Regional Integration in Africa OECD, Asian Development Bank, 2002-04-25 Regional integration and co ordination are not a panacea but they could hold the key to African countries long awaited participation in the world economy This was one of the conclusions of the second International Forum on African Perspectives Inter-American Cooperation at a Crossroads G. Mace, A. Cooper, T. Shaw, 2010-12-02 Fifteen years after the first Summit of the Americas the world and the Americas have changed enormously Competing strategies for economic development and political representation have shattered the hemispheric consensus of the 1990s This book analyzes these developments and points towards a future for inter American co operation

Research and International Trade Policy Negotiations Mercedes Botto, 2010-11-16 The international trade negotiations that were launched throughout Latin America in the 1990s required developing countries to seek out research that could help them make informed decisions This book examines the complex links between the research centers and international organizations who produced the information and the governments who used it

William I. Zartman, Victor Kremeneyuk, 2005-04-21 This book examines the costs and benefits of ending the fighting in a range of conflicts and probes the reasons why negotiators provide or fail to provide resolutions that go beyond just stopping the shooting What is the desired and achievable mix between negotiation strategies that look backward to end current hostilities and those that look ahead to prevent their recurrence To answer that question a wide range of case studies is marshaled to explore relevant peacemaking situations from the end of the Thirty Years War and the Napoleonic Wars to more recent settlements of the late 20th and early 21st centuries including large scale conflicts like the end of WW II and smaller scale sometimes internal conflicts like those in Cyprus Armenia and Azerbaijan and Mozambique Cases on Bosnia and the Middle East add extra interest Published in cooperation with the International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis this important research is expertly edited by renowned conflict scholars I William Zartman and Victor Kremeneyuk and includes original case studies from scholars and practitioners around the globe including Janice Gross Stein Daniel Druckman and Beth Simmons among many others Negotiating Trade Liberalization in Argentina and Chile Andrea C. Bianculli, 2016-12-08 How do international negotiations affect domestic politics Starting in the 1990s countries throughout Latin America embarked on many and simultaneous negotiations On the shifting ground of widening and deepening trade agendas and diverse arenas what factors determined trade politics This book examines the domestic political dynamics triggered by South South North South and multilateral agendas in Argentina and Chile between 1990 and 2005 Using a much needed cross negotiation and cross country comparative perspectives and through detailed empirical analyses of several key negotiations it proposes an explanation that emphasizes the interplay between international negotiations and domestic trade politics taken as the result of the complex and dynamic interdependencies and interrelations between state and society Informed by interviews with public officials businesses and civil society the analysis reveals that variation in the depth of agendas the distributional effects and the uncertainty of political outcomes all have important consequences for domestic preference formation collective action strategies and types of relationships Given this the variety of negotiations when considered separately and comparatively show that South South North South and multilateral processes promote different patterns of trade politics In sum although national specificities and historical legacies are important the book argues that trade policy comes first in creating domestic politics in Latin America Globalization, Regionalization and Business M. Schelhase, 2008-10-01 The book provides new insight into the role of organised business interests It supports the concept of political economy and demonstrates how it transcends the limitations of CPE or IPE to form a coherent whole The book maps the conflict convergence and influence of organized business interests in the context of regional integration Governing Regional
