line This is in spite of the billions of petrodollars that Nigeria garnered as revenue over the past few decades It reveals that one does not need to be a political prophet to predict that if these challenges are not successfully addressed through good governance and inclusive growth this country will witness worse civil disobedience violence revolts militancy breakdown of law and order more kidnappings and more of the citizens trying to check out of the country to other parts of the world in the future It concludes however that under such intense pressures the Government of Nigeria even if it is simply for its self preservation will be forced by the objective conditions to move against the interests of the dominant groups and classes in Nigeria These are the ones who have for long captured and hijacked state power and the resources of the country for their exclusive use There is this perception that Nigerians dont write and read This perception is deep seated even among intellectuals who see our authors as shallow researchers But Dr Dan Mou has debunked that myth and shown that Nigerians can write well researched and detailed books It is quite prophetic in its assessment of the Nigerian State Agbo Agbo deputy editor The Nation Dr Dan Mou has proven himself a world class scholar and an intellectual colossus His reputation as an internationally renowned public policy expert has continued to soar I congratulate him for these remarkable achievements Professor Justice Abdul Fatai Kuti first justice of Abuja High Court and former dean faculty of law University of Ado Ekiti Ekiti State of Nigeria Dr Mou is certainly one of the best scholars we have on the African continent As an educationist myself before I became a traditional ruler I agree totally with his analysis and conclusions I share the optimism Dr Mou has expressed that once the recommendations therein are adopted and meticulously implemented with proper monitoring and evaluation of such resultant policies and programmes Nigeria and indeed Africa would be able to solve most of these challenges HRH Alh Dr Sheban Audu Nizazo III Etsu Kwali Etsu Kwalis Palace Abuja Nigeria

Democracy, Society and the Governance of Security Jennifer Wood, Benoît Dupont, 2006-02-23 The promotion of security is no longer a state monopoly It is dispersed and takes place through the practices of states corporations non governmental actors and community based organizations But what do we know about the ways in which security is thought about and promoted in this pluralized field of delivery Are democratic values being advanced and protected or threatened and compromised Wood and Dupont bring together a team of renowned scholars to shed light on our understanding of the arrangements for contemporary security governance Offering a friendly dialogue between those who argue that democratic transformation rests in the development of strong state institutions and those who propose a more de centered agenda the scholars in this volume bring cutting edge theoretical analyses to bear on empirical examples This volume will appeal to researchers in the fields of criminology political science sociology and security studies
