Niemi, 2017-04-19 This volume investigates the dissonance between the supposed advantage held by educated women and their continued lack of economic and political power Niemi explains the developments of the so called female advantage and boy crisis in American higher education setting them alongside socioeconomic and racial developments in women's and men's lives throughout the last 40 years Exploring the relationship between higher education credentials and their utility in creating political economic and social success Degrees of Difference identifies ways in which gender and academic achievement contribute to women's and men's power to shape their lives This important book brings new light to the issues of power gender identities and the role of American higher education in creating gender equity      Asking Harry T. Cook, 2010-06-01 Too much communication in the world of religion is one way from clergy to lay persons who if ever respectfully engaged would become serious inquirers The most desirable means of effective engagement is the give and take method of eliciting and clarifying questions and then drawing the questioner into the answering process That combined with the intellectual rigor of Enlightenment thinking in the formation of beliefs will go a long way toward making contemporary religion a here and now enterprise thus saving it from hopeless irrelevance      Harvard Review ,1992      Planetary Passport Janet McIntyre-Mills, 2017-08-31 This book explores the implications of knowing our place in the universe and recognising our hybridity It is a series of self reflections and essays drawing on many diverse ways of knowing The book examines the complex ethical challenges of closing the wide gap in living standards between rich and poor people communities The notion of an ecological citizen is presented with a focus on protecting current and future generations The idea is to track the distribution and redistribution of resources in the interests of social and environmental justice The central argument looks for ways to hold the powerful to account so as to enable virtuous living by the majority to be demonstrated in what the author calls a planetary passport a careful use of resources and a way to provide safe passage to those in need of safe habitat The book argues that nation states need to find ways to control the super rich through the governance process and to enhance a sense of shared ecological citizenship and responsibility for biodiversity The fundamental approach is collaborative research Planetary Passport Representation Accountability and Re Generation is comprised of six chapters Chapter 1 begins by making a case for a paradigm shift away from business as usual and the pursuit of profit at the expense of the social and environmental fabric of life The aim is to explore alternatives and to discuss some ways of achieving wellbeing whilst the focus is on human rights discrimination and outlining the notion of a planetary passport Chapter 2 makes a specific link between people and the planet as a basis for understanding the nature of hybridity and interconnectedness and the implications for ethics Chapter 3 focuses on building this planetary passport for social and environmental justice in order to enable people with complex needs to consider the consequences of either continuing to live the same way as before or making changes to the way that they live Meanwhile Chapter 4 does the same as the previous chapter but explores the political context of consumption and short term profit Chapter 5 examines the challenges and opportunities that come from explorations within a cross cultural learning community This includes a look at co creation and co determination Finally Chapter 6 ends with a look to the future and a potential new framework for people and the planet through a planetary passport      Racial Propositions Daniel HoSang, 2010 With narrative fluency and deftness constructed on a bedrock of prodigious archival research HoSang s book provides a sorely needed genealogy of the color blind consensus that has come to define race and recode racism within US politics law and public policy This will be a book that lasts Nikhil Pal Singh author of Black is a Country Race and the Unfinished Struggle for Democracy An important analysis of both the exact contours of white supremacy and the failures of electoral anti racism

George Lipsitz author of The Possessive Investment in Whiteness Racial Propositions brilliantly documents the history of race in California's post World War II ballot initiatives to show that nothing is what it seems when it comes to race and politics in America's ethnoracial frontier Daniel HoSang provides readers with a sharply focused interdisciplinary lens through which to see how the language and politics of political liberalism veil what are ultimately racialized ballot initiatives If California is a harbinger for the rest of the country then HoSang's tour de force is required reading for anyone interested how the United States will negotiate diversity in the 21st century Tom's R Jim nez author of Replenished Ethnicity Mexican Americans Immigration and Identity Program Organization of American Historians, 1993 The American Spectator, 1993

Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ... Catalog of Books, 1996 Gore Vidal Susan C. Baker, Curtis S.

Gibson, 1997-02-25 Baker and Gibson show that while Vidal's novels are tremendously entertaining they are also serious examinations of a recurring theme the decline of the West in general and the decline of the United States in particular
