow a young artist to enter the arena of contemporary art The present research should help uncover the art system logic which appears enigmatic to non experts revealing that artists are aware they need to consider global trends beat competitors and meet the demands of dealers collectors curators and museums This book furthers existing contributions on the YBAs for example Stallabrass High Art Lite offering innovative conclusions on recent British art such as on the duality between London and Glasgow the gender opposition among emerging artists and the predominance of resourceful authors Scream and Scream Again, 1996

Art in the Age of Mass Media John A. Walker, 2001-08-20 Can fine art survive in an age of mass media If so in what forms and to what purpose And can radical art still play a critical role in today s divided world These are the questions addressed in the Art in the Age of Mass Media as John Walker examines the fascinating relationship between art and mass media and the myriad interactions between high and low culture in a postmodern culturally pluralistic world Using a range of historic and contemporary works of art Walker explores the variety of ways in which artists have responded to the arrival of new mass media He ranges from the socialist paintings of Courbet to the anti Nazi photomontages of Heartfield from community murals and Keith Haring s use of graffiti to the kitsch self promotion associated with Jeff Koons The new edition describes what happened during the 1990s including Toscani s adverts for Benetton the simulations of Leeds 13 art and cinema Damien Hirst and the cyberart currently being produced for the internet

A History of Experimental Film and Video A.L. Rees, 2019-07-25 Avant garde film is almost indefinable It is in a constant state of change and redefinition In his highly acclaimed history of experimental film A L Rees tracks the movement of the film avant garde between the cinema and modern art with its postmodern coda But he also reconstitutes the film avant garde as an independent form of art practice with its own internal logic and aesthetic discourse In this revised and updated edition Rees introduces experimental film and video to new readers interested in the wider cinema as well as offering a guide to enthusiasts of avant garde film and new media arts Ranging from C zanne and Dada via Cocteau Brakhage and Le Grice to the new wave of British film and video artists from the 1990s to the present day this expansive study situates avant garde film between the cinema and the gallery with many links to sonic as well as visual arts The new edition includes a review of current scholarship in avant garde film history and includes updated reading and viewing lists It also features a new introduction and concluding chapter which assess the rise of video projection in the gallery since the millennium and describe new work by the latest generation of experimental film makers The new edition is richly illustrated with images of the art works discussed

Art of the Deal

Noah Horowitz,2014-08-31 Art today is defined by its relationship to money as never before Prices of living artists works have been driven to unprecedented heights conventional boundaries within the art world have collapsed and artists now think ever more strategically about how to advance their careers Artists no longer simply make art but package sell and brand it Noah Horowitz exposes the inner workings of the contemporary art market explaining how this unique economy came to be how it works and where it s headed He takes a unique look at the globalization of the art world and the changing face of the business offering the clearest analysis yet of how investors speculate in the market and how emerging art forms such as video and installation have been drawn into the commercial sphere By carefully examining these developments against the backdrop of the deflation of the contemporary art bubble in 2008 Art of the Deal is a must read book that demystifies collecting and investing in today s art market

Screen Presence Monteiro Stephen Monteiro,2016-05-31

Cinema plays a major role in contemporary art yet the deeper influence of its diverse historical forms on artistic practice has received little attention Screen Presence explores the intersections of film popular media and art since the 1950s through the examples of four pivotal figures Andy Warhol Robert Rauschenberg Mona Hatoum and Douglas Gordon While their film related works may appear primarily as challenges to conventional cinema these artists draw on overlooked forms of popular film culture that have been commonplace and even dominant in specific social contexts Through a range of new sources including advertisements specialty magazines postcards technical guides and souvenir programs Stephen Monteiro demonstrates the dependence of contemporary artists on cinema s shifting applications and interpretations offering a fresh understanding of the enduring impact of everyday media on how we make and view art

Sutton,Susan Brind,Ray McKenzie,2007-01-24 New media virtual reality artificial intelligence biotechnology cybernetics are the latest technologies push back the very limits of reality The nature of the real in the digital age is ever more hotly debated and the place of these debates in visual culture can hardly be overstated Innovative and provocative this book brings together the latest research on the state of the real by practitioners and commentators across the disciplines of photography film media studies critical theory and fine art Engaging with the work of critics and thinkers as varied as Linda Nochlin Lev Manovich and Donna Harroway Lyotard Baudrillard and Barthes The State of the Real looks first at the different ways in which realism and reality have been understood in recent art history with a particular focus on debates about the real within photography Emphasising the role of art in shaping as well as reflecting notions of the real the book features contributions from a number of contemporary artists and showcases a new photoessay by artist Andrew Lee The collection looks finally towards advanced technologies and the virtual world in a section which concludes with a specially commissioned contribution by acclaimed thinker Slavoj Zizek This is an indispensable volume for students of the digital age across the fields of art and photography film media studies and critical and visual theory      Hanyo (The Housemaid) Youngmin

Choe,2025-09-04 The upwardly mobile Kim family employs a young woman to help manage their new house Mr Kim begins an affair with the nameless housemaid who soon drags the entire family into a terrible tragedy The director Kim Ki young played a formative part in South Korean cinema s Golden Age of the 1960s and 1970s his 1960 masterpiece Hanyo The Housemaid rescued and restored after almost being lost is today widely regarded as one of the greatest South Korean films of all time Directors such as Park Chan wook Im Sang soo Kim Ki duk Ryu Seung wan and Kim Jee woon have all praised the film and Bong Joon ho has referred to Hanyo as the Citizen Kane of Korean cinema citing it as an inspiration for his film Parasite 2019 In this book Youngmin Choe argues that Hanyo encapsulates the mood of social change in postwar South Korea during the period of tremendous upheaval and rapid transformation that followed the devastating war which divided families across the newly formed Cold War boundaries The housemaid a figure that Kim Ki young would explore repeatedly throughout his career was a young woman driven by greed and envy a femme fatale set loose on the middle class home A monstrous embodiment of the destructive desires of capitalism which recklessly eroded the foundations of tradition this housemaid served as the conscience of a period that otherwise leaned heavily into economic transformation pointing to the anxiety that undergirded what might be otherwise regarded as a time of progress Going beyond the traditionalist approaches that resist feminist readings of Hanyo Youngmin Choe insists that the enduring legacy of Hanyo is both due to its uncanny aesthetics and though it certainly was not intended to be an explicitly feminist film in the questions it raises about class mobility gender oppression and women s work      Horror Films of the 1970s John Kenneth Muir,2012-11-22 The seventies

The Shaft David J. Schow, 2016-11-13 A low level drug runner named Cruz finds himself exiled from sunny Miami to frigid Chicago He holes up in a decrepit rooming house the Kenilworth Arms in the dead of winter There he meets Jonathan a yuppie struggling to get over a failed romance and Jamaica a prostitute on the payroll of the drug kingpin Bauhaus When Cruz and Jamaica are forced to drop two kilos of cocaine down a ventilation shaft in the rooming house to escape a police raid strange things begin to happen David J Schow s The Shaft features a unique mingling of supernatural horror with the very real dangers involved in drug running creating a uniquely compelling atmosphere Amid the inexplicable terrors of a building that seems weirdly animate and of some loathsome monstrosity lurking in the bottom of the ventilation shaft the pursuit of Cruz Jonathan and Jamaica by Bauhaus and his minions seems by turns insignificant and chillingly immediate
