Memoirs of Mrs. Siddons James Boaden,1893 Memoirs of John Abernethy ... George Macilwain,1856 Seldom Disappointed Tony Hillerman,2013-05-21 When Tony Hillerman looks back at seventy six years spent getting from hardtimes farm boy to bestselling author he sees lots of evidence that Providence was poking him along For example when an absentminded Army clerk left him off the hospital ship taking the wounded home from France the mishap put him on a collision course with a curing ceremony held for two Navajo Marines thereby providing the grist for a writing career that now sees his books published in sixteen languages around the world and often on bestseller lists Or for example when his agent told him his first novel was so bad that it would hurt both of their reputations he nonetheless sent it to an editor and that editor happened to like the Navajo stuff In this wry and whimsical memoir Hillerman offers frequent backward glances at where he found ideas for plots of his books and the characters that inhabit them He takes us with him to death row where he interviews a man about to die in the gas chamber and details how this murderer became Colton Wolf in one of his novels He relates how flushing a solitary heron from a sandbar caused him to convert Joe Leaphorn from husband to widower and how his self confessed bias against the social elite solved the key plot problem in A Thief of Time No child abuse stories here The worst Hillerman can recall is being sent off to first grade in a boarding school for Indian girls clad in cute blue coveralls instead of the manly overalls his farm boy peers all wore Instead we get a good natured trip through hard times in college an infantry career in which he rose twice to Private First Class and also won a Silver Star Bronze Star and Purple Heart and afterward work as a truck driver chain dragger journalist professor and doer of undignified deeds for two university presidents All this is colored by a love affair now in its fifty fourth year with Marie which involved raising six children most of them adopted Using the gifts of a talented novelist and reporter seventy six year old Tony Hillerman draws a brilliant portrait not just of his life but of the world around him Memoirs of the late Thom. Reproduction of the original The Memoirs of Louis XIV and the Regency by Duchesse Elizabeth Charlotte d Orleans The Consolidator: Memoirs of Sundry Transactions from the World in the Moon Daniel Defoe, 2022-11-13 Daniel Defoe's The Consolidator Memoirs of Sundry Transactions from the World in the Moon is an early example of science fiction that blends satire with a critique of contemporary society. Through the narrative of an imaginative journey to the moon, Defoe explores themes of exploration, politics, and the human condition, employing a prose style marked by wit and a keen sense of social observation. The work reflects the literary context of the early 18th century, where satire was a prevalent genre enabling Defoe to comment on the philosophical and scientific inquiries of his time while also engaging with the burgeoning interest in astronomy and the fantastical possibilities it presented. Defoe, an astute observer of human nature and a versatile writer, drew from his diverse experiences in trade, politics, and journalism. His previous works often examined moral and social dilemmas, leading him to craft this fanciful tale as a commentary on the absurdities of social hierarchies and the quest for knowledge. Defoe's adeptness at weaving intricate plots with moral undertones enabled him to offer both entertainment and profound reflections in this work. This book deserves a place on the shelf of every reader intrigued by the interplay of fiction and social critique. It invites contemplation on the limits of human ambition and the nature of societal structures, rendering it a compelling read for those who appreciate the intricacies of human experience and the potential of speculative literature.
