

MERCOSUR: integración y crecimiento.

Dr. R. Bouzas / Dr. J.M. Fanelli

Transcurrida una década de la firma del Tratado de Asociación que dio nacimiento al Mercosur, hay dos preguntas que siguen siendo fundamentales: ¿es el Mercosur una herramienta adecuada para integrarse a la economía global? ¿puede el Mercosur contribuir a acelerar el crecimiento en el largo plazo?

El propósito de este libro es brindar las herramientas analíticas y la información que se necesitan para una mejor comprensión del problema y para una evaluación, con criterio propio, de los debates y trabajos que se ocupan de estas dos cuestiones.

En el texto hemos puesto especial cuidado en los aspectos pedagógicos, con el objetivo de lograr una comprensión adecuada por parte del lector no especializado. Por este motivo, en la primera parte se desarrollan las herramientas de la teoría del comercio internacional necesarias para entender los argumentos económicos implicados y luego, se aborda de lleno el análisis del proceso de integración.

Mercosur Roberto Bouzas, José María Fanelli, 2002      World Trade and Local Public Interest Csongor István Nagy, 2020-07-15 Trade liberalization has shaped international economic relations since the conclusion of the GATT 1947 The last few decades have seen a significant shift in the focus of this process multilateralism seems to have reached its limits giving way to regionalism and the focus of trade liberalization has shifted to non tariff barriers While these developments have attracted considerable attention exploring them from comparative perspectives has been largely neglected Trading systems the WTO regional economic integrations and federal systems are all based on the same dichotomy of free trade and local public interest they generally prohibit the constituent parties states from restricting trade but exempt them from this limitation if the restriction is warranted by a legitimate local end The purpose of this volume is to contribute to filling the above mentioned research gap by exploring central issues in regional economic integrations from a comparative perspective It provides a general economic analysis of the costs and benefits of trade liberalization and the role and function of normative values in commercial policy This is followed by a comparative analysis of the approaches used in various regional economic integrations in North America Europe and Latin America and federal markets the United States Australia and India regarding the balance between free trade and local public interest Key issues in investment law one of the most contentious elements of next generation free trade agreements are also addressed      Asia and Latin America Jörn Dosch, Olaf Jacob, 2010-02-25 This book analyses the economic political and socio cultural relations between Asia and Latin America and examines their growing importance in international relations      Integración, equidad y desarrollo , 2005      Handbook of Latin American Studies, Vol. 61 Lawrence Boudon, 2006-04-01 The one source that sets reference collections on Latin American studies apart from all other geographic areas of the world The Handbook has provided scholars interested in Latin America with a bibliographical source of a quality unavailable to scholars in most other branches of area studies Latin American Research Review Beginning with volume 41 1979 the University of Texas Press became the publisher of the Handbook of Latin American Studies the most comprehensive annual bibliography in the field Compiled by the Hispanic Division of the Library of Congress and annotated by a corps of more than 140 specialists in various disciplines the Handbook alternates from year to year between social sciences and humanities The Handbook annotates works on Mexico Central America the Caribbean and the Guianas Spanish South America and Brazil as well as materials covering Latin America as a whole Most of the subsections are preceded by introductory essays that serve as biannual evaluations of the literature and research under way in specialized areas The Handbook of Latin American Studies is the oldest continuing reference work in the field Lawrence Boudon of the Library of Congress Hispanic Division has been the editor since 2000 and Katherine D McCann has been assistant editor since 1999 The subject categories for Volume 61 are as follows

The Southern Cone Model Nicola Phillips, 2004-08-02 Developing an original blend of perspectives from the fields of international and comparative political economy this book presents an innovative and in depth account of the contemporary political economy of the southern cone of Latin America Argentina Brazil Chile Paraguay and Uruguay It identifies a new and distinctive model of regional capitalist development emerging in the southern cone and a complex relationship with both the global political economy and the five distinctive national political economies in the region Ranging across the contours of labour business states and regionalist processes Phillips assesses the significance of the Southern Cone Model for the ways in which we understand contemporary capitalist development at both national and transnational levels

Regionalization and Globalization in the Modern World Economy Alex E. Fernández Jilberto, André Mommen, 2017-03-16 Originally published in 1998 This collection of outstanding essays explores the importance of regionalization and globalization to the world economy International contributions explore the process of regionalization in the Pacific Area The Americas Africa and Europe and question whether the world economy is characterized by increasing regionalization rather than globalization The book is an excellent contribution to debate on development economics It investigates how the processes of globalization and regionalization driven by liberalization of trade and capital markets weaken nationally established monopolies and protected industries and it looks at the challenge to Third World nations and the countries of the former socialist bloc

Merger Control Regimes in Emerging Economies Marco Botta, 2011-01-01 When emerging economies draft competition law and begin to enforce it they usually draw on the EU and US competition law systems However significant country specific legal and practical variations tend to arise quickly making it imperative for international business lawyers to acquire more than a passing knowledge of competition legislation and relevant case law in these countries Now for the first time a thoroughly researched book provides an in depth empirical analysis of the legal problems raised for competition and especially for merger control and its enforcement in emerging economies using a case study approach in the Brazilian and Argentinean contexts to reveal paradigmatic trends Brazil and Argentina are chosen not only because they are among the major trading jurisdictions in the developing world but also because they have each established a track record of over a decade in formulating and enforcing a system of merger control The author describes and analyses all Brazilian and Argentinean legislation in the field of competition law as well as the main merger decisions adopted by the competition authorities and the judgements held by the courts of these countries The book thoroughly covers the system of competition law currently enforced in each country as well as the main innovations of proposed new competition law currently pending in Brazil In addition the author draws on field interviews with competition lawyers and officers of competition authorities conducted between April and July 2008 in Buenos Aires Brasilia and S o Paulo The analysis considers such issues as the following y impact of M y enforcement of competition law and the judiciary y criteria for notification of economic concentrations y application of econometric tests to define the relevant market and the degree of market concentration ¿Integración comercial como un camino al desarrollo? World Bank, 2019-10-10 After a period of rapid economic growth associated with high commodity prices the Latin America and Caribbean region has again entered a phase of lackluster performance Overall this slowdown seems more self inflicted than imported and the outlook for the region is not encouraging either A tepid export response constrains the prospect of growing through external demand whereas limited fiscal space leaves little room to stimulate domestic demand The outlook could deteriorate further if the international environment became less conducive This report explores whether inward looking development strategies could be one of the reasons for slow growth in Latin America and the Caribbean Trade barriers are higher than in other developing regions and while numerous preferential trade agreements have been signed many of them are intra regional The report shows that South North agreements are associated with increases in economic complexity and faster economic growth than South South agreements It illustrates the point by assessing the economic social spatial and environmental impacts of two major South North agreements signed over the last year

integración y cooperación en América Latina y Asia-Pacífico Yusuke Murakami, 2017-12-28 Los cuatro artículos aquí reunidos pretenden iniciar una discusión más activa sobre las relaciones entre América Latina y la región del Asia Pacífico. Los autores intentan analizar el pasado y el presente de dichas relaciones en particular desde la perspectiva de Japón y buscar un nuevo horizonte para ellas en este siglo. En un marco de globalización y de reacomodo de las hegemonías tanto económicas como políticas junto con el afianzamiento de las democracias en la región los artículos analizan temas como desarrollo y cooperación internacional entre el Asia del Este y Latinoamérica comparando las dinámicas de desarrollo de los países implicados agroindustria industria automotriz criaderos de salmón etc. Asimismo se plantea una revisión de la relación comercial asimétrica del Perú con el oriente de Asia para hacerla más equitativa. Finalmente la perspectiva política revisa las posibilidades de cimentar la relación que tiene actualmente tanto Japón como los países de nuestra región.

Política exterior y desafíos regionales en el siglo XXI: integración física, productiva y recursos estratégicos Wanderley dos Reis Nascimento Júnior, Alina Ribeiro, Natália Noschese Fingermann, Heitor Erthal, Guilherme Augusto Guimarães Ferreira, Fabio Sánchez, Luis Padilla Vassaux, Jonatan Badillo Reguera, Paulo Cesar Dos Santos Martins, Edson Dos Santos Jr., 2025-05-26 El propósito del tomo 21 se centra en abordar en primera instancia aspectos clave de la política exterior en los casos de actores regionales y subregionales. Dado el rol que desempeñan dichos Estados puede determinar e incidir frente a intereses objetivos estratégicos para la integración. Mediante la propuesta de modelos de análisis en el tomo se determinan variables importantes que permitan trascender la variable ideológica para explicar la crisis estructural de la noción de regionalismo y la práctica de la integración regional. Al respecto dentro de la agenda de integración regional los objetivos estratégicos pasan por las demandas internas y sus intereses nacionales que requieren paz y desarrollo una mayor integración productiva y física así como por la seguridad de recursos estratégicos entre otros. En este sentido la integración regional debe ir más allá de ser un compromiso ideacional institucionalizado en las constituciones de los países latinoamericanos como un fin en sí mismo para así contribuir al bienestar de sus sociedades de manera significativa como un medio para prosperar en todas las dimensiones. Para ello se requiere una revitalización de la práctica de la integración y la cooperación intrarregional a partir de elementos clave de la noción de regionalismo a partir de la cual se reconozcan las particularidades y las heterogeneidades existentes tanto coyunturales como estructurales en todos los niveles. Lo anterior demanda mayores discusiones y contribuciones que aborden aspectos como el liderazgo el rol y la inserción internacional el desarrollo productivo y la interconexión el multilateralismo la seguridad hídrica entre otros.

Cuaderno de negocios internacionales e integración, 2004 Integración regional, desarrollo y equidad Armando Di Filippo, Rolando Franco, 2000 En este libro se examinan tanto los vínculos entre los procesos de globalización en el plano mundial y de integración en el plano regional como sus impactos sobre las oportunidades de desarrollo de América Latina y el Caribe con especial referencia a los problemas de empleo y equidad. Distinguiendo dos tipos de acuerdos en proceso de gestación y consolidación en el nivel hemisférico y examinando el papel del Estado naciente en la promoción de un desarrollo equitativo el libro trata de dilucidar la verdadera función de la integración regional latinoamericana en el ámbito del desarrollo con equidad
