The Art of Interruption John Roberts, 1998 This is the first monograph length study that charts the coercive diplomacy of the administrations of Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford as practised against their British ally in order to persuade Edward Heath's government to follow a more amenable course throughout the Year of Europe and to convince Harold Wilson's governments to lessen the severity of proposed defence cuts Such diplomacy proved effective against Heath but rather less so against Wilson It is argued that relations between the two sides were often strained indeed to the extent that the most special elements of the relationship that of intelligence and nuclear co operation were suspended Yet the relationship also witnessed considerable co operation This book offers new perspectives on US and UK policy towards British membership of the European Economic Community demonstrates how US détente policies created strain in the special relationship reveals the temporary shutdown of US UK intelligence and nuclear co operation provides new insights in US UK defence co operation and re evaluates the US UK relationship throughout the IMF Crisis

Dialectical Passions Gail Day, 2010-12-22 Representing a new generation of theorists reaffirming the radical dimensions of art Gail Day launches a bold critique of late twentieth century art theory and its often reductive analysis of cultural objects Exploring core debates in discourses on art from the New Left to theories of critical postmodernism and beyond Day counters the belief that recent tendencies in art fail to be adequately critical She also challenges the political inertia that results from these conclusions Day organizes her defense around critics who have engaged substantively with emancipatory thought and social process T J Clark Manfredo Tafuri Fredric Jameson Benjamin H D Buchloh and Hal Foster among others She maps the tension between radical dialectics and left nihilism and assesses the interpretation and internalization of negation in art theory Chapters confront the claim that exchange and equivalence have subsumed the use value of cultural objects and with it critical distance and interrogate the proposition of completed nihilism and the metropolis put forward in the politics of Italian operaismo Day covers the debates on symbol and allegory waged within the context of 1980s art and their relation to the writings of Walter Benjamin and Paul de Man She also examines common conceptions of mediation totality negation and the politics of anticipation A necessary unsettling of received wisdoms Dialectical Passions recasts emancipatory reflection in aesthetics art and architecture

The Cultural Devolution Neil Mulholland, 2017-10-23 Title first published in 2003 What happened to art in Britain when the balance began to shift from public to private subsidy following the IMF crisis in 1976 In this polemical book Neil Mulholland charts the political and cultural shifts in art in Britain from the mid 1970s to the end of the twentieth century His account covers the key trends and artists of this extraordinarily diverse period including critical postmodernism feminism neoconservatism object sculpture the new image Brit Art and Scottish neoconceptualism and traces the development of critical thinking from the opinions of critics such as Richard Cork John Roberts and Matthew Collings to tabloid press art scandals The Cultural Devolution offers a broad critical and historical framework within which to understand public debate on the merits of young British artists such as Damien Hirst while looking beyond such celebrities to re discover the wealth and range of work produced Essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary art in Britain      A Concise

Companion to Realism Matthew Beaumont,2010-04-26 A Concise Companion to Realism offers an accessible introduction to realism as it has evolved since the 19th century Though focused on literature and literary theory the significance of technology and the visual arts is also addressed Comprises 17 newly commissioned essays written by a distinguished group of contributors including Slavoj Zizek Frederic Jameson and Terry Eagleton Provides the historical cultural intellectual and literary contexts necessary to understand developments in realism Addresses the artistic mediums and technologies such as painting and film that have helped shape the way we perceive reality Explores literary and pictorial sub genres such as naturalism and socialist realism Includes a brief bibliography and suggestions for further reading at the end of each section

"Artwriting, Nation, and Cosmopolitanism in Britain " MarkA. Cheetham,2017-07-05 Arguing in favour of renewed critical attention to the nation as a category in art history this study examines the intertwining of art theory national identity and art production in Britain from the early eighteenth century to the present day The book provides the first sustained account of artwriting in the British context over the full extent of its development and includes new analyses of such central figures as Hogarth Reynolds Gilpin Ruskin Roger Fry Herbert Read Art Language Peter Fuller and Rasheed Araeen Mark A Cheetham also explores how the Englishing of art theory which came about despite the longstanding occlusion of the intellectual and theoretical in British culture did not take place or have effects exclusively in Britain Theory has always travelled with art and vice versa Using the frequently resurgent discourse of cosmopolitanism as a frame for his discourse Cheetham asks whether English traditions of artwriting have been judged inappropriately according to imported criteria of what theory is and does This book demonstrates that artwriting in the English tradition has not been sufficiently studied and that English Art Theory is not an oxymoron Such concerns resonate today beyond academe and the art world in the many heated discussions of resurgent Englishness      Sloppy Craft Elaine Cheasley Paterson,Susan Surette,2015-09-24

Sloppy Craft Postdisciplinarity and the Crafts brings together leading international artists and critics to explore the possibilities and limitations of the idea of sloppy craft craft that is messy or unfinished looking in its execution or appearance or both The contributors address sloppiness in contemporary art and craft practices including painting weaving sewing and ceramics consider the importance of traditional concepts of skill and the implications of sloppiness for a new 21st century emphasis on inter and postdisciplinarity as well as for activist performance queer and Aboriginal practices In addition to critical essays the book includes a conversation section in which contemporary artists and practitioners discuss challenges and opportunities of sloppy craft in their practice and teaching and an afterword by Glenn Adamson      Cultural Studies
