Seeing And Consciousness Women Class And Representation:

Seeing and Consciousness Gen Doy,1995-04-06 Through its provocative examination of feminist and Marxist approaches to women's art and female representations this book challenges the widespread belief that Marxism has nothing valuable to contribute to women's studies The author argues that from the French Revolution through to the present gender and class have shaped visual imagery She shows how Marxist theory can function to question some of the premises of feminist art histories and to provide a more accurate understanding of the meanings of visual imagery

Art and the Academy in the Nineteenth Century Rafael Cardoso Denis,Colin Trodd,2000 Throughout the nineteenth century academies functioned as the main venues for the teaching promotion and display of art Contemporary scholars have for the most part denigrated academic art calling it formulaic unoriginal and repetitious The contributors to Art and the Academy in the Nineteenth Century challenge this entrenched notion and consider how academies worldwide have represented an important system of artistic preservation and transmission Their essays eschew easy binaries that have reigned in academia for more than half a century and that simply oppose the avant garde to academicism

The Gender of Photography Nicole Hudgins, 2020-09-02 It would be unthinkable now to omit early female pioneers from any survey of photography's history in the Western world Yet for many years the gendered language of American British and French photographic literature made it appear that women's interactions with early photography did not count as significant contributions Using French and English photo journals cartoons art criticism novels and early career guides aimed at women this volume will show why and how early photographic clubs journals exhibitions and studios insisted on masculine values and authority and how Victorian women engaged with photography despite that dominant trend Focusing on the period before 1890 when women were yet to develop the self assurance that would lead to broader recognition of the value of their work this study probes the mechanisms by which exclusion took place and explores how women practiced photography anyway both as amateurs and professionals Challenging the marginalization of women's work in the early history of photography this is essential reading for students and scholars of photography history and gender studies

Women and Visual Culture in Nineteenth-century France, 1800-1852 Gen Doy, 1998 This book examines the relationship of class gender and race to visual culture in early nineteenth century France Drawing extensively on contemporary sources the author looks at the work of women artists women art critics and writers to demonstrate that many of the assumptions about female invisibility and objectification in bourgeois culture and society need serious reconsideration The first half of the nineteenth century was a complex and contradictory period in the formation and contestation of bourgeois ideologies of the feminine Women though at a serious disadvantage became visible as artists critics and patrons and were not merely invisible domesticated or constructed by forces outside their control Women artists such as Angelique Mongez painted heroic neo classical nudes while many named and anonymous women wrote art criticism articulating their views as female spectators Doy also examines notions of appropriate work for women in relation to landscape genre sculpture and the emergence of Realism Of particular interest is the discussion of the representation of black women during this period when Fren Drapery Gen Doy,2001-12-21 Gen Doy investigates the hitherto neglected meanings of drapery and the draped body in visual culture The baroque and the classical are her subjects as are Freud s Gravida Clerambault s writings and photographs of draped figures the fetishistic play between veiling and revealing and the meanings of drapery in recent art from Christo s wrapped Reichstag to the impact of the modern women s movement on fine art practice Yet she also finds and focuses on the draped body now in places like Algeria and Kosovo where drapery s connotations are no longer those of purity and civilized elegance but of barbarism poverty and savage death

The Neoliberal Undead Marc James Léger,2013-05-31 The Neoliberal Undead describes the frightening world of class restoration neoliberal austerity ecological meltdown and neo imperialism a disaster capitalism that breeds mutant ideological justifications for itself and the inevitability of disorder poverty and suffering What role does culture play in this world of markets and how do new contestatory forms enable a leftist solidarity that can move cultural radicalism beyond the postmodern obsession with new subjectivities Rather than become the symptoms of democratic materialism signing up for endless culture wars The Neoliberal Undead argues for a rethinking of radical cultural leftism against the terms of the dominant global situation The relentless reduction of art criticism and art production under capitalist relations requires that the living separate themselves from the abstractions of globalization and reconnect with revolutionary theory

Haraway,2013-05-13 Simians Cyborgs and Women is a powerful collection of ten essays written between 1978 and 1989 Although on the surface simians cyborgs and women may seem an odd threesome Haraway describes their profound link as creatures which have had a great destabilizing place in Western evolutionary technology and biology Throughout this book Haraway analyzes accounts narratives and stories of the creation of nature living organisms and cyborgs At once a social reality and a science fiction the cyborg a hybrid of organism and machine represents transgressed boundaries and intense fusions of the nature culture split By providing an escape from rigid dualisms the cyborg exists in a post gender world and as such holds immense possibilities for modern feminists Haraway s recent book Primate Visions has been called outstanding original and brilliant by leading scholars in the field First published in 1991 Representations of British Emigration,

Colonisation and Settlement Robert D. Grant,2005-11-08 This volume explores the complex relationships between early Nineteenth Century representations of emigration colonization and settlement and the social economic and cultural conditions within which they were produced It stresses the role of writers illustrators and artists in making colonial settler landscapes within the metropolitan imaginary paying particularly close attention to the complex interdependencies between metropolis and colony which have too often been reduced to simplistic binaries of centre and periphery metropolitan core and colonial outpost Focusing on material dealing with Canada the Cape Australia and New Zealand its interdisciplinarity and global reach consequently adds considerably to the field of colonial studies Work, Women and the Labour Market

Jackie West,2022-08-24 Originally published in 1982 Work Women and the Labour Market presents through original articles a coherent overall picture of women s employment in contemporary British capitalism For the first time it brings together concrete studies which show graphically how women s unequal position at work is shaped by the capital labour relation and by women s place as housewives and mothers The book illuminates the differences and similarities in women s and men s experience in the labour market and as members of the working class It is about how and why women come to be in jobs typically regarded as semi or unskilled about the causes of low pay and about women workers consciousness as workers and as women It looks at the role of trade unions in relation to women and to sexual divisions and at how class and gender relations are woven together in the production process The nine closely researched contributions examine the development of women s and men s work in clothing and other manufacturing industries clerical work in local government microelectronics in the office the position of Asian and West Indian women in the labour market women s role in the family and part time work and women s involvement and influence in trade unions
