Seeing American Foreign Policy Whole:

American Foreign Policy, Current Documents, 1987      USA, India, Africa During and After the Cold War
Okoth, Pontian Godfrey, 2015-03-16 The Cold War period witnessed competition from political economic ideological diplomatic military and social dimensions between the United States of America USA and the then Union of Soviet Socialist Republics USSR In the superpower rivalries India and Africa were adversely affected in many ways The situation did not change for the better in the post Cold War period which has witnessed the domination of the world by the US and its allies the Group of Eight G 8 industrialised countries This domination has been characterised by the process of Americanization of the worlds otherwise termed globalisation in virtually all spheres of life USA India Africa During and After the Cold War demonstrates that both the United States and The Soviet Union used African States India and other Third World countries for their own geopolitical considerations that the foreign policy and foreign relations of the US were meant to subject Africa and India to the dictates of US imperialism The book assesses the impact of the Cold War and the post Cold War order on Africa India and the entire world and argues that the Non Aligned Movement is still relevant to the Third World countries despite the demise of the Cold War The book analyses issues from the African point of view as opposed to hitherto Western view points but provides a balanced appreciation of the complex forces that shape foreign policies and foreign relations globally It is a valuable contribution to modern diplomatic history and targets university students researchers foreign affairs ministries and practicing diplomats      For Your Information, New Acquisitions National Defense University. Revolutionary States, Leaders, and Foreign Relations Houman A. Sadri, 1997-04-16 This book compares and contrasts the foreign relations strategies of China Cuba and Iran in the first decade of their post revolutionary periods Among a variety of explanatory variables leadership particularly the type of revolutionary leaders played a significant role in explaining the outcome of the policymaking process in each case Three distinct patterns of foreign relations strategies are evident among all three revolutionary regimes in the ten year period Two Track Conflictual and Conciliatory This book is a valuable source for both experts and non experts alike in providing insight into the foreign relations of revolutionary regimes in developing countries and in helping U S policymakers anticipate behaviors of future revolutionary leaders A focal point of this book is the examination of the nonalignment strategies of these prominent developing countries during the infancy of their regimes Each state s particular strategy is described and explained in detail and then contrasted and compared Although there are differences among their foreign policies considering their geographic locations size wealth military capabilities leadership characteristics and political institutions there are significant similarities regarding their foreign policy goals and trends in their foreign relations with the Great Powers Among explanatory factors leadership played a significant role in the policy making process although the foreign relations strategies of these revolutionary regimes were fed by a combination of national and international variables In all three states the tone of foreign policy was set by revolutionary leaders who were either idealists or realists Idealists tended to take a more active and conflictual approach toward one or both of the superpowers while Realists were more cautious and less willing to resort to a conflictual posture This book also investigates the gap between the theoretical and practical nonalignment stance of each state This cross regional study provides policy analysts with clues about the foreign policies of other revolutionary developing countries in similar situations Finally it makes suggestions about how a Great Power may relate to a developing country during its first post revolution decade
