Another girl in an orange shirt and yellow shorts is also standing next to her. A third girl in a yellow dress is sitting on the rock. Young Women, Girls and Postfeminism in Contemporary British Film Sarah Hill, 2020-09-17 In the 21st century films about the lives and experiences of girls and young women have become increasingly visible Yet British cinema's engagement with contemporary girlhood has unlike its Hollywood counterpart been largely ignored until now Sarah Hill's Young Women Girls and Postfeminism in Contemporary British Film provides the first book length study of how young femininity has been constructed both in films like the St Trinians franchise and by critically acclaimed directors like Andrea Arnold. Carol Morley and Lone Scherfig Hill offers new ways to understand how postfeminism informs British cinema and how it is adapted to fit its specific geographical context. By interrogating UK cinema through this lens Hill paints a diverse and distinctive portrait of modern femininity and consolidates the important academic links between film feminist media and girlhood studies.

Race-ing Fargo Jennifer Erickson, 2020-10-15 Tracing the history of refugee settlement in Fargo North Dakota from the 1980s to the present day Race ing Fargo focuses on the role that gender religion and sociality play in everyday interactions between refugees from South Sudan and Bosnia Herzegovina and the dominant white Euro American population of the city. Jennifer Erickson outlines the ways in which refugees have impacted this small city over the last thirty years showing how culture political economy and institutional transformations collectively contribute to the racialization of white cities like Fargo in ways that complicate their demographics. Race ing Fargo shows that race religion and decorum prove to be powerful forces determining worthiness and belonging in the city and draws attention to the different roles that state and private sectors played in shaping ideas about race and citizenship on a local level. Through the comparative study of white secular Muslim Bosnians and Black Christian Southern Sudanese Race ing Fargo demonstrates how cross cultural and transnational understandings of race ethnicity class and religion shape daily citizenship practices and belonging.

making and fighting of wars women are often nowhere to be seen With few exceptions war stories are told as if men were the only ones who plan fight are injured by and negotiate ends to wars As the pages of this book tell though those accounts are far from complete Women can be found at every turn in the gendered phenomena of war Women have participated in the making fighting and concluding of wars throughout history and their participation is only increasing at the turn of the 21st century Women experience war in multiple ways as soldiers as fighters as civilians as caregivers as sex workers as sexual slaves refugees and internally displaced persons as anti war activists as community peace builders and more This book at once provides a glimpse into where women are in war and gives readers the tools to understand women's told and untold war experiences in the greater context of the gendered nature of global social and political life Truth or Dare Jacqueline
