Beckett, Lacan and the Gaze Llewellyn Brown,2019-04-30 Forming a pair with the voice the gaze is a central structuring element of Samuel Beckett's creation And yet it takes the form of a strangely impersonal visual dimension testifying to the absence of an original exchange of gazes capable of founding personal identity and opening up the world to desire The collapse of conventional reality and the highlighting of seeing devices eyes mirrors windows point to the absence of a unified representation While masks and closed spaces show the visible to be opaque and devoid of any beyond light and darkness spectres manifestations without origin reveal a realm beyond the confines of identity where nothing provides a mediation with the seen or sets it within perspective Finally Beckett's use of the audio visual media deepens his exploration of the irreducibly real part of existence that escapes seeing This study systematically examines these essential aspects of the visual in Beckett's creation The theoretical elaborations of Jacques Lacan in relation with corresponding developments in the history and philosophy of the visual arts offer an indispensable framework to understand the imaginary not as representation but as rooted in the fundamental opacity of existence Sermons... Samuel Clarke,1744
