A Heart at Fire's Center Steven C. Smith, 2002-05-31 No composer contributed more to film than Bernard Herrmann who in over 40 scores enriched the work of such directors as Orson Welles Alfred Hitchcock Francois Truffaut and Martin Scorsese In this first major biography of the composer Steven C Smith explores the interrelationships between Herrmann's music and his turbulent personal life using much previously unpublished information to illustrate Herrmann's often outrageous behavior his working methods and why his music has had such lasting impact From his first film Citizen Kane to his last Taxi Driver

Herrmann was a master of evoking psychological nuance and dramatic tension through music often using unheard of instrumental combinations to suit the dramatic needs of a film His scores are among the most distinguished ever written ranging from the fantastic Fahrenheit 451 The Day the Earth Stood Still to the romantic Obsession The Ghost and Mrs Muir to the terrifying Psycho Film was not the only medium in which Herrmann made a powerful mark His radio broadcasts included Orson Welles s Mercury Theatre on the Air and The War of the Worlds His concert music was commissioned and performed by the New York Philharmonic and he was chief conductor of the CBS Symphony Almost as celebrated as these achievements are the enduring legends of Herrmann s combativeness and volatility Smith separates myth from fact and draws upon heretofore unpublished material to illuminate Herrmann s life and influence Herrmann remains as complex as any character in the films he scored a creative genius an indefatigable musicologist an explosive bully a generous and compassionate man who desperately sought friendship and love Films scored by Bernard Herrmann Citizen Kane The Ghost and Mrs Muir Vertigo Psycho Fahrenheit 451 Taxi Driver The Magnificent Ambersons The Man Who Knew Too Much North By Northwest The Birds The Snows of Kilimanjaro Cape Fear Marnie Torn Curtain among others *Reagan Robert P. Looking Glass Wars Spies on British Screens since 1960 is a detailed historical and critical overview of espionage in British film and television in the important period since 1960 From that date the British spy screen was transformed under the influence of the tremendous success of James Bond in the cinema the spy thriller and of the new style spy writing of John le Carr and Len Deighton the espionage story In the 1960s there developed a popular cycle of spy thrillers in the cinema and on television The new study looks in detail at the cycle which in previous work has been largely neglected in favour of the James Bond films The study also brings new attention to espionage on British television and popular secret agent series such as Spy Trap Quiller and The Sandbaggers It also gives attention to the more realistic representation of spying in the film and television adaptations of le Carr and Deighton and other dramas with a more serious intent In addition there is wholly original attention given to nostalgic spy fictions on screen adaptations of classic stories of espionage which were popular in the late 1970s and through the 1980s and to historical spy fiction dramas which treated real cases of espionage and their characters most notably the notorious Cambridge Spies Detailed attention is also given to the secret state thriller a cycle of paranoid screen dramas in the 1980s which portrayed the intelligence services in a conspiratorial light best understood as a reaction to excessive official secrecy and anxieties about an unregulated security service The study is brought up to date with an examination of screen espionage in Britain since the end of the Cold War The approach is empirical and historical The study examines the production and reception literary and historical contexts of the films and dramas It is the first detailed overview of the British spy screen in its crucial period since the 1960s and provides fresh attention to spy films series and serials never previously considered

Screening the World Stuart Hanson, 2019-07-26 This book charts the development of the multiplex cinema as the pre eminent form of film exhibition across the world Going from its origins in the USA in the 1960s to its expansion overseas from the mid 1980s across Europe Australia and other parts of Asia Pacific the book considers the emergence of a series of initially regional then national and then international exhibition circuits However more than a consideration of US overseas expansion on the part of companies this book examines the hegemony of the multiplex as a cultural and business form arguing for its significance as a phenomenon that has transcended national and global boundaries and which has become the predominant venue for film viewing Implicit in this analysis is a recognition of
