Lost And Found Catholics Voices Of Vatican II:

Lost & Found Catholics Christopher M. Bellitto, 1999 Hear the stories of a generation coming to terms with their own experience of Church Christopher Bellitto himself a member of this generation has listened to these prodigal sons and daughters These voices offer poignant and articulate perceptions of the confusion that followed the wake of Vatican II In Lost and Found Catholics those reaching back to the Church or trying to find a comfortable spot to call home will hear echoes of their own stories and perhaps find the catalyst for coming to terms with their own experience of Church Those who minister to returning Catholics will understand more deeply the concerns of these lost and found Catholics Views from the Pew, Pulpit and Women Religious Koncel, 2010-07-27 In his very personal account Ed Koncel a well read and thoughtful Catholic shares his recollections of the church past his frustrations with the church present and his hopes for Catholicism s more vibrant future Robert McClory author of As It Was in the Beginning Ed Koncel writes from the perspective of a faithful son of the Church faithful over the course of his long life He writes with both passion and compassion in regard to the people and the proceedings of the Second Vatican Council and the developments since the Council Obviously well read and actively involved in various groups working to make real the words and spirit of the documents of the Vatican II he speaks with the authority of knowledge and personal experience and integrity I believe he also speaks as one whose love of the Church motivates him to keep working for its coming to accept the full participation of all in the liturgical and governmental life of its people Mr Koncel strikes me as a man of hope an extraordinary virtue in our time Denise Wilkinson SP General Superior of the Sisters of Providence Faith Formation 4.0 Julie Anne Lytle, 2013-02-01 Using an ecological approach to study how emerging technologies impact individual and communal formation Faith Formation 4.0 looks at how our efforts to be story keepers story sharers and story makers have evolved over four eras of human communication Framed by the Great Commission imperative to make disciples this book offers a road map to help leaders develop goals to form inform and transform new members as well as long time believers within a faith community The author successfully illustrates that church success depends not only on knowing the Christian message of God s enduring love but also how to use today s tools appropriately for evangelization and faith formation American Catholic Studies, 2005 New Generations of Catholic Sisters Mary Johnson S.N.D. de N., Patricia Wittberg S.C., Mary L. Gautier, 2014-04-01 This book offers a comprehensive examination of the generations of women who entered religious life in the United States after 1965 It provides up to date demographics for women s religious institutes a summary of canon law locating religious life within the various forms of life in the Church an analysis of Church documents on religious life and data on the views of post Vatican II entrants regarding ministry identity prayer spirituality the vows and community Beginning each chapter with an engaging narrative the authors explore how different generations of Catholic women first became attracted to vowed religious life and what kinds of religious institutes they were seeking By analyzing the results of extensive national surveys the authors systematically examine how the new generations of Sisters differ from previous ones and what those changes suggest about the future The book concludes with recommendations for further understanding of generations within religious life and within the Church and society Because of its breadth and depth this book will be regarded by scholars the media and practitioners as an essential resource for the sociological study of religious life for women in the United States A Church Without Borders Jeffrey Thomas VanderWilt,1998 What kind of Church arises from the Lord s table Doctrine customs culture and history divide the Churches Christians do not share a common table Can a divided and injured Church celebrate the Eucharist the sacrament of Christian communion These are a few of the questions addressed in this study of the ecclesiology of communion The borderless Church of the infinite love of Christ exists today The divided Churches need only receive the communion of God as their innermost nature at the borderless table of God s kingdom BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Catholic Social Thought Jonathan Boswell,Francis P. Catholicism for the Twenty-First Century?--Volume 1 William F. Murphy, 2024-09-12 This first of two volumes introduces the tradition of social Catholicism not only in its earlier realizations but regarding how a contemporary renewal might address the crisis in which constitutional democracies and the postwar liberal order are under assault by populist and even neo fascist movements that could soon usher in a frighteningly dark future unless a broad movement in defense of constitutional democracy quickly arises In this context some of the most influential voices among American Catholics are focused on criticizing liberal democracy on advocating a postliberal order and the establishment of a Catholic integralist state or on insisting that abortion should be the primary sociopolitical concern for Catholics treating these threats to democracy as largely irrelevant This volume shows the rich tradition of social Catholicism and how the Social Doctrine of the Church came to appreciate the key tenets of constitutional democracy As Pope Benedict XVI wrote this social doctrine leads us to take a stand for the common good to take the institutional or political path of charity to be solicitous for the institutions that give structure to the life of society juridically civilly politically and culturally It engages some of the most influential contemporary Catholic thinkers and argues that they too should recognize the grave threats facing the human family and join in working to defend and renew our constitutional democracy Catholicism Engaging Other Faiths Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard

Mannion, Jason Welle, O.F.M., 2018-12-08 This book assesses how Vatican II opened up the Catholic Church to encounter dialogue and engagement with other world religions Opening with a contribution from the President of the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue Cardinal Jean Louis Tauran it next explores the impact relevance and promise of the Declaration Nostra Aetate before turning to consider how Vatican II in general has influenced interfaith dialogue and the intellectual and comparative study of world religions in the postconciliar decades as well as the contribution of particular past and present thinkers to the formation of current interreligious and comparative theological methods Additionally chapters consider interreligious dialogue vis vis theological anthropology in conciliar documents openness to the spiritual practices of other faith traditions as a way of encouraging positive interreligious encounter the role of lay and new ecclesial movements in interreligious dialogue and the development of Monastic Interreligious Dialogue Finally it includes a range of perspectives on the fruits and future of Vatican s II s opening to particular faiths such as Judaism Islam Hinduism and Buddhism Look to the Rock Michael Walsh, 2018-03-29 This history celebrates the Catholic League an ecumenical society founded in 1913 to

Lost for Words? Goetz Frank Ottmann, 2010-10-06 Lost for Words explores the rise and decline of progressive Catholic grassroots activism and its drive for social justice and democratic change in four low income neighborhoods in S o Paulo Brazil Ottmann focuses on the obstacles faced by the poor who took seriously the claim that the people were to transform Brazilian society from the bottom up He follows their travails through periods of democratization mass unemployment and conservative backlash within the Church Goetz Frank Ottmann moves beyond purely political analysis to record how residents and progressive Catholic activists were drawn into a struggle for a juster society and how this movement began to unravel even before it reached its peak in the early 1980s Based on in depth interviews and participant observation and drawing on theoretical insights from recent debates on social movements and the sociology of religion he examines how by the early 1990s the liberationist movement had lost its following lost its allies failed to achieve its core goals and seemed to die Ottmann then shows how in recent years activists have worked to create a new and pragmatic form of religious activism one that draws on a range of agendas including Catholic feminism
