Boxing's Greatest Fighters Bert Randolph Sugar, 2006-01-01 Easily the most enduring of all sports questions is Who was is the best Perhaps in no sport is the question more asked and argued over than in boxing And in boxing perhaps none is more qualified to answer the question than Bert Randolph Sugar In Boxing's Greatest Fighters not only does the former publisher of Ring Magazine tell us who the best fighters were he lists them in order Could Sugar Ray Robinson have beaten Muhammad Ali Could Sugar

Ray Leonard have beaten Sonny Liston The answer most experts agree would be no But what if as Bert Sugar has done here one were to take all the boxers and reduce them in the mind s eye to the same height the same weight and the same ring conditions The answers would be quite different And while some fans may express outrage that Rocky Marciano barely makes the top twenty and Marvin Hagler staggers into the top seventy five others will nod eagerly when they read that Harry Greb and Benny Leonard were better than just about anybody So whether you read Boxing s Greatest Fighters cover to cover pick your favorites at random or simply browse through the many rare photographs at the bell come out arguing still this isn't his typical type of case. He's used to bad guys who fight dirty and hard. He's not prepared for her. A gorgeous princess with dark eyes, lush lips, and a deceptive delicacy that makes him want to take on the world in order to protect her.

Step two: Stay close to the client. Intimately close. Seemingly overnight, Juliet Laurent went from being a nobody to being the lost princess who now has her face splashed across social media. The new fame comes with danger because someone seems intent on making sure that Juliet never gets to wear her promised crown. She's scared and desperate, and Juliet doesn't know who to trust in this crazy royal life. Enter the new bodyguard: Big, buff, and dangerous. A man who isn't scared of anything. Just the man she needs. A man she desperately wants. Constantine promises to protect her from every threat. His job is to stand between her and danger. With him, Juliet feels safe. And with him, Juliet also feels the stirring of a fierce desire that catches her by surprise. How can she want a stranger so much so desperately? But when the threats continue and Constantine shields her again and again, her feelings for him just grow stronger. Forced into close proximity, the attraction rages past her control, and his.

Step three: Protect the princess. Don't fall for her. Constantine knows a guy like him won't ever get a happy ending, but he will do whatever it takes to make sure that Juliet stays safe. Because Juliet doesn't need a Prince Charming. She needs a bodyguard who will eliminate every threat and who will destroy anyone who tries to hurt her. In other words, this princess needs the big bad wolf. Luckily, Constantine has always excelled at being bad. Ready for a fun, hot romance with a touch of danger?
