Sg Sociology:

Singapore Studies Beng Huat Chua, Basant Kapur, 1986 This edition brings up to date a decade of research work developments of the Faculty of Arts and Social Science National University of Singapore since the first volume was published in 1985 The state of the respective disciplines covered are reviewed in terms of notable theoretical and conceptual developments major benchmarks during the past decade and research lacunae that need to be addressed as well as their substantive developments and contributions in the Singapore context and possible future directions resulting in a collection of essays that places the Faculty's studies in an international comparative framework The Oxford Handbook of Digital Technology and Society Simeon Yates, Ronald E. Rice, 2020 The Oxford Handbook of Digital Technology and Society will equip readers with the necessary starting points and provocations in the fields of social science and technology so that students scholars and policy makers can effectively assess future research practice and policy Managing Diversity In Singapore: Policies And Prospects Mathews Mathew, Wai Fong Chiang, 2016-05-11 Singapore society is increasingly becoming diverse During the first few decades of nation building policies were designed to homogenise aspects of Singaporean society while enshrining principles to allow restricted amounts of diversity Fast forward to the present and fifty years after independence the number of areas where diversity is profoundly apparent remains copious and its manifestations more varied This book provides an updated account on the tensions posed by diversity in Singapore and how this is being managed primarily by the state through policies and programmes but also by communities who attempt to negotiate these tensions Such an enquiry is crucial especially at this juncture when the nation is finding ways to embrace the different forms of diversity brought about through external impetuses as well as manage internal reactions from the various communities The book chapters highlight important considerations if Singapore's diversity management strategies will hold promise for the future Governing Global-City Singapore Kenneth Paul Tan, 2016-12-19 This book provides a detailed analysis of how governance in Singapore has evolved since independence to become what it is today and what its prospects might be in a post Lee Kuan Yew future Firstly it discusses the question of political leadership electoral dominance and legislative monopoly in Singapore's one party dominant system and the system's durability Secondly it tracks developments in Singapore's public administration critically analysing the formation and transformation of meritocracy and pragmatism two key components of the state ideology Thirdly it discusses developments within civil society focusing in particular on issues related to patriarchy and feminism hetero normativity and gay activism immigration and migrant worker exploitation and the contest over history and national narratives in academia the media and the arts Fourthly it discusses the PAP government's efforts to connect with the public including its national public engagement exercises that can be interpreted as a subtler approach to social and political control In increasingly complex conditions the state struggles to maintain its hegemony while securing a pre eminent position in the global economic order Tan demonstrates how trends in these four areas converge in ways that signal plausible futures for a post LKY Singapore Reframing Singapore Derek Thiam Soon Heng, Syed Muhd. Khairudin Aljunied, 2009 Over the past two decades Singapore has advanced rapidly towards becoming a both a global city state and a key nodal point in the international economic sphere These developments have caused us to reassess how we understand this changing nation including its history population and geography as well as its transregional and transnational experiences with the external world This collection spans several disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and draws on various theoretical approaches and methodologies in order to produce a more refined understanding of Singapore and to reconceptualize the challenges faced by the country and its peoples Migration and Marriage in Asian Contexts Zheng Mu, Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, 2021-11-29 This book analyses how Asian migrants adapt and assimilate into their host societies and how this assimilation differs across their sociodemographic backgrounds ethnic profiles and political contexts The diversities in Asian migrants assimilation trajectories challenge the assumption that given time migrants will eventually integrate holistically into their host societies This book captures the diverse patterns and trajectories of assimilation by going beyond marriage migration to look at how family formation processes are shaped by migration driven by reasons other than marriage Using quantitative qualitative and mixed method analyses not only does this book uncover the nuances of the link between marriage and migration but it also widens methodological repertoires in research on marriage and migration It also captures various social outcomes that may have been influenced by migration including migrants economic well being cultural assimilation subjective well being and gender inequality vis vis marriages This book further embeds the studies in the Asian contexts by drawing on individual countries unique policies relevant to cross cultural marriages the persistent impacts of extended families the patriarchal traditions and systems of religion and caste The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies Language and Society in Singapore Evangelos A. Afendras, Eddie C. Y. Kuo, 1980 The Contemporary Family in Singapore Eddie C. Y. Kuo, Aline K. Wong, 1979 Twelve essays on the sociology of the family in Singapore in the modern period The Making of Singapore Sociology Tong Chee-Kiong, Lian Kwen-Fee, 2021-11-08 This book presents a collection of essays of how the city state of Singapore's societal dynamics have evolved from the time of its birth as a nation in 1965 to the present Key areas of Singapore society are explored contributing to the understanding of the social organisation of the city This study reveals a shift from the modernisation studies in the 1970s to a more political economic turn as a consequence of the influence of dependency and world systems theories Topics covered include urban studies family education medical care class and social stratification work language ethnic groups religion and crime and deviance Tamils, Social Capital and Educational Marginalization in Singapore Lavanya Balachandran, 2021-07-29 Labouring to Learn examines academic mobility pathways among ethnic minority Tamil youths in public secondary schools and vocational institutions in Singapore This book qualitatively examines the interactive effects of race and class on the educational performance of these youths through the lens of social capital

Despite their numerical majoritarian position within the Indian population in Singapore the foreclosed access for Tamils to diverse class networks within the ethnic community as well as limited inter ethnic interactions has historically truncated the means to resources and opportunities for social mobility In schools the narratives shared by Tamil boys and girls from the lower academic streams and economically disadvantaged backgrounds reveal that they typically experience exclusion on account of racial economic and academic marginalisation in their everyday lives Turning to bonding ties among peers and family members provides social support resources that offer some respite from marginalisation On the flipside articulations of resistance ensue among Tamil youths that tangibly take time away from learning and run the danger of strengthening the cultural deficit rhetoric for mainstream society to explain the poor academic performance among ethnic minorities This account of educational marginalisation amongst Singaporean Tamil youths contributes towards understanding social inequality in a non liberal multicultural context where marginalisation is differentially experienced across ethnic minority groups and traced to broader socio historical contexts of migration assimilation and minority majority relations Furthermore it also articulates the utility of a social capital framework in historically revealing how educational inequality emerged and continues to be sustained in a postcolonial context

Handbook of Sports Studies Jay Coakley, Eric Dunning, 2000 An authoritative cast of international and inter disciplinary contributors present the best of current thinking in sports studies as the subject matures and develops academically

Social Capital in Singapore Vincent Chua, Gillian Koh, Ern Ser Tan, Drew Shih, 2020-12-27 How can social cohesion be achieved in a meritocratic and multicultural global city state Meritocracy poses a paradox On one hand it integrates individuals through frameworks of equal treatment equal justice and opportunity regardless of race language or religion On the other hand individuals are then segregating through academic sorting they are rewarded based on credentials and performance which also results in elite identification and bonding After a generation without mitigation action social stratification can result Distinctive circles differentiating social elites from non elites the professional classes from non professional classes emerge The remedy the authors propose is network diversity which is the organic forming of ties across class and other social boundaries built on deliberate policies programmes and platforms designed to facilitate that This social mixing forged in social infrastructure such as schools workplaces and voluntary associations pays off by producing the collective goods of national identity and trust This hypothesis has been tested in the case of Singapore society and the empirical results from the research on the power of network diversity and bridging social capital are found in this volume An insightful read for scholars and practitioners in public policy and social network analysis looking to understand the challenges faced by and the experiences that have emerged from the case of Singapore with its multicultural and cosmopolitan setting

Different Under God Terence Chong, Yew-Foong Hui, 2013 Different under God is the first substantial comprehensive and scientific analysis of Christianity in Singapore covering religious social and political attitudes This survey by Terence Chong and Hui Yew Foong will be enthusiastically welcomed by today's sociologists and historians in the future An important and timely contribution to the sociology of religion and to the study of Singapore Bryan S Turner Presidential Professor of Sociology the Graduate Centre the City University of New York USA This is a landmark study of Christianity in Singapore that is sorely needed today not only to confirm many scholarly guesses but also to dispel public stereotypes of Christians as homogeneously sheep like or militant Scholars and Singaporeans beware Terence and Yew Foong have started a fire that will enliven public discourse on religion and society for years to come Daniel P S Goh Assistant Professor of Sociology National University of Singapore Analysing individual and discussion group responses from churchgoers in both mainline denominations and independent churches this study grapples with a number of highly relevant even sensitive issues in contemporary Christianity issues of moral values and attitudes including those on sexuality and sexual orientation money and giving organizational belonging governance and others While some of the findings and conclusions may reinforce broad perceptions of Christianity and churches in Singapore others were quite eye opening Also useful for researchers the study contains important data on respondents socio economic backgrounds All in all it is a most welcome scholarly contribution and I expect that it will be a well cited resource for future scholarship Robbie B H Goh Professor of English Literature National University of Singapore Knowledge, Control and Critical Thinking in Singapore Leonel Lim, 2015-09-07 This book examines how critical thinking is regulated in Singapore through the process of what the influential sociologist of education Basil Bernstein termed pedagogic recontextualization The ability of critical thinking to speak to alternative possibilities and individual autonomy as well as its assumptions of a liberal arrangement of society is problematized in Singapore's socio political climate By examining how such curricular discourses are taken up and enacted in the classrooms of two schools that cater to very different groups in society the book foregrounds the role of traditional high status knowledge in the elaboration of class formation and develops a critical understanding of post developmental state initiatives linked to the parable of modernization in Singapore Knowledge Control and Critical Thinking in Singapore offers chapters on Critical Thinking and the Singapore State Meritocracy Illiberalism and Neoliberalism Sacred Knowledge and Elite Dispositions Recontextualizing Critical Thinking in an Elite School Power Knowledge and Symbolic Control Official Pedagogic Identities and the Politics of Recontextualization This book will appeal to scholars in comparative education studies curriculum studies and education reform It will also interest scholars engaged in Asian studies who are struggling to understand issues of education policy formation and implementation particularly in the areas of critical thinking and other knowledge skills Discourses of Globalisation, Ideology, and Human Rights Joseph Zajda, Yvonne Vissing, 2022-03-11 This book examines dominant discourses in human rights education globally Using diverse paradigms ranging from critical theory to discourse analysis the book examines major human rights education reforms and policy issues in a global culture with a focus on the ambivalent and problematic relationship between human rights education discourses ideology and the state The book discusses democracy ideology and human rights which are among the most critical and significant factors defining and contextualising the processes surrounding human rights education globally The book critiques current human rights education practices and policy reforms illustrating the shifts in the relationship between the state ideology and human rights education policy Written by authors from diverse backgrounds and regions the book examines current developments in research concerning human rights education The book enables readers to gain a more holistic understanding of the nexus between human rights education and dominant ideologies both locally and globally It also provides an easily accessible practical yet scholarly insights into international concerns in the field of human rights education in the context of global culture

Charting an Asian Trajectory for Literacy Education Su Li Chong, 2021-03-15

Weaving outwards from a centripetal force of biographical stances this book presents the collective perspectives of literacy researchers from Brunei China Hong Kong Malaysia Singapore the Philippines and Taiwan It represents the first all Asian initiative to showcase the region's post colonial multilingual and multicultural narratives of literacy education This book provides a much needed platform that initiates important conversations about literacy as a sociocultural practice in a region that is both challenged and shaped by sociocultural influence unique to Asia's historical and geopolitical trajectory Driven by the authors lived experiences of becoming literate as well as their empirical research work in later years each chapter brings decades of biographical narratives and collective empirical research findings to bear Within the book are negotiations about literacy across and within home and school contexts transactions of literature text and reader and considerations of the literacy policy practice nexus These trajectories while divergent in their issues come together as shared lived experience located in local contexts considered through global perspectives As Asia looks set to become the 21st century's new economic and labour force the need to understand the sociocultural milieu of this region cannot be understated This book on literacy education in Asia contributes to the larger narrative

Interethnic Marriage in Singapore Riaz Hassan, Examines an important aspect of inter ethnic relations namely inter ethnic marriage in Singapore one of Southeast Asia's most ethnically heterogeneous societies With chapters on the sociological significance sociological factors and types of such marriage traditional sociocultural organization and ethnic marrying out rates and an assessment of findings and research possibilities

Rationalizing Religion Chee Kiong Tong, 2007 Disputing the secularization hypothesis this book examines the relationship between religion and modernity detailing and explaining religious conversion revivalism and religious competition in Singapore There is intellectualization of religion a shift from unthinking acceptance to rationalized religions

The Qualitative-Quantitative Distinction in the Social Sciences B. Glassner, J.D. Moreno, 2013-11-27 Without of course adopting a Platonic metaphysics the eighteenth century philosophes were Grecophiles who regarded the Athenian philosophers as their intellectual forbearers and mentors So powerful was their identification with classification that ancient ideas were taken as keys to the design of the modern world but usually the ideas were taken separately and as divided from their systematic context The power of number was an idea the Enlightenment thinkers deployed with their legendary passion and vigor particularly as an instrument for social reconstruction It is no exaggeration to say that the role of quantities in contemporary social scientific theorizing cannot be understood with any depth absent a recollection of the philosophes axial development of the notion of quantification It is a commonplace that for the philosophes progress required releasing human abilities to have power over nature Aprerequisite for this power was knowledge of the underlying causes of natural events knowledge that required quantitative precision Enlightenment thinkers were sufficiently aware of themselves as products of their time to appreciate the importance of a liberal social environment to the knowledge enterprise the supposition that the reverse is also the case that enhanced knowledge could advance social conditions came easily

Enjoying the Tune of Phrase: An Psychological Symphony within Sg Sociology

In some sort of eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of quick transmission, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony developed by the written term usually diminish into the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, nestled within the pages of Sg Sociology a marvelous literary prize full of fresh emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an outstanding musician of language, this fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound affect resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this moving evaluation, we will investigate the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
