Philip N. Racine

"Philip Racine has long been a gifted historian. His first pictorial history book was an inspired look at Spartanburg's past. With this new book, which contains more and larger photographs, he has rendered a real service to the community."

Seeing Spartanburg

Here are the images of world-renowned photographers Dorotea Lange and Jack Delano and local professional Alfred T. Willis. Here are Spartanburg's mighty men and influential women, her colorful characters and earnest faces, her children at play and citizens at work. Here are construction projects and demolitions, local triumphs and tragedies, boom years and hard times.

Philip Racine traces Spartanburg's history from its beginnings during the Colonial period, through the growth years of the early nineteenth century and the hard days of war and depression, to the dynamic growth of the present era. Like a good poem, Seeing Spartanburg does not merely tell the city's story; it shows the story.

Philip Racine is the William R. Kenan Jr. Professor of History at Wofford College and the author of numerous books and articles about Southern history.
