Lyon,2016-03-15 There is no guarantee in life of what each day will bring GOD is our strength and salvation He will never fail us in any way nor will He ever turn us away These poems cover various situations but each one explains where we find our strength which is in GOD Almighty Hope in GOD is all we have to hold on to Man will fail us but GODS faithfulness is our fortress that will never fail As you read each poem and the scriptures represented there you will find just how much GOD loves you and how much HE desires to be with you in your walk of life Persevere Hope is in GOD Have Mercy upon Me, the Prayer of the Penitent in the Fifty-First Psalm Explained Andrew Murray,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1896 edition Excerpt Thirty first Day aue mercg upon me c ffioo Then shalt Thou delight in the sacrifices of righteousness in burnt offering and whole burnt offering then shall they offer bullocks upon Thine altar Ver 19 WHEN God in His good pleasure shall do good to Zion and shall build the walls of Jerusalem a glorious time will dawn for the city and the people of God Then says David shalt Thou delight in the sacrifices which shall be brought to Thee and then shall the people also have delight and offer them with gladness upon Thine altar In a preceding verse he had said Thou delightest not in sacrifice In that utterance we found a proof of the deep spiritual insight that David had obtained into the insufficiency of the old covenant sacrifices God could not take delight in these offerings as such that is as the work of man coupled with so much unrighteousness that they could not take away and with so much self righteousness that found its nourishment in them He had prepared for Himself something higher and better namely true obedience and the all sufficient sacrifice of His Son Ps xl 7 8 Heb x 5 10 But lo David now understands by the self same Spirit that had made known to him the hidden wisdom of the previous portion of this Psalm that when once Zion should again be visited by God and the good pleasure of God towards her be made manifest He should again take delight in the sacrifices of righteousness Very important lessons are taught us here We see first of all how the worth of our religion depends wholly on our relation to God The very same Psalm which says Thou delightest not in sacrifice says again at a later turn Then shalt Thou delight in the sacrifices of righteousness In the interval Reflections of God's Love and Mercy Gwen Strickland, 2008-06 Being human guarantees that we will face problems that try the spirit Being Christian guarantees us divine assurance that we are not alone Our Lord is familiar with pain and suffering Take comfort in knowing that he is our friend He walks beside us and holds our hand This collection of poems was born out of my own joys and trials I believe there is a melody in pain We need only seek it I pray this book inspires you and gives comfort through trying times
