Engineering Chemistry, 1924 Europe in Search of Political Order Johan P. Olsen, 2007-02-01 This book deals with ongoing processes of European cooperation and integration processes that may have a potential to change the political organization of Europe Based on ideas from the new institutionalism the book offers a systematic perspective on institutional change and in particular the role of institutions in relation to four central and durable issues in the study of political life These are 1 the mediation between unity and diversity what ties a society together and what keeps it apart 2 The relations between citizens and their helpers why the democratic deficit in the European Union can not be eliminated solely by making mechanisms of direct citizens participation and representation more efficient Needed are also institutions that make direct participation redundant because they routinely work with integrity generating expected and desired outcomes 3 The relation between democratic design and historical drift To what degree democracies are able to design and reform key institutions of governance so that their structures reflect popular will understanding and control 4 The co existence of old and new political orders How elements of a new order may supplement rather than replace elements of the old order generating a mixed order based on partly inconsistent principles and rules The Southern literary messenger, 1850 Old Norse Religion in Long-Term Perspectives Anders Andrén, Kristina Jennbert, 2006-01-12 Consisting of more than 70 papers written by scholars concerned with pre Christian Norse religion the articles discuss subjects such as archaeology art history historical archaeology history history of ideas theological history literature onomastics Scandinavian languages and Scandinavian studies The interdisciplinary aim of the book brings together text based and material based researchers to improve scholarly exchange and dialogue and provide a variety of contributions that elucidate topics such as worldview and cosmology ritual and religious practice myth and memory as well as reception and present day use of old Norse religion Animalities Michael Lundblad, 2017-05-24 New and cutting edge work in animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism Representations of animality continue to proliferate in various kinds of literary and cultural texts This pioneering volume explores the critical interface between animal and animality studies marking out the terrain in relation to twentieth century literature and film The range of texts considered here is intentionally broad answering questions like how do contemporary writers such as Amitav Ghosh Terry Tempest Williams and Indra Sinha help us to think about not only animals but also humans as animals What kinds of creatures are being constructed by contemporary artists such as Patricia Piccinini Alexis Rockman and Michael Pestel How do animalities animate such diverse texts as the poetry of two women publishing under the name of a Michael Field or an early film by Thomas Edison depicting the electrocution of a circus elephant named Topsy Connecting these issues to fields as diverse as environmental studies and ecocriticism queer theory gender studies feminist theory illness and disability studies postcolonial theory and biopolitics the volume also raises further questions about disciplinarity itself while hoping to inspire further work beyond the human in future interdisciplinary scholarship Key Features 10 provocative case studies focused on representations and discourses of animals and animality in twentieth and twenty first century literature art and film in EnglishNew work from both internationally renowned and emerging figures in the burgeoning fields of animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism suggesting innovative and significant new directions to exploreBroad introduction to the kinds of questions scholars in the humanities have considered in relation to animals and animality Southern Literary Messenger ,1850
