Illustrating South African History, 1795-1910. Selected and Edited with an Introduction by G.W. Eybers George von Welfling EYBERS,1918 Select Constitutional Documents Illustrating South African History 1795-1910

Eybers,1918 The Shaping of South African Society, 1652-1840. Richard Elphick,Hermann Giliomee,2014-01-15 History is a powerful aid to the understanding of the present and those who are concerned with the escalating crisis in South Africa will find this an invaluable source book This is the story of the evolution of a society in which race became the dominant characteristic the primary determinant of status wealth and power Cultural chauvinism of the first European colonists primarily the Dutch merged with economic and demographic developments to create a society in which whites relegated all blacks free blacks Africans imported slaves to a systematic pattern of subordination and oppression that foreshadowed the apartheid of the twentieth century From the beginning of the nineteenth century the new empire builders the British reinforced the racial order In the next century and a half the industrialized South Africa would become firmly integrated into the world economy Published originally in South Africa in 1979 and updated and expanded now a decade later this book by twelve South African British Canadian Dutch and American scholars is the most comprehensive history of the early years of that troubled nation The authors put South Africa in the comparative context of other colonial systems Their social political and economic history is rich with empirical data and rests on a solid base of archival research The story they tell is a complex drama of a racial structure that has resisted hostile impulses from without and rebellion from within Select Constitutional Documents Illustrating South African History, 1795-1910 - Primary Source Edition George Welfling Von Eybers, 2013-11-01
