The Merchant Marine in International Affairs, 1850-1950 Greg Kennedy, 2014-07-10 Merchant navies represent economic and industrial strength This study revises the definition of maritime power through a more comprehensive understanding and appreciation for the roles played by the merchant marine of a nation The Merchant Marine in International Affairs, 1850-1950 S W Field, K G Swift, 2014-02-25 Providing an understanding of what is meant by quality and its unique position in a manufacturing environment to improve competitive business performance this text defines all the fundamental ingredients required to introduce an improvement in quality Concise and easy to read the theory is backed up by numerous industrial experiences illustrating the practical obstacles when implementing any quality change Focusing on the essentials of quality strategies principles and techniques designing for quality is also discussed and new techniques for assessing the risks and costs of non conformance are introduced The result is an insight to quality engineering that will prove invaluable to engineering students and professionals

The Royal Navy in the Age of Austerity 1919-22 G. H. Bennett, 2016-10-06 This book thoroughly explores and analyses naval policy during the period of austerity that followed the First World War During this post war period as the Royal Navy identified Japan its likely opponent in a future naval war the British Government was forced to tighten its belt and cut back on naval expenditure in the interests of National Economy G H Bennett draws connections between the early 20th century and the present day showing how the same kind of connections exist between naval and foreign policy the provision of ships for the Royal Navy business and regional prosperity and employment The Royal Navy in the Age of Austerity 1919 22 engages with a series of important historiographical debates relating to the history of the Royal Navy the failures of British Defence policy in the inter war period and the evolution of British foreign policy after 1919 together with more mundane debates about British economic industrial social and political history in the aftermath of the First World War It will be of great interest to scholars and students of British naval history

Britain and Italy in the Era of the First World War Stefano Marcuzzi, 2020-12-10 Reassesses British and Italian grand strategies from 1914 to 1920 including the war the peace conference and the Fiume crisis Churchill and the Strategic Dilemmas before the World Wars John H. Maurer, 2014-04-04 Before Michael I Handel died his colleagues and students compiled this collection of essays that were written for a conference on strategy held during 2001 The papers address Churchill s views and ideas on war strategy and realpolitik

Brewed in Japan Jeffrey W. Alexander, 2013-09-24 Although Japan s beer industry dates back nearly 145 years to date there has been no English language source documenting its origins growth and evolution Spanning the earliest attempts to brew beer to the recent popularity of local craft brews Brewed in Japan explores beer s steady rise to become today s beverage of the masses Alexander sheds light on the advent of Western style taverns and beer gardens the control of beer production by Japan s Ministry of Finance during the Second World War the rapid rise in women s beer consumption postwar and the continued dominance of long surviving firms such as Asahi Kirin and Sapporo Featuring an array of Japanese sources this book further illustrates how post war marketing campaigns and shifting consumer preferences made beer Japan s leading alcoholic beverage by the 1960s      Anti-Submarine Warfare in World War I John Abbatiello,2006-05-02 Investigating the employment of British aircraft against German submarines during the final years of the First World War this new book places anti submarine campaigns from the air in the wider history of the First World War The Royal Naval Air Service invested heavily in aircraft of all types aeroplanes seaplanes airships and kite balloons in order to counter the German U boats Under the Royal Air Force the air campaign against U boats continued uninterrupted Aircraft bombed German U boat bases in Flanders conducted area and hunting patrols around the coasts of Britain and escorted merchant convoys to safety Despite the fact that aircraft acting alone destroyed only one U boat during the war the overall contribution of naval aviation to foiling U boat attacks was significant Only five merchant vessels succumbed to submarine attack when convoyed by a combined air and surface escort during World War I This book examines aircraft and weapons technology aircrew training and the aircraft production issues that shaped this campaign Then a close examination of anti submarine operations bombing patrols and escort yields a significantly different judgment from existing interpretations of these operations This study is the first to take an objective look at the writing and publication of the naval and air official histories as they told the story of naval aviation during the Great War The author also examines the German view of aircraft effectiveness through German actions prisoner interrogations official histories and memoirs to provide a comparative judgment The conclusion closes with a brief narrative of post war air anti submarine developments and a summary of findings Overall the author concludes that despite the challenges of organization training and production the employment of aircraft against U boats was largely successful during the Great War This book will be of interest to historians of naval and air power history as well as students of World War I and military history in general      The Pacific Campaign in World War II William Bruce Johnson,2006-05-02 This is a fascinating new account of how diplomacy and politics gave way to military strategy and warfare in the Pacific Presenting previously unpublished documents this book freshly examines the key events in the fight for the Pacific      The Seabound Coast William Johnston,William G.P. Rawling,Richard H. Gimblett,John MacFarlane,2011-01-14 Commended for the 2011 Keith Matthews Award From its creation in 1910 the Royal Canadian Navy was marked by political debate over the countrys need for a naval service The Seabound Coast Volume I of a three volume official history of the RCN traces the story of the navys first three decades from its beginnings as Prime Minister Sir Wilfrid Lauriers tinpot navy of two obsolescent British cruisers to the force of six modern destroyers and four minesweepers with which it began the Second World War The previously published Volume II of this history Part 1 No Higher Purpose and Part 2 A Blue Water Navy has already told the story of the RCN during the 19391945 conflict Based on extensive archival research The Seabound Coast recounts the acrimonious debates that eventually led to the RCNs establishment in 1910 its tenuous existence following the Laurier governments sudden replacement by that of Robert Borden one year later and the navys struggles during the First World War when it was forced to defend Canadian waters with only a handful of resources From the effects of the devastating Halifax explosion in December 1917 to the U boat campaign off Canadas East Coast in 1918 the volume examines how the RCNs task was made more difficult by the often inconsistent advice Ottawa received from the British Admiralty in London In its final section this important and well illustrated history relates the RCNs experience during the interwar years when anti war sentiment and an economic depression threatened the services very survival The Road to Oran David Brown,2004-07-01 On 3 July 1940 soon after the collapse of the French front and France s request for an armistice a reluctant Royal Navy commander opened fire on the French Navy squadron at Mers el Kebir Some 1 300 French sailors lost their lives The late David Brown s detailed account finally conveys an objective understanding of the course of events that led u Mistress of Science John S. Croucher,Rosalind F. Croucher,2016-08-15 The first biography of the remarkable Janet Taylor a nineteenth century navigator and mathematician who left an incredible mark on the male dominated field of sea navigation Naval Warfare Jeremy Black,2017-01-05 The modern age of naval warfare began with the combination of steam power iron warships and modern artillery which launched an intense period of international competition Tracing naval warfare from the 1860s into the future noted historian Jeremy Black provides a dynamic account of strategy and warfare worldwide He focuses on the interplay of technological development geopolitics and resource issues to assess not only the role of leading powers but all those involved in naval conflict Emphasizing conflict and changes since 1945 and notably since the end of the Cold War the author considers possible future developments of navies their challengers and the geopolitics of maritime power Japan's Motorcycle Wars Jeffrey W. Alexander,2009-01-01 For decades the crown jewels of Japan s postwar manufacturing industry motorcycles remain one of Japan s top exports Japan s Motorcycle Wars assesses the historical development and societal impact of the motorcycle industry from the influence of motor sports on vehicle sales in the early 1900s to the postwar developments that led to the massive wave of motorization sweeping the Asia Pacific region today Jeffrey Alexander brings a wealth of information to light providing English translations of transcripts industry publications and company histories that have until now been available only in Japanese By exploring the industry as a whole he reveals that Japan s motorcycle industry was characterized not by communitarian success but by misplaced loyalties technical disasters and brutal competition Strong to Save: Maritime Mission in Hong Kong from Whampoa Reach to the Mariners' Club Stephen Davies,2017-07-19 Tracing its origins back to 1822 in Whampoa the Mariners Club in Hong Kong was established to meet a specific need for an Anglo Chinese society defined by that most dubious of activities seafaring Its creation was anything but straightforward and in this can be seen the mutable and often tortuous relations between the various religious bodies the local population the transient sailors the emerging captains of industry and the growing regulatory reach of the colonial government The club evolved through many embodiments and witnessed the growth of Hong Kong from a collection of mat sheds on the foreshore through colony to its current status Throughout its turbulent past it has been occasionally marginalized but has always served as an important base for the key actors in the main commercial activity in Hong Kong seafarers This is a history of one of the most enduring institutions of Hong Kong and the first of its kind Using the Club s own records as well as a wide range of sources both from within Hong Kong and from the seafaring world at large this is a comprehensive account of the life of the Missions the tenancy of the different chaplains managers and stewards the changes in seafaring practices and shipping and the transformation of Hong Kong itself The Secret War Against Sweden Ola Tunander,2004-07-22 Ola Tunander s revelations make it clear that the United States and Britain ran a secret war in Swedish waters

The Royal Navy, 1930-2000 Richard Harding,2005 This book explores innovation within the Royal Navy from the financial constraints of the 1930s through to the refocusing of the Royal Navy after 1990

Royal Navy Strategy in the Far East, 1919-1939 Andrew Field,2004 To understand why British naval policy in the Far East was so unsuccessful when the Japanese entered World War II the author takes the reader back to the end of World War I and examines the roots of British naval strategy

Navies in Northern Waters Rolf Hobson,TOM KRISTIANSEN,2004-08-02 Navies in Northern Waters is a collection of articles covering the roles played by the secondary navies of northern European powers and the United States within the maritime balance of power The contributions covering the 18th and 19th centuries focus on their relations with each other as they sought to create a counterweight to the dominant naval power of Britain The inter war years are treated from the perspectives of international disarmament efforts within the framework of collective security and the subsequent naval rivalry in the Baltic area in the years leading up to the Second World War For the post 1945 period the contributions concentrate on superpower rivalry in northern waters during the Cold War the changing aspects of security policy since the collapse of the Soviet Union and the particular challenges facing small coastal states policing extensive waters of increasing economic importance

The Royal Navy 1930-1990 Richard Harding,2004-11-25 This new book explores innovation within the Royal Navy from the financial constraints of the 1930s to World War Two the Cold War and the refocusing of the Royal Navy after 1990 Successful adaptation to new conditions has been critical to all navies at all times

Dreadnought Gunnery and the Battle of Jutland John Brooks,2005-03-09 This new book reviews critically recent studies of fire control and describes the essentials of naval gunnery in the dreadnought era With a foreword by Professor Andrew Lambert it shows how in 1913 the Admiralty rejected Arthur Pollen s Argo system for the Dreyer fire control tables
