Leadership and Listening Donald E. Zimmer, 2011-06-22 Church leaders must fundamentally change the way they view leadership governance and management in their organizations if they are to take seriously the need to listen to God's desires before acting In Leadership and Listening readers will find encouragement and specific suggestions for re-imagining church governance and management Zimmer observes that the contemporary church is rooted in both the kingdom of God and the systems and cultures of government and business Most people who serve in governing and management roles in the church in the United States today have been formed in the corporate world and acculturated to parliamentary process As a result many church governing boards are about business rather than their primary task discerning God's desires for the part of the church they serve Through research with more than one hundred church leaders Zimmer learned that the church and the business community possess many insights and resources that can help boards shift toward a focus on seeking first the desires of God's heart and then responding effectively By drawing on the guidance Zimmer offers a church board can transform itself from a group that manages the day to day affairs of the church to one that makes listening prayer worship reflection and community the first priority

Re-Imagining the Church Robert J. Suderman, 2016-09-30 The church What has it become What was it meant to be Does it pave the way or get in the way Are we suspicious of the institutionalization of church bureaucracy Or thrilled with the relevant impact of its presence Robert J Suderman writes about the church as a practitioner His inspiration emerges out of the crossroads of biblical vision and human sincerity always tempered with frailty Years of ministry never a stranger to complexity only serve to sharpen the vision of possibility His imagination of what can be is never divorced from the realities of what is He does not bow to the common assumption that you can't get there from here Here is the only possible point of origin for us In his succinct easy to understand writing style Suderman provides insightful and thought provoking perspectives to what it means to be the church To be a people called out to participate together in God's activity in the world and to create programs and structures needed for effective ministry are two sides of the same coin This book is for dreamers and bureaucrats alike indeed it assumes that the two are indispensable pieces of God's coming presence Introduction by Tom Yoder Neufeld
